

Jenny L. Rempel
Circulation Assistant

Education:

B.A. Oklahoma Baptist University 2001; M.A. Wheaton College 2002; M.A. Miami University 2006; M.L.I.S. University of Oklahoma (December 2009).

Responsibilities:

Jenny's duties include opening the library Monday through Friday, overseeing circulation student workers, and assisting the circulation librarian and the reference staff with tasks including course reserves, interlibrary loan, and maintaining circulation statistics.

Experience:

Jenny has a diverse background in anthropology, archaeology, and history. In recent years, she has returned to her home state of Oklahoma to attend library school at the University of Oklahoma and pursue a career in library studies. She will graduate with her degree in December 2009. Her work experience includes (1) assisting university faculty in research and teaching, (2) teaching gifted students at Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth, and (3) leading college students in history discussion classes at Miami University. She began her library career at the circulation desk at Miami University as a Graduate Student Supervisor, and recently she has contributed to ComPADRE.org, a digital collection of physics and astronomy resources, as a cataloger and collection analyst.

voice: (405) 208-5393
OCU School of Law Library
2501 N. Blackwelder
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73106
Send eMail