

Emily Brown
Circulation Librarian

Education:

B.A.S. University of Pittsburgh, 2002. M.L.I.S. University of Pittsburgh, 2005.

Responsibilities:

Emily's responsibilities include overseeing the department of Circulation within the Oklahoma City University's Law Library.

Experience:

Emily Brown came to Oklahoma City University after spending almost three years on the faculty of Northeastern State University, both in Tahlequah and Muskogee. Emily's work in academic libraries can be traced to the Bevier Engineering Library at the University of Pittsburgh. She was a reference and instruction librarian at NSU, as well as Access Services Librarian and Resource Corrdinator to the Department of Professional Studies.

Teaching:

- ▶ NSU Freshman Connections, Fall 2007, 2008.

Presentations:

- ▶ Blogged Participation: Using your Blog to its Potential. <http://brownez.wordpress.com/2009/07/16/blogged-participation/>, unCOILed, 2009 COIL summer workshop, July 2009, Muskogee Oklahoma.
- ▶ Embedding Voice into Power Point Presentations. <http://www.slideserve.com/presentation/2534/Tutorial-for-OLA> 2009 OLA Pre-Conference, April 2009, Midwest City Oklahoma.
- ▶ Adding Voice to Power Point, 2008 COIL summer workshop, July 2008, Edmond Oklahoma
- ▶ The Guerilla Mentor, OLA, April 2008, Tulsa Oklahoma

Professional Organizations:

- ▶ Oklahoma Library Association, member
- ▶ Community of Oklahoma Instruction Librarians, secretary (2009)
- ▶ Digital Services Interest Group, member
- ▶ Public and Access Services Interest Group, member
- ▶ Association of College and Research Libraries, member
- ▶ Oklahoma Association of College and Research Libraries, member

Personal Interest:

- ▶ Web 2.0 Technology
Tuesday Two.Oh! Blog Postings at browez @ the library