The University

Oklahoma City University is a nationally and internationally renowned educational institution. A private, United Methodist-affiliated university, Oklahoma City University offers a unique blend of tradition, quality, community, and innovation. U.S. News and World Report consistently ranks Oklahoma City University among the best master’s level institutions in the Western region.

The university traces its roots to Epworth University, chartered in 1904 as a joint venture of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (now the combined United Methodist Church), and the Oklahoma City Trade Club (now the Greater Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce). From 1911 to 1922, the university was located in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and known as the Methodist University of Oklahoma. Oklahoma City University has been at its present location at NW Twenty-third Street and Blackwelder Avenue in Oklahoma City since 1922, when what is now the Clara E. Jones Administration Building was completed.

Located in the state’s capital city, Oklahoma City University’s beautiful campus occupies 104 acres in a diverse and vibrant metropolitan area. The architecture on campus is a pleasing blend of American collegiate, Gothic, and functional contemporary. The OCU School of Law’s campus is located downtown in the historic Central High School building at 800 N. Harvey.

A broad spectrum of courses is offered through the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, which comprises the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, School of Visual Arts, and Wimberly School of Religion; the Meinders School of Business; the Margaret E. Petree College of Performing Arts which comprises the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment, Bass School of Music, and School of Theatre; the School of Law; and the Kramer School of Nursing.

Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University (SPST at OCU) is a United Methodist-affiliated seminary accredited by the Association of Theological Schools, the Higher Learning Commission, and the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. SPST at OCU offers the Master of Divinity degree. The School’s mission, rooted in the Wesleyan tradition, is to inspire passion for ministry in diverse Christian bodies and to educate leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the church, and transform the world. For more information about SPST at OCU, see spst.edu.

Oklahoma City University takes pride in its dual role as Oklahoma City’s university and the United Methodist university of Oklahoma. Its students come from forty-eighty states in the United States and from more than sixty countries throughout the world.

Oklahoma City University creates an environment that brings together outstanding faculty, exceptional students, excellent teaching facilities, and the most advanced and innovative ideas in curriculum and teaching methods. Because of the personal involvement possible on campus, Oklahoma City University students are known by fellow students and professors and benefit from the personalized education offered by the university's low student-faculty ratio of 11:1.

With a 110-year tradition of church-related service and academic excellence, Oklahoma City University today is a vital institution with a growing reputation as a center of quality, personalized, values-conscious higher education. Oklahoma City University holds memberships in Oklahoma Independent Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Schools and Colleges of the United Methodist Church, the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, and the Council on Undergraduate Research.

The Kramer School of Nursing is a member of the Council of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs of the National League for Nursing. The School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools. Oklahoma City University is an equal educational opportunity institution.

Accreditation

Oklahoma City University is approved by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. Oklahoma City University and many of its academic programs are accredited by nationally recognized organizations. The following information is provided so students may contact accrediting organizations:

Assessment

Oklahoma City University is committed to creating an environment in which faculty and staff work in collaboration with students to enhance learning. We believe that effective assessment practices are central to understanding the impact of this work. Our assessment team develops meaningful partnerships with faculty, students and staff as they collect information about learning. Assessment is an integral part of the strategic planning and budgeting process for Oklahoma City University. Ultimately, the purpose of assessment is to use results to inform program and system improvement.

Diversity

Oklahoma City University celebrates and seeks diversity in all its forms—from human qualities of gender, race, sexual orientation, and disability to diversity of ideas regarding religious beliefs, cultural identities, and political and social convictions. It is understood that the intersections of varied populations and ideas enrich lives while developing personal values based on expansive interactions with those with whom common experiences are shared and those with whom few common experiences are shared. Diversity enriches academic, professional, and personal opportunities and is a source of strength and empowerment for all.

Oklahoma City University actively seeks all forms of diversity among the faculty, staff, and administration and pursues programming—both in and beyond the classroom—that examines and responds to the world of ideas from an ethical stance shaped by knowledge rather than by prejudice.
A Modern Metropolitan Setting

Home to more than 1.2 million Oklahomans and an average of 300 days of sunshine per year, Oklahoma City offers an abundance of the arts, quality healthcare, excellence in education, and more. And it does so without high costs, energy shortages, or traffic congestion. It is a distinctly liveable city where you can chase your dreams and still enjoy a rich quality of life.

Oklahoma City’s hip, spirited environment blends with its deep western heritage to create a place where culture & commerce thrive. With renowned festivals, national sporting events, treasure-filled museums, and a variety of districts highlighting arts and entertainment, the possibilities for adventure and fun in Oklahoma City are endless. Situated on vibrant 23rd street, our campus sits in the heart of OKC in the historic Uptown District, which has been experiencing an exciting time of revitalization. A variety of historic ethnic neighborhoods, as well as a wide range of educational, civic, religious, entertainment, sporting, shopping, and dining options surround Oklahoma City University.

On any given night you may find yourself dining at one of the local hot spots in Automobile Alley or Deep Deuce, enjoying a festival in the Plaza District or Midtown, appreciating one of the many art galleries in the Paseo Arts District, taking in a Thunder basketball game downtown, playing laser tag in the Bricktown Entertainment District, or taking a stroll by beautiful Lake Hefner. There is always an adventure waiting for you in Oklahoma City!

“Oklahoma City offers so much more than I initially expected when I came here from out of state. It has all the conveniences of a big city while at the same time retaining small town comfort. It is a unique hybrid of those two different cultures.”
—Ken, Junior, Mathematics & Chemistry Education

Did you know that Oklahoma City is one of the top river sports destinations in the world?

Located just south of downtown, the Boathouse District, along the Oklahoma River, is one of Oklahoma City’s top attractions for adventure seekers.

General Admission Policy

Oklahoma City University is interested in graduate students who want to learn. Careful consideration is given to each application. Important factors to be considered include undergraduate records and recommendations from academic counselors, desirable traits of character and personality, and the interests and goals of the applicant in relation to the graduate programs of study offered by the university.

In the quest for academic excellence, preference will be given to those applicants whose evidence of academic fitness and professional promise indicates that they are particularly qualified to study in the graduate programs at Oklahoma City University.

Admission Requirements

Admission to Oklahoma City University’s graduate programs is open to all domestic students holding, at minimum, bachelor’s degrees from regionally accredited colleges or universities and all international students whose credentials have been approved by their country’s ministry of education. All students must meet the criteria indicating high potential to succeed in graduate-level work. The academic unit holds final authority over admission decisions regarding entry into its programs. All graduate programs require a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 for admission, based on the undergraduate or most recent degree. Some programs require a qualifying GMAT or GRE score.

The university reserves the right to deny admission or continued enrollment. The university does not discriminate against any individual because of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Admission on Probation

Admission may be granted on a case-by-case basis to applicants who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement or other academic standards. No applicant will be admitted on probation with a cumulative GPA below 2.75 except by permission of the dean.

Admission Procedure

All application material must be sent directly to the following:

Office of Admissions, Oklahoma City University
2501 North Blackwelder
Oklahoma City, OK 73106

Application

Apply online at okcu.edu/admissions/graduate. The application process varies for each program, so please contact the Office of Graduate Admissions at (405) 208-5351 or at gadmissions@okcu.edu to determine the complete application requirements.

Some programs will require an additional statement or other documents:

Each application to a graduate program requires a statement of purpose. The statement of purpose should be approximately 250 words describing reasons for pursuing a graduate degree and academic and professional goals (applicable to all programs unless otherwise indicated below). In addition, submission of a current resume is also required of each program.

- Master of Music: 150 to 200 words describing reasons for pursuing a graduate degree and academic and professional goals. In addition to statement, please attach a separate document indicating recitals, programs and all performance experience.
- MBA: A minimum of 500 words addressing reasons for pursuing the MBA, background in business, and academic and professional goals. Applicants must also submit a current resume.
- Master of Science: Accounting: 750+ words, and Energy Management or Energy Legal Studies: 500+ words describing background in industry, business experience, and purpose for seeking the degree. Applicants must also submit a professional resume.
- Master of Science: Criminology: Submit a typed, double-spaced response to the following question, with a minimum of one typed page: What are the three most significant social issues currently facing us today, and what are the solutions you would suggest?
- Ph.D. or DNP: 500–750 words demonstrating effective writing skills describing how the doctorate will help achieve life and career goals. In addition to the statement, submit a separate paragraph describing competency in word processing, basic spreadsheet use, presentation software, and Internet skills.
- Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing: No more than three pages addressing the following two prompts:
  1. Write about a book that you have read recently. Explain, with specific references to the book and to craft elements*, why that book did or did not work for you.
  * (Craft elements: plot, characterization, setting, scenes, metaphor, line breaks, imagery, sonnets, etc.).
Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is approved by the dean of the student’s school only after the student has been admitted to Oklahoma City University. Petitions for transfer of graduate credit must be submitted to the dean of the student’s school. No course credit may be transferred unless the grade received was at least a B (3.00 on a 4.00 scale) from a regionally accredited institution or appropriately accredited institution located outside the U.S. Correspondence courses are not accepted toward a graduate degree.

Transfer credit for institutions outside of the U.S. must be fully recognized by the appropriate accrediting body (such as the Ministry of Education) in the country of origin. The Office of International Admissions will determine the accreditation of institutions outside the U.S. International students may not receive credit for English as a Second Language courses taken at U.S. colleges, and students may not receive credit for English language courses taught in countries where the medium of instruction is a language other than English.

Transfer credit will not be granted until official transcripts of all graduate work completed at regionally accredited U.S. institutions have been received by the registrar and official transcripts for graduate work completed at institutions outside the U.S. have been received by the Office of International Admissions. The dean or director of the graduate program is responsible for granting transfer credit. See additional school- or program-specific requirements related to acceptance of graduate transfer credit.

Degree requirements may be fulfilled by courses transferred from a completed degree conferred by another regionally accredited university. However, the student will not be awarded credit hours associated with those courses.

Degree requirements may be fulfilled by courses transferred from an uncompleted degree begun at another regionally accredited university, and the student may be awarded the credit hours associated with those courses up to one-third of the total required courses/credit but not to exceed 12 credit hours for the Oklahoma City University master’s degree.

Degree requirements may be fulfilled by courses transferred from a completed Oklahoma City University degree, and the student may be awarded the credit hours associated with those courses up to one-third of the total required courses/credits but not to exceed 12 credit hours for the Oklahoma City University master’s degree.
Non-Degree-Seeking Student Admission

A student who does not wish to work toward an advanced degree, but who seeks to earn graduate credits for appropriate courses may enter graduate school as a nondegree-seeking student. In the event the student is subsequently admitted to a graduate program for an advanced degree, a maximum of 12 credits taken as a nondegree-seeking student may be used retroactively in meeting the student’s credit requirement for a degree.

Undergraduate/Graduate Concurrent Enrollment

Undergraduate students who have fewer than 9 credit hours remaining to complete a bachelor’s degree and wish to enroll concurrently in graduate courses may seek conditional admission to a graduate program. Once admitted, the student is limited to 6 graduate-level credit hours in that program. The student must complete his or her undergraduate degree prior to enrolling in a second semester of graduate study.

Admission Inquiries

For information concerning graduate programs at Oklahoma City University, contact the Office of Admissions at (405) 208-5351 or (800) 633-7242, visit our website at okcu.edu/graduate, or contact us by email at gadmissions@okcu.edu.

International Graduate Admission Procedure

Oklahoma City University currently has students from over 60 countries studying in its undergraduate and graduate programs. The university is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

Admission of International Students

All international student applications, graduate and undergraduate, are processed by the Office of International Admissions. Applications and information may be obtained online at okcu.edu/admissions/international, by emailing ia@okcu.edu, or by writing to:

Office of International Admissions
Oklahoma City University
Oklahoma City, OK 73106 U.S.A.

Most graduate programs at Oklahoma City University do not have application deadlines, but the office of International Admission recommends that applications be submitted no later than six weeks before the semester begins. Please check with the Office of International Admissions directly to learn if your program has an application deadline.

English Proficiency Policy

International students from non-English speaking countries (as indicated in the Cambridge Encyclopedia of Languages, 2003*) must demonstrate proof of English proficiency by meeting one of the following criteria:

Regular Admission

Regular admission to most graduate programs requires one of the following:

1. TOEFL internet-based test (iBT) score of 80, paper-based test (PBT) score of 550, PTE score of 53, or an overall IELTS score of 6.0 with at least a 5.5 on each subband*
2. Completion of level 112 of the intensive program at an ELS Language Center.
3. Two years attendance and graduation from high school in an English speaking country with the minimum GPA required for admission to OCU.
4. Two semesters at a U.S. regionally accredited higher education institution with a minimum of 24 transferrable credits including any undergraduate program at Oklahoma City University and good academic standing.

Provisional Admission

For some programs, students who do not meet the above criteria may be considered for provisional admission by meeting the following criteria:

- TOEFL internet-based (iBT) score of 61-79, paper-based test (PBT) score of 500-549 or an overall IELTS score of 5.5 with at least a 5.0 on each subband. To fulfill the provision, graduate students must complete 9 credit hours of graduate coursework with a 3.00 GPA or higher or complete 15 credit hours and retake the iBT TOEFL or IELTS and submit an admissible score as determined by the regular admission standards set by each department.

The Office of International Admissions will maintain the equivalency chart of appropriate English proficiency assessments.
Conditional admission may be offered for many programs if the applicant indicates that he or she will be studying at the ELS Language Center located on the Oklahoma City University campus. For applications and information about intensive English training, write to:

ELS Language Centers
1915 NW 24th Street
Oklahoma City, OK 73106, USA

okc@els.edu
els.edu

* Some graduate programs may require score(s) higher than those listed above. Check for specific department admissions criteria.

 Current English-speaking countries as listed in the Cambridge Book of Languages: American Samoa, Anguilla, Antigua/Barbuda, Australia, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Bermuda, British Guyana, Canada (except Quebec), Cayman Islands, Dominica, Falkland Islands, Fiji, Grenada, Guam, Guyana, Ireland, Jamaica/other West Indies, Liberia, Montserrat, New Zealand, Sierra Leone, South Africa, St. Helena, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Trinidad and Tobago, Turks and Caico Isle, United Kingdom, Virgin Islands, and US Pacific Trust.

 Provisional Admission is not available for all programs.

Institutional TOEFL Policy

If an applicant does not meet the English Proficiency requirements as stated above or does not have an official TOEFL score on file at the university, he or she may take the Institutional TOEFL for purposes of meeting admissions standards. If the applicant scores below 550 on the Institutional TOEFL, he or she may not be admitted. The applicant must attend language training, such as ELS, and may not begin an academic program.

If the applicant’s score on the Institutional TOEFL is 550 or better, the applicant must also take the SPEAK test or Test of Spoken English (TSE) and the Test of Written English (TWE). All applicants who meet the standards of written and spoken English as determined by a faculty committee will be admitted to the university on a provisional basis. Applicants will be evaluated on an individual basis for unconditional admission based on their performance on the TSE and TWE.

If admitted provisionally, the student must meet the following conditions:

1. Graduate students will be limited to 9 (graduate) or 12 (undergraduate) hours of academic courses which are predetermined by the student’s academic advisor who will continue to assess the student’s English abilities and
2. Must make 3.00 GPA in the first semester or
3. Take IBT TOEFL and submit an admissible score as determined by the regular admissions standards set forth by each department.

If a student fails to meet these provisions, the student will not be allowed to enroll the following semester and will have to return to language training such as ELS and complete level 112, or present an IBT TOEFL score of 80 (or appropriate score as determined by department).

Financial Support

International applicants must submit a certified letter of support from a sponsor, family member, or other source showing that they have adequate financial resources to provide for educational and living expenses at Oklahoma City University.

Transcript Evaluation

Any applicant, whether international or domestic, who holds a degree from a college or university outside the United States, must have transcripts from that institution evaluated by Oklahoma City University’s Office of International Admissions.

General Financial Information

The graduate tuition rate varies by program, but is the same for all students within each program regardless of their state of permanent residence.

A music student will be charged the current tuition per hour rate that is associated with their matriculation term. Typically a music student’s enrollment may include up to two half-hour lessons each semester, however for any additional lessons that increase the student’s enrollment for the semester will be charged the current per hour tuition rate associated with their matriculation date, plus any general university or music specific fees.

Rules Governing Payment of Tuition

All tuition charges and fees are due on the first day of class for each semester or term according to the official Oklahoma City University academic calendar. All students must make arrangements for their account balances either by paying their balance in full (Option 1) or enrolling in a monthly payment plan (Option 2).

Option 1: Payment in Full

After all other aid is accounted for or noted on a student’s account (loans, grants, university scholarships, etc.), the account is paid in full by or on the first day of class each semester.

Option 2: Installment Plan Fee

Charge assessed for the payment plan that allows students to make four interest-free payments over the course of the semester. The Installment Plan Fee is also assessed to any student whose account is not paid in full by the first day of class and who has not made appropriate payment arrangements. Any account with an unpaid balance at the end of the term will be subject to a finance fee of 2.67 percent.

Failure to enroll in an installment plan or pay the account in full by the first day of class will result in either automatic enrollment into an installment plan with a $100 enrollment fee or cancellation for non-payment. If a payment is not made by the payment due date each month, accounts are subject to a late payment fee of $30 per month.

Students awarded financial aid in the form of work-study should be aware that this form of aid is not considered in determining the balance due in tuition, fees, room and board for the semester. If a student chooses, they may request their work-study earnings be applied directly to their student account.

If tuition charges and fees are to be paid by a third party other than the student’s family or financial aid, a written authorization from the third party must be presented at the time of enrollment; otherwise, the student will be required to meet the financial requirements listed above. Veterans attending the university under the G.I. Bill are required to comply with the same rules and payment tables governing nonveteran obligations.

No student will be allowed to enroll in any semester or term if his or her account is past due. No student will be given a letter of good standing, transcript, or diploma until all financial obligations to the university are paid.

All tuition, fees, and charges made by the university are payable at the Student Accounts Office. Students may also submit payment for Oklahoma City University charges online with TouchNet via their Oklahoma City University BlueLink Account.

Payments to student accounts are applied first to tuition and fees and then to other charges. The only exception to this application of payment is donor restriction on a gift or endowed scholarship.

By enrolling at Oklahoma City University, students agree to the following:

- Specifically acknowledge that to the extent their educational expenses are not paid by parents, scholarships, employers, or other sources, they are responsible for such payments plus interest.
- Specifically acknowledge that by enrolling, they are subject to applicable charges and/or fees and that these charges and/or fees constitute a legal debt until paid or otherwise settled. Any balance due is a student loan and will be considered nondischargeable under the federal and state laws governing bankruptcy.
- Specifically acknowledge that any additional cost or legal fees, including but not limited to reasonable attorney’s fees, incurred by Oklahoma City University, its successors and/or assigns, in collecting the amounts due shall be added to the amount the student owes and will bear the same rate of interest as the principle amount.
- Authorize Oklahoma City University and/or its agents, including attorneys and/or collection agencies, to contact the student via cellular telephone and/or electronic technology to collect any outstanding debt, unless the student notifies the university or its agents in writing to cease such communication.
Special Service Fees

Fees are published annually in a separate tuition and fees announcement. The following is a list of typical fees. All fees are subject to change annually.

- All students pay a general university fee. This fee provides general budget funding for a variety of services including campus technology, academic enrichment and assessment, athletics and facilities, safety and crisis preparedness, career services, health services, personal counseling, intramurals, student government association, student traditions, religious life, and student publications.
- Laboratory fees, as well as fees required for some courses are charged on a flat-fee basis in addition to tuition.
- An annual parking permit is required of all students for on-campus parking.
- An international student fee and international student insurance fee are charged each semester. All fees are mandatory for international students.
- Students enrolling late will be charged a late registration fee. Those who pre-enroll and pay late will be charged a late payment fee.
- Charges for tests given to persons not enrolled in the university vary depending upon the test taken.
- All students pay a one-time comprehensive records fee per degree sought allowing students and alumni to request copies of their official transcripts at no additional charge. The registrar reserves the right to limit the number of official transcripts an individual may receive within a particular time period.
- Students enrolling in online courses will be assessed an online course fee.
- Health insurance is assessed to all full time students. Student have the option to waive the cost of insurance if they can provide proof of insurance to our insurance carrier.

Veterans Benefits

A Veterans Service Office is operated by Oklahoma City University as a service to veteran students. It neither sets policy nor administers V.A. programs. University personnel assigned to the office process the forms as a service to the student who is claiming V.A. educational benefits and act as liaisons between the student and the Veterans Affairs Regional Office. Students who wish to receive benefits must report to the Oklahoma City University certifying official in the Registrar’s Office each semester to fill out a Request for Certification. For further information, please contact the Veterans Service Office at (405) 208-5266.

Tuition Adjustments

Each term has a published first day of class as outlined in the academic calendar. A 100 percent tuition adjustment is made for varying time periods beginning with the published first day of class. After this period, there will be no further adjustments. The time periods vary as follows:

- Fall and spring semesters—up to and including Friday after 10 semester class days.
- Summer and accelerated cycles—up to and including the first Friday of the term.

Approximately the third week of class each semester, if the student’s account is paid in full, any excess personal, state, private, or federal financial aid awarded will be refunded to the student. The charges to be paid include, but are not limited to, tuition, fees, room and board, and traffic fines. If aid includes proceeds from Parent PLUS loans, any excess funds MUST be returned to the parent unless otherwise indicated on the application. Only then can the refund go to the student. Oklahoma City University processes refunds by direct deposit. Contact the Student Accounts Office for details.

Adding and Dropping Courses

Procedures and deadlines for adding and dropping classes are described in the Academic Regulations section of this catalog.

Withdrawals

Students unable to remain at the university to complete their courses for the term should process a full withdrawal. Procedures for withdrawal from all classes are described in this catalog under Academic Regulations. Full withdrawals from the university are not complete until the withdrawing student is counseled by a financial aid representative and validated by Student Accounts Office. Tuition adjustments, if any, are based on the last date of attendance. (See also “Return of Unearned Federal Title IV Funds” under Financial Assistance.)
Email

All students receive an Oklahoma City University email account that they are responsible for activating and maintaining. Access to this account is available on the internet from any location and will never expire. The student email account is the official correspondence for the following:

- Financial Aid
- Billing notices
- Student activities
- Academic communication with the University and professors
- Important dates, times, deadlines and emergency university notifications

Email is the sole method of correspondence used by most university departments.

All students are expected to check their email account regularly. A student’s failure to check and maintain his or her account on a regular basis will not be accepted as an excuse for missing information, dates, and/or deadlines.

International students will receive all updates on immigration regulations and newsletters through their Oklahoma City University email accounts.

Identification Cards

Identification cards issued to all students are permanent for as long as the student is enrolled in the university. Picture ID is required at the Student Accounts Office when requesting an Oklahoma City University ID card. A valid driver’s license or passport is acceptable. The card identifies the student and allows participation in student activities and elections. It admits the student to all home athletic events and various student activities, and enables students to receive free or half-price tickets to university drama, opera, and dance productions and concerts. A student identification card grants access to libraries and computer labs and serves as a meal ticket for students who are on a board plan. The identification card is used to print documents in the computer labs, and money may be added by the student for use at Alvin’s, the cafeteria, and other Stars Card vendors.

Book Charge Program

Oklahoma City University’s bookstore is managed by Tree of Life. Tree of Life offers a charge program. Charges, as a result of utilizing the book charge program, will be added to the student account. The charges will be included in the monthly invoice and will be due upon receipt or can be paid monthly as part of the approved payment plan. Students who have a hold as a result of a past due balance will not be permitted to participate in the book charge program.

Tree of Life also offers the Textbook Butler program. The program is simple: OCU tells the Campus Store what classes you’re enrolled in, and the Campus Store automatically pulls all the required books for your classes and charges them to your student account, no credit card required. If you live on-campus, your books come straight to your room. If you live off-campus, your books are delivered to campus for pickup. You must opt out if you do not want to receive this added service.

Financial Assistance

Types of Assistance Available

The Office of Financial Aid assists admitted students in developing a financial aid package to help meet their basic educational expenses. Financial aid includes the university scholarships, federal and state grants, student loans, and federal and institutional work study.

Eligibility for Financial Assistance

The Office of Financial Aid considers the official Cost of Attendance at Oklahoma City University, the family’s Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and the student’s incoming academic achievements to determine eligibility for financial aid. Oklahoma City University scholarships may be applied to tuition charges only and are not refundable to the student.

Financial aid may be available to help fund OCU-approved study abroad programs. More information is available from the Director of Global Engagement at studyabroad@okcu.edu.

Financial Aid Application Procedures

To be evaluated for financial assistance, a student must first be admitted to the university. Most federal and state programs require at least half-time enrollment. Transfer students must provide official transcripts from all institutions previously attended. Audited courses and courses not applicable to the student’s degree program will not be considered in the financial aid package. Students who repeat course work for which financial aid has already been received may not be eligible for additional financial aid for those repeated classes.
All students are encouraged to apply for federal student aid. The student should file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at fafsa.ed.gov and designate Oklahoma City University (code 003166) on the application in order for the Office of Financial Aid to receive a copy of the results. The student will receive an electronic link to his or her Student Aid Report (SAR) from the Federal Student Aid Processing Center in response to the FAFSA.

The 2016–17 deadline for priority processing is March 1 annually. FAFSAs received after the deadline will be considered in the order received for as long as aid resources are available. Funding restrictions may alter eligibility for some programs.

In addition to the FAFSA, other forms may be required based on the student’s individual circumstances. Students should monitor their Oklahoma City University email and BlueLink for additional requested items.

Return of Unearned Federal Title IV Funds

Title IV funds are awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend school for the entire period for which the assistance is awarded. When a student withdraws, the student may no longer be eligible for the full amount of Title IV funds the student was originally scheduled to receive.

If a recipient of Title IV grant or loan funds withdraws from a school after beginning attendance, the amount of Title IV grant or loan assistance earned by the student must be determined. If the amount disbursed to the student is greater than the amount the student earned, unearned funds must be returned.

The Office of Financial Aid will calculate the amount of Title IV funds the student has earned in accordance with federally prescribed procedures as detailed in the Federal Compliance and Student Consumer Information found at okcu.edu/heoa.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy for Financially Aided Students

In accordance with federal, state, and university aid and scholarship program guidelines, academic progress toward a degree must be made in order for students to continue receiving funds.

The Office of Financial Aid will monitor the quantitative and qualitative progress of each student receiving financial assistance in accordance with the current guidelines and procedures as detailed in the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy found at okcu.edu/financialaid/forms/sappolicy.

Renewals and Annual Awarding

Students are evaluated annually for continued financial aid eligibility. Federal renewal applications must be submitted annually and are available after January 1 of each year at fafsa.ed.gov. Scholarship renewal is based on SAP and is reviewed every semester. Scholarships generally require maintaining full-time enrollment and other criteria set forth at the time of the initial award.

Award Notifications

More specific information about financial aid opportunities at Oklahoma City University may be obtained from the Office of Financial Aid.

On-Campus Housing

Residence Halls

The university believes that a valuable part of a student’s learning experience occurs in the university residence halls. The student lives and learns with other students from different cultures and lifestyles. Numerous social and academic activities occur in the residence halls during the academic year. There are five residence halls on the Oklahoma City University campus: United Methodist, Draper, Walker, Banning, and Smith halls. Each residence hall is directed by a hall director and resident assistants, who promote community living and are a resource to help students succeed.

Rates for Residence Halls

Housing rates for each academic year are published separately in a tuition and fees schedule. A non-refundable $250 housing processing fee is required along with a completed application and contract for residence halls. Scholarship students and athletes are NOT exempt from submitting a housing processing fee. Cancellation of a completed housing application must be received in writing by the director of residence life. Cancellations made less than 30 days prior to the first day of classes will result in a $500 cancellation fee.

Housing assignments will automatically be cancelled if a student has not checked into his or her room by 8:00 a.m. on the first day of scheduled classes for each semester or term, unless the director of residence life is notified of late arrival. The fall housing assignment will be cancelled if a student’s advance registration is canceled, and the processing fee will be forfeited in full.

Apartment Living

The Cokesbury Court apartment complex is a great alternative to the traditional residence-hall style living. The Cokesbury Court apartment complex offers the security of card-key entry and an eight-foot wrought-iron fence. Apartment options include unfurnished efficiencies and furnished two- and four-bedroom apartments with outdoor swimming pool, and on-site parking and laundry. Students classified as sophomore and above are eligible to apply for housing in Cokesbury Court. For more information, please call (405) 208-8100.

Food Service

There are several meal plans available to Oklahoma City University students, including a variety of residence hall board plans and StarsCash, a flexible debit-card system. Students residing in the residence halls are required to participate in a residence hall meal plan, and students living in University Manor or Cokesbury Court apartments are required to purchase a meal plan based upon the length of their lease. Meals for students participating in any university meal plan or block meal plan are served in the Commons Food Court in the Tom and Brenda McDaniel University Center. StarsCash are redeemable in the Commons Food Court or in Alvin’s Cafe, located in the University Center. Alvin’s provides a quick snack or a full meal and a place to meet friends for relaxation or study. Food services are provided by Sodexo.

Religious Life

The goal of Religious Life at Oklahoma City University is to promote spiritual enrichment and to minister to the spiritual needs of the campus community.

Organizations

The Oklahoma City University Wesley Center is the United Methodist campus ministry. The Wesley Center directs Evensong worship services, the Kappa Phi Christian Women’s Service Organization, and the Delta Alpha Chi Christian Men’s Service Fraternity.

Worship and Activities

Religious Life offers chapel services Thursdays at 1:00 p.m., Evensong worship services on Monday evenings, spiritual formation groups, and Wednesday at the Wesley—a free lunch served in the lower level of the chapel the first Wednesday of each month. Religious Life also sponsors monthly mission opportunities and a mission trip every Spring break. Everyone is invited to participate.

Clergy Support

There are two clergy staff persons in University-Church Relations who are available to students of all faith affiliations for pastoral care and spiritual encouragement. They work closely with our Muslim chaplain who meets these specific needs. They can also assist students finding area houses of worship to connect with local faith communities. For more information, visit okcu.edu/religiouslife.

Interfaith Prayer Center

Students, staff and faculty of all faiths are invited to visit the Dr. Raniyah Ramadan Interfaith Prayer Center located on the west end of the Kramer School of Nursing building.
Members of the campus may swipe their ID cards for 24-hour access to the prayer center.

Campus Life

Oklahoma City University recognizes that learning takes place in many forms and places and not exclusively in the classroom. Students are encouraged to participate in activities both on and off campus. Activities sponsored by the Division of Student Affairs and the Student Government Association are for all Oklahoma City University students and are well publicized around campus.

Students at Oklahoma City University play a large role in determining and regulating their own activities. Good student-faculty-administration relations are maintained through cooperative, responsible student leadership.

There are numerous social and academic organizations available to students on campus. When the school year begins, information is made available to all students about dates and meeting times for many organizations.

Career Services

The office of Career Services assists undergraduate and graduate students of all disciplines to blend their talent, interests, and academic achievement with the career readiness skills that will lead to success in post-graduate employment or continued education programs. Career planning and decision-making is a process that helps the undecided student choose a major, while providing a ‘plan of action’ for those who are ready for the next step. The career center combines traditional career development elements such as resume development and interview skills with career and personal education tools, so that graduates are empowered with the practical knowledge needed to transition from college to ‘real-world’. Career Services wants every student to be confident in their ability to market key skills and experiences, and shine with a polished professional image. Students are encouraged to schedule an individual appointment to begin planning their success.

Career advisors are available to help students each step of the way.

- Self-Assessment and Career Exploration
- Individual Career Counseling
- Resume and Cover Letter Development
- Internship and Job Search Strategies
- Interview Techniques
- Online Job and Internship Posting
- Graduate School Planning
- Career Readiness Events and Workshops
- Online Student Resources
- Major Change or Selection
- On-Campus Interviews

The Office of Career Services is located in the Meinders School of Business, Suite 200. Office hours: Monday–Friday 8 a.m.–5 p.m. (405) 208-5171 or careerservices@okcu.edu.

The Involved Center

The Involved Center provides information to students, faculty/staff, and campus organizations regarding events, campus involvement, co-curricular transcripts, space reservation, Orgsync basics, maintaining/starting a new student organization, flyer approval, and much more. The Involved Center is located in Room 114 of the Tom and Brenda McDaniel University Center across from the Student Leadership Center. Hours of operation are 8 a.m.–5 p.m., Monday–Friday during the school year, and 8:00 a.m.–5:30 p.m., Monday–Thursday during summer hours.

Office of Student Engagement, Inclusion, and Multicultural Programs

The Office of Student Engagement, Inclusion and Multicultural Programs (SEIMP) advances, promotes, and initiates programming for campus organizations through co-curricular and community service activities and experiences, which emphasize diversity, appreciation and respect among domestic and international students, faculty, and staff. Collaboration is cultivated through supporting organizations that represent diverse students such as, Native American, Black, Hispanic, Asian, Indian, Saudi, Muslim, LGBTQIA, and other ethnically and culturally based groups. Students who participate in these organizations form lasting personal and professional relationships among students, faculty, staff, and alumni that contribute to their development as effective leaders in their respective communities.

SEIMP also administers among other programs the Clara Luper and American Indian Scholarships. These need-based programs help to provide a private college education to deserving students who may not otherwise have the opportunity. The scholarship programs demonstrate that access and opportunity are critical components necessary for underserved students to realize the goal of a private college education. The scholarship recipients are merged with members of the President’s Leadership Class to form a leadership cohort, which collaborates in academic, co-curricular, and community service projects throughout their academic tenure at OCU.
University Counseling

Counseling is a confidential process designed to help you address concerns, come to a greater understanding of yourself, and learn effective personal and interpersonal coping strategies. University counseling services are available for all currently enrolled students. Our goal is to provide short-term mental health services that will assist OCU students with emotional development, problem solving skills and decision making capabilities.

Counseling sessions are confidential, typically 45 to 50 minutes long, and are free of charge. OCU University Counseling services are short-term, meaning a client is eligible for six to eight sessions per semester, based on individual needs. Should you need longer term services, your OCU therapist will make a referral for you. Call (405) 208-7902 to make an appointment.

Student Government Association

Student Government Association (SGA) is the governing body for all Oklahoma City University students. SGA consists of four branches: Executive, Legislative, Judicial and the Student Activities Council. This organization plans and implements a variety of activities for the campus community, appropriates money for student organizations and serves as the voice for students in university governance. The president of SGA serves as a voting member of the university’s board of trustees. Elections for High Officer and Senate positions (sophomores, juniors, and seniors) are held late in the spring semester. Elections for the freshman senator positions are held early in the fall semester.

Oklahoma City University sponsors a variety of varsity sports programs, including men’s and women’s basketball, men’s baseball, competitive cheer and dance, men’s and women’s cross country running, men’s and women’s golf, men’s and women’s rowing, men’s and women’s soccer, men’s and women’s wrestling, women’s softball, and women’s volleyball. Oklahoma City University is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics and the Sooner Athletic Conference.

Cheer and Pom

Oklahoma City University offers a varsity competitive coed cheer squad and varsity competitive pom squad. The cheer and pom squads play an exciting part in the athletic department by participating at men’s, women’s basketball games, wrestling matches, and a number of other sporting events. Members of the cheer and pom squads are also involved at numerous community events throughout the year. Tryouts are held in the spring semester each year and are open to anyone interested.

Fitness Center

The Aduddell Fitness Center provides full service to a large selection of fitness equipment including state-of-the-art treadmills, ellipticals, stationary bikes, and cross-training equipment. The center also offer a wide range of free weights, stationary weight machines, and other aerobic equipment (jump ropes, steppers, etc.). Showers, day lockers, and towels are also available at the Aduddell Center.

The front desk provides a fully trained staff to answer any questions or assist students during their workouts. The staff also offers an orientation twice a week. For more information, contact (405) 208-5378.

Intramural Sports

Oklahoma City University features an intramural sports program designed to encourage interaction between students, faculty, and staff. The department provides a variety of league and tournament events. The Intramural Sports program strives to meet the competitive and recreational needs of the campus community. The department offers opportunities to maintain physical fitness while interacting with friends and classmates.

Sports offered include 3-on-3 basketball, 5-on-5 basketball, dodgeball, flag football, soccer, softball, table tennis (ping pong), volleyball (indoor and outdoor), and kickball. For more information about Intramurals or how to register, call (405) 208-5378.

Open Recreation

The Henry J. Freede Wellness Center and its Abe Lemons Arena provide the home court to many Oklahoma City University sports. The recreation department offers open recreation nights at Freede. Open recreation takes place in the fall and spring semesters. Each Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday, Freede is open from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. for use by anyone who carries an OCU ID. For more information, contact (405) 208-5378.

Dance

All full-time students are eligible to audition for the American Spirit Dance Company, the Oklahoma City University Spirit of Grace Liturgical Dancers, and the Oklahoma City University Pep Dancers. Contact the American Spirit Dance Company company manager in the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment for further information. Noncredit dance classes are available through the Community Dance Center.

Music

University students are encouraged to participate in music activities, including performing in ensembles, taking private music lessons, and auditioning for productions. All qualified students are eligible to participate in Bass School of Music performing ensembles (Symphony Orchestra, Wind Philharmonic, Ad Astra Women’s Chorus, Men’s Chorus, University Singers, Chamber Choir, Jazz Ensemble, Pep Band, and various small ensembles). Auditions for Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company productions are open to all students. See the director of the organization in which you are interested for further information, or call the music office at (405) 208-5474.

Theatre

All students may audition for parts in TheatreOCU productions presented each year by the School of Theatre. Contact the School of Theatre at (405) 208-5121 for detailed audition information.

Student Publications

All students, regardless of their major fields of study, are invited to apply to work for the Student Publications staff. The staff publishes The Campus (the student newspaper) and MediaOCU (the student media smartphone app and website online at mediaocu.com).

Publication of Student Work

All students can submit poetry, fiction, nonfiction and art to The Scarab, OCU’s literary journal, sponsored by the English honor society, Sigma Tau Delta. The undergraduate research journal Stellar accepts submissions of research papers written for undergraduate courses. Both Cultural Enrichment Events

An array of music, drama, music theater, art, literature, cinema, and lecture events occur annually on the Oklahoma City University campus. Among the cultural enrichment opportunities available and easily accessible in the Oklahoma City area are the Oklahoma City Philharmonic concerts, the Oklahoma City Museum of Art, Science Museum Oklahoma, and several theaters.

The Distinguished Speakers Series

The Distinguished Speakers Series was established to enrich the academic experience of students, faculty, and staff—and to create a Chautauqua experience that is free and open to the public. Nobel Laureates have joined a remarkable lineup of world-class thinkers, writers, and opinion-leaders who know that Oklahoma City University is where ideas are freely expressed, and learning is a continuous process of being challenged and inspired. This lecture series fulfills one of the central purposes of a university—students should complete the online application for the Speech and Debate team: okcu.edu/speechanddebate.

The Harbour Winn OCU Film Institute

The Oklahoma City University Film Institute offers the university and the greater Oklahoma City community the opportunity to view classic and contemporary international films. Since 1982, the institute has been screening eight to ten films per year on designated Sunday afternoons to an audience of 150 to 400 people. Each year the series focuses on a theme, and reading material on the theme and series films is available at the showings. A discussion session follows each screening. The films are also available for university courses. The film series is supported by Oklahoma City University, the Oklahoma City University Film Institute Endowment, the designated endowment in the Community Foundation of the Kirkpatrick Family Fund, and the Thatcher Hoffman Smith Endowment for the Center for Interpersonal Studies through Film and Literature. The 2016–17 academic year will be the Film Institute’s 35th year.

The Neustadt Lectures

Walter and Delores Neustadt of Ardmore, Oklahoma, established the lecture series in 1983 for the purpose of strengthening understanding of the great contributions of the Judaic religious tradition to Western civilization and thought. Scholars are invited to the campus to speak on informative themes in the areas of Hebrew Scriptures, Judaic thought, and Jewish ethics and art.

The Willson Lectures

This lectureship is provided by an endowment from James M. and Mavis Willson of Floydada, Texas. The lectures are directed to the interest of students in the area of religion and society. The Willsons were outstanding members of the United Methodist Church. Their Christian vision was truly ecumenical in its outreach. Since 1953, their gift to Oklahoma City University has brought to campus speakers of international stature from the areas of religion, science, Christian theology and ethics, church history, biblical studies, and liturgical studies.

The Martha Jean Lemon Lectures

These lectures are a gift from Lynette Lemon Wert and Larry H. Lemon in 2010 on behalf of the Lemon family of Oklahoma City and in honor of Martha Jean Lemon. Ms. Lemon was graduated from Oklahoma City University in 1968 with a degree in history and worked as an independent comparative religion scholar. The lecture series will feature speakers, workshops, or seminars on topics that promote religious leadership and service.

General Requirements

Degree requirements for students are listed in the catalog in effect at the time of their first semester at Oklahoma City University. Students who are not in attendance for two consecutive semesters, excluding summer, will be required to complete the degree requirements listed in the catalog in effect at the time of their re-entry.

The final authority in determining the fulfillment of graduation requirements for each graduate program lies with the academic dean from each respective school. Graduate students are expected to read and to comply with published regulations.

Residency Requirements

The minimum number of hours to be taken in residence for any master’s degree offered may be noted under the individual degree programs.

Student Discipline

Every student is expected to observe the highest standards of conduct, both on and off the campus. The university cannot accept the responsibility for the education of any student who is not in sympathy with the purposes and the regulations of the university.

Note: In the case of Law School students, the Law School Student Conduct Code Article 2.01 governs, and such students are subject to the Law School Disciplinary Tribunal.

Oklahoma City University reserves the right to exclude any student whose conduct or academic standing it regards as undesirable, without assigning any further reason. In such cases, the fees due or which may have been paid in advance to the university will not be remitted or refunded in whole or in part. Neither the university nor any of its officers will be under any liability whatsoever for such exclusion. Any student under disciplinary suspension will be persona non grata on campus except for official business.

Attendance

Regular attendance is essential to satisfactory progress in a course. The student is responsible for meeting course requirements regardless of the cause of absences. A student unable to attend classes should confer in advance with the professors involved. Failure to attend classes may result in the loss of credit or exclusion from the final examinations, or both. (See the Law School catalog for attendance policy in that degree program.)

Time Limits

Students are expected to complete requirements for a graduate degree within a set period of time—usually five to six years after being admitted into a program. See the dean or department chair for the time limits established for a specific degree program.

Course work that is five to 10 years old, whether taken prior to or after admission, may, upon approval by the dean or director, be applied to a degree in accordance with the policy of the school, division, or department. Any course work that is more than 10 years old, whether taken prior to, or after admission to a graduate program, cannot be applied to a degree.

Adding Courses

For the fall and spring semesters, courses may be added through the first Friday after four class days of the semester without instructor approval. Courses added after the first Friday after four class days and through the second Friday after nine class days may be added only with instructor approval. Courses may not be added after this date. For the summer terms, courses may be added through the first two class days of the term. Courses added after the first two class days and through the Thursday after three class days may be added only with instructor approval. Courses may not be added after this date.

Dropping Courses

The final date to drop a course is listed in the academic calendar. Students dropping courses before the final drop date will receive a W (withdrawal). After the final drop date, a student must receive approval from his or her instructor. The instructor must assign a grade of WP (withdrawal passing) or WF (withdrawal failing) for the course. A grade of WF will be calculated into the student’s grade point average as a failing grade.) The student then must receive approval from his or her advisor, academic dean, and the provost/VPAA before the change in class schedule can be processed. No course may be dropped after the last day of classes.

Courses dropped through the 100 percent refund date will not appear on the student’s permanent record. Changes in class schedule become effective on the day the form is processed by the Registrar’s Office.

A 100 percent tuition adjustment is made for varying time periods beginning with the published first day of class. After this period, there will be no further adjustments. The time periods vary. See Tuition Adjustments for more information. Student attendance in a course does not affect the tuition reduction. The date the completed form is processed by the Student Accounts Office is the determining factor.

Withdrawal

A student who is completely withdrawing from the university must obtain a withdrawal form from the Office of the Registrar, International Student Office, Financial Aid Office, or his or her dean’s office. Once this form is properly completed and processed through the Office of the Registrar and Student Accounts, the withdrawal becomes effective on the date it is validated by Student Accounts. A “W” (withdrawal) will be assigned for each course. Nonattendance of classes does not constitute official withdrawal. Withdrawal will be permitted up to and including the final regular day of classes for all semesters or terms. No withdrawals are permitted during finals week.

Incomplete Courses

When a course is not completed by the end of the semester or summer session, a professor may assign an incomplete (I) at his or her discretion. The student must be performing at a passing level and have a legitimate reason to receive an “I.” Students cannot be assigned an “I” because they have excessive unexcused absences or because they are failing the course. Academic units and faculty members may establish their own policies in determination of legitimate reasons to assign the “I” grade.

At the time that the incomplete is issued, the instructor will submit information which specifies what work must be done to remove the “I” and the grade to be assigned if the work is not completed. This information is made available through the on-line system. The student is responsible for submitting the work by the deadline assigned by the instructor, not to exceed one year. If the “I” is not completed by the specified deadline, the grade will convert to the grade assigned by the professor.

In the event that a faculty member is no longer available, appropriate faculty shall be assigned by the dean or department chair to determine the grade.

Grade Points

Grade point totals are calculated by multiplying the number of credit hours of a course by the number of points for the corresponding grade received. The grades of W (withdrawal), WA (administrative withdrawal), WP (withdrawal passing), WH (withdrawal health), CR (credit), NC (no credit), I (incomplete), or NR (not reported) are omitted in counting grade points. The grade of WF (withdrawal failing) will be calculated into the grade point as a failing grade. A student’s GPA will be determined by dividing the total number of grade points earned at Oklahoma City University by the total number of hours attempted at Oklahoma City University with the exception of courses in which marks of CR, W, WA, WH, WP, NC, I, and NR are received. At Oklahoma City University, the official GPA will be rounded to the third decimal place.

The following system of points is used for computing GPA:

Auditing Courses

An Oklahoma City University student may audit a course (excluding courses offered by the School of Law) by attending class sessions and completing classroom assignments. No examinations are taken, and no credit is given. The student transcript carries the designation AU. The AU designation, once recorded on the transcript, may not be changed to a letter grade. Audited courses do not satisfy degree requirements. If a student determines that a course that has been audited is needed to fulfill a major requirement, the student must repeat the course and earn a letter grade.

A student may audit only if permitted by the appropriate school or department policy and on a space-available basis. Students may not audit individualized academic experiences such as internships, directed study, independent study, music lessons, dance instruction, etc. Audited courses will not be considered in a student’s normal semester load.

Procedure

The audit option can only be selected through the second Friday of the regular semester and through the first Thursday after three class days of a summer session. Once the time period is over, the option to audit a course is forfeited. Students must obtain permission and the signature of the instructor whose course they choose to audit. An instructor has the right to refuse to permit students to audit a course. Students registered to audit a class are not guaranteed a space until after the time period. A separate audit form is available from the Registrar’s Office.

Fees

Students are assessed a nonrefundable audit fee. Fee schedules are available from the Student Accounts Office. Audit fees are not part of the structure for block tuition charges and will be assessed in addition to regular tuition charges.
Repetition of Courses

Graduate students may repeat a maximum of two separate courses, but cannot repeat any one course more than once. The repeated course number must be the same as that of the original course. The last grade received in a course is the one that will be calculated into the student’s GPA. This grade will be posted in the semester earned. The first grade will be recorded on the transcript as an R (repeat) and excluded from the student’s GPA.

Course Numbering Systems

The first digit in each course number indicates the academic level at which the department places the course (1—freshman level, 2—sophomore level, 3—junior level, 4—senior level, and 5—9—graduate level). The second digit, in combination with the third, gives the course a unique number within its department and academic level. The second digit may be used to indicate sequence where two or more courses dealing with the same subject matter are sequential in arrangement. The third digit indicates the type of course. The type indicated by specific numbers varies from school to school. The fourth digit indicates the number of semester hours credit assigned to the course.

Courses numbered 1000–4999 are for undergraduate students; 1000–2999 courses are freshman and sophomore level courses; 3000–4999 courses are junior and senior level (upper-division) courses. Graduate students who are satisfying program prerequisites or otherwise remedying deficiencies may, with approval, enroll in undergraduate courses, but will not receive graduate credit for such undergraduate course work.

Courses numbered 5000–9999 are for graduate credit in graduate degree programs; 5000–5999 courses are graduate courses that may be dual-listed with upper-division undergraduate courses; 6000–6999 courses are not open to undergraduate students. Courses numbered 7000–9999 are restricted to doctoral students; 9000–9999 courses are for independent study (such as research, thesis, or dissertation) and are restricted to doctoral students. The School of Law establishes its own course numbering policies.

Course Cancellation Policy

The decision to cancel a course due to insufficient enrollment, faculty overload, or other circumstances will be made by the dean of the school offering the course in consultation with the instructor of the course. After notifying the Registrar’s Office of a course cancellation, the dean will inform students enrolled in the course of the cancellation.

Final Examinations

Final examinations are held in all courses upon the completion of each semester’s or term’s work. No one is to be excused from the final examinations. All classes will meet during the time stipulated by the Registrar’s Office for final examinations. Students who have three final examinations scheduled on the same day may seek permission from either their professors or their academic dean to have one exam rescheduled for another day within final examination week.

Records and Transcripts

All permanent records are in the Office of the Registrar. Requests for grades, transcripts, and diplomas should be made to that office.

A graduate student who completes the requirements for a degree cannot be issued a complete transcript or a statement that the requirements have been completed until the end of the semester or term in which he or she is registered for credits needed for the degree. Students who complete the requirements for a degree in a semester other than the spring semester may secure from the Office of the Registrar a statement that requirements for the degree have been completed.

Official transcripts may be ordered by mail or in person from the Registrar’s Office. A request for official transcripts must include the following information:

- Student’s full name (while enrolled)
- Student identification number
- Date of birth
- Last date of enrollment
- Current address and phone number
- Address where the transcript is to be sent
- Student’s signature

The cost of official transcripts is included in the comprehensive records fee; therefore, there is no additional charge for transcripts. The registrar may limit the number of transcripts a student may receive within a given time period. Transcripts are not issued until all outstanding accounts with the university are paid in full. Students and former students may call Student Accounts at (405) 208-5146, or go to the office in the administration building to determine their financial status.

Photo identification is required when picking up transcripts from the Office of the Registrar. Written authorization is required for a transcript to be released to a third party. Parents may obtain a student’s transcript provided they have written authorization from the student or a signed affidavit stating that the student is their financial dependent according to IRS regulations.
Official Transcripts
From Other Institutions

Oklahoma City University requires all students to submit official transcripts, such as high school transcripts, undergraduate transcripts with or without a degree, or graduate transcripts. These transcripts must be official. Official transcripts are defined as transcripts sent directly from one institution to Oklahoma City University. Electronic transcripts will be accepted from schools using approved secured transmission systems. The complete list of acceptable systems can be found on the OCU Registrar website (okcu.edu/admin/academic-affairs/registrar/). Any transcript marked “Issued to Student” and/or hand-carried transcripts are not considered official and will not be accepted for transfer purposes.

Thesis, Dissertation, and Capstone Project Enrollment and Grading Policy

The student must have an initial enrollment for the master’s thesis, doctoral dissertation, or other graduate-level capstone project (all hereafter termed “thesis”). Following the initial enrollment in the thesis course, the student must maintain continuous enrollment or obtain an approved leave of absence during each regular semester until all degree requirements are completed, or the candidacy is discontinued. Upon successful completion of the thesis, a grade of CR will be recorded for the final semester of enrollment. The graduation date awarded will be the first graduation date after the final term of enrollment.

The student’s initial enrollment for the thesis will be charged the current rate per credit hour for the course and will be subject to all standard fees. Subsequent enrollments will use a different number that will be of equal credit hours for the thesis, but only one credit hour will be charged and no fees will be charged.

Students are not required to enroll in the thesis during the summer session unless one of the following applies:

- the student is actively working on the thesis
- the student is seeking committee advice on the thesis
- the student is otherwise using university facilities
- the degree is to be conferred in the summer session

Subsequent to the initial enrollment for the thesis, if a student wishes to remain in the program without continuous enrollment, the student must request a leave of absence. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the dean of the student’s program and must specify the reason for the request and the expected duration of the leave. The granting of such requests will be at the dean’s discretion. Requests based on financial circumstances will generally not be granted. Failure to obtain an approved leave of absence will result in the student having to apply for readmission.

If a student does not comply, or has not complied, with the above procedures, then the student must reapply to the program of study and, if readmitted, enroll in sufficient hours of thesis to make the total hours thereof at least equal to the total thereof had he or she completed with continuous enrollment. Retroactive tuition will be assessed at the current semester rates. Readmission of the student to the program of study will be at the discretion of the dean of the student’s school. Determination of the number of hours of thesis in which the student must enroll, along with the collection of the appropriate fees, will be the responsibility of the dean of the student’s school and the Student Accounts Office.

Thesis, Dissertation and Project Grades

X Indicates that satisfactory ongoing progress was made during the semester, however subsequent enrollment must occur in the next semester as components necessary to satisfactorily complete the thesis are required. It is a neutral grade to be used only for thesis grades. This grade will remain a permanent grade on the student’s transcript.

NC No credit. Indicates that unsatisfactory progress was made during the semester.

CR Credit. Indicates that the thesis was satisfactorily completed during the semester.

- All theses necessary for partial fulfillment of graduate degrees must be approved by the graduate student’s committee and be submitted to the person designated by the graduate program three weeks before commencement. Exceptions must have prior approval of the program director and dean.
- The title page and abstract will follow a standard form that may be obtained from the graduate program directors.
- Style sheets are determined by each graduate program. Endnotes or footnotes are acceptable, but each program will use only one form of citation.
- In the case of serious, documented violation of the Academic Honesty policy in thesis work, a student
Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is required in all aspects of a student’s relationship with the university. Academic dishonesty may not be course-specific and includes falsification or misrepresentation of a student’s academic progress, status, or ability, including, but not limited to, false or altered transcripts, letters of recommendation, registration or advising forms, or other documents related to the student’s academic career at Oklahoma City University or other colleges or universities.

Students are personally responsible for the correctness and accuracy of information supplied to the university. Any student who knowingly gives incorrect information to the university is subject to disciplinary action which may lead to suspension.

Students are advised that cheating and plagiarism are not tolerated. The university expects all students to maintain a high standard of ethics in their academic activities. In this context, forms of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, cheating on tests, examinations or other class/laboratory work; involvement in plagiarism (the appropriation of another’s work and/or the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one’s own); collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with another person); misrepresentation of actions; and falsifying information.

Grievance procedures do not apply to the academic honesty policy procedures listed below. Law students are subject to the code of conduct published in the Oklahoma City University School of Law Student Handbook.

Course-Based Procedures

Each faculty member will include in his or her syllabus either the university’s academic honesty policy or a reference to the appropriate Oklahoma City University website regarding the academic honesty policy. The faculty member will include in the syllabus a description of the course-based consequences if a student fails to adhere to the academic honesty policy.

If, in the judgment of the faculty member, a student fails to conform to the academic honesty policy, the faculty member shall inform, in writing, the student’s academic dean, the provost/VPAA, and the student. Sanctions for a student’s breach of the academic honesty policy vary according to the nature and the seriousness of the offense. Sanctions are at the discretion of the faculty member involved within the constraints of the course in which the offense occurred. Sanctions by the faculty member may include, but are not limited to, requiring a student to redo a class/laboratory assignment; recording an F (Failure) for a particular test, examination, class/laboratory assignment which involved dishonesty; or recording an F (Failure) for a final course grade.

Appeal

A student’s appeal of the charge or the faculty-imposed sanction must be made in writing and delivered to the faculty member’s dean within 10 university business days after the date of the faculty member’s letter outlining the infraction of the academic honesty policy. The appeal period is increased to 21 calendar days when the faculty member’s letter must be mailed to a student residing... outside the United States. If the 10th day (or 21st day, in the case of a student residing outside the United States) falls on a weekend or university holiday, the appeal is due on the next university business day.

The faculty member’s school/college will elect faculty members to serve on a faculty/student committee to hear school/college appeals for that academic year. If a faculty member is on the committee and the faculty member taught the course in question, he or she will not serve on the school/college committee for this appeal. The dean will appoint a replacement member for this appeal. If the dean taught the course in question, the appeal will go directly to the assistant provost.

There is a presumption that the faculty member’s decision is correct and, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, shall not be changed. The faculty committee will render a decision in writing regarding the student’s appeal within 15 university business days of receiving the appeal. The faculty/student committee may lessen the sanctions but not increase the course-based sanctions. The faculty appeals committee’s decision will be final, and there will be no further appeal of the faculty member’s decision. If the student is exonerated, no further action will occur.

School/College-Based Procedures

If the student chooses to appeal and the appeal is not upheld or the student chooses not to appeal the faculty member’s actions, the student’s dean has the option of adding sanctions. Consequences may include loss of school/college-based scholarship funds, community service, or dismissal from the school/college. The dean can not change the student’s grade. The dean must notify the student within 10 university business days of the decision to impose additional sanctions. The appeal process is increased to 21 calendar days when the dean’s letter must be mailed to a student then residing outside the United States. If the 10th day (or 21st day, in the case of a student then residing outside the United States) falls on a weekend or university holiday, the appeal is due on the next university business day.

Appeal

The student, within 10 university business days after the date of the written notification of sanctions, imposed by the dean of the student’s college/school, may appeal, in writing, to the provost/VPAA or assistant provost. The provost/VPAA or assistant provost’s decision is final, and there will be no further appeal.

Loss of Privilege to Withdraw From a Course

A student who has violated the academic honesty policy shall lose the privilege of withdrawing from the course in which the violation occurred in order to avoid the collateral consequences of sanctions which may be imposed by the faculty member teaching the course.

Provost/VPAA-based Procedures

The Office of the Provost will keep a file of all student violations of the academic honesty policy across the university. The provost/VPAA or assistant provost may, at his or her discretion, convene the Student Probations and Petitions Committee to consider dismissal of the student from the university for grievous or repeated violations of the academic honesty policy. The provost/VPAA or assistant provost must inform the student at least 10 university business days prior to the time the Student Probation and Petitions committee meets. The student has the right to appear before the Student Probation and Petitions Committee. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will convene and render a decision regarding dismissal of a student from the university or other actions. The decision of the Student Probation and Petitions Committee is final and can not be appealed. Students dismissed from the university for academic honesty violations will not be eligible for readmission.

Grievance Procedure for Grade Appeal

A grade awarded by the course instructor is presumptively correct, and the instructor’s determination is generally final. Other than for mathematical or data entry errors, no final grade can be changed except on proof of exceptionally egregious circumstances as defined below.

If a student has reasonable grounds to believe that a final grade received or final academic judgment made with respect to him or her in any course or program of study was based on violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice, the student may, within 10 school days of the receipt of the final grade, initiate a grievance. School days are defined as Monday through Friday when classes are in session, excluding breaks, final exam periods, and holidays. Grievance procedures for students attending programs outside the United States must be facsimiled or emailed within 28 calendar days in order to meet the remainder of the deadlines. The process is composed of both informal and formal procedures.

I. Informal Grievance Procedure

A. The student should communicate with the instructor in an attempt to resolve the issue.

B. If, after communicating with the instructor (or if, after reasonable effort on the part of the student to contact the instructor, she or he remains
II. Formal Grievance Procedure

A. Only if the issue is still unresolved after meeting with the chair of the department, as outlined in section I, the student may initiate the formal grievance process with the dean. Note: If the dean taught the course, the assistant provost will undertake the dean’s responsibilities in the grievance procedure. The levels of action are clearly defined and include strict time limits designed to effect speedy resolution. No formal appeals procedure will be enacted if six months or more have elapsed since the incident. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate the process and follow it through. Failure of the student to move the appeal forward in the specified time limits will terminate the appeal.

1. The student will first present his or her appeal to the dean of the college or school. The appeal will be in writing, in as much detail as possible, stating all aspects of the issue that the student believes pertinent. Grounds for review are limited to violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice. Copies of pertinent material in the student’s possession or access will be included as appropriate.

2. Upon receipt of the material provided in section I, the dean will determine, within five school days, if the student has a prima facie case. If the dean determines that insufficient evidence has been presented by the student, he or she will dismiss the appeal. If the dean determines that there is evidence that, if believed, would constitute a prima facie case, the dean will provide, within 10 school days of this determination, a copy of the written material to the faculty member in question. The dean will request a written response that details as completely as possible the position/opinion of the faculty member on all issues raised. Copies of exams, assignments, grade books, or other relevant information will be submitted with this response. The instructor will have 10 school days in which to prepare his or her response.

3. The student will be given the opportunity to review the instructor’s response and to provide additional written comments to the dean. This response will be given within five school days of the receipt of the faculty member’s response to the dean. The dean will then render a decision on the appeal within five school days. The dean or his or her designee has the right to request, from any party, any additional information he or she believes is pertinent and appropriate. However, the request for information will not extend the five-day response period above. Unless the dean determines that sufficient evidence exists to support the student’s allegation, the dean will deny the appeal. The dean has the authority to deny the appeal or forward the appeal to the assistant provost, who will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee. The dean does not have the authority to change the grade, but may make a recommendation to the committee.

B. Either the student or the faculty member may appeal the dean’s adverse decision within five school days of the receipt of the dean’s decision by giving written notice of intent to do so. Upon such written notice to the dean, the dean will forward copies of all material to the assistant provost, who will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee, which must meet within 10 school days of receipt of the appeal. Note: If the faculty member who taught the class involved in the appeal is a member of the Student Probation and Petition Committee, the faculty member must recuse himself or herself from the committee during the appeal. The committee will review all documentation and will reach a decision. The committee may request additional documentation if it believes it is appropriate to do so and may adjourn until the documentation is available. Both parties have the right to appear before the committee; however, to the fullest extent possible, the decision will be based on the written documentation provided. The committee will uphold the originally issued grade unless it finds substantial evidence of violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice. The committee’s decision will be rendered as soon as practical after receipt of the documentation, but must be rendered within 30 days.
C If the committee determines that the above described process has not been followed correctly, the committee will order a rehearing of the case following the correct process.

D The decision of the committee is final.

Academic Probation and Dismissal

Graduate students whose cumulative GPAs fall below 3.00 will be placed on academic probation. Students on academic probation must raise their cumulative GPA to 3.00 or higher within the next nine credit hours attempted or will be dismissed from the degree program. Students who may need more than nine credit hours to be removed from academic probation may submit an appeal for an extension to the Student Probation and Petitions Committee and, if granted, are to maintain a 3.00 or higher GPA for courses taken in the interim. No student may graduate on academic probation, i.e., with a cumulative GPA below 3.00.

Individual schools, colleges, and graduate programs may establish academic standards more stringent than those stated here. In such cases, the student’s appeal is heard by the Student Probation and Petitions Committee. The committee will consider the appeal based on the program’s standards. If the appeal is not granted and the student wants to move to another graduate program, they must apply for admission to that program and be accepted by the school or program to which they apply.

Only students who are in good academic standing may participate in extracurricular activities. Extracurricular activities are defined as activities such as athletic competitions, artistic performances, and academic competitions that are not required by the student’s course work or major program. Students who are not in good academic standing will be prohibited from representing the university in the participation in intercollegiate athletic events, artistic performances except as required for their course work or degree requirements, and intercollegiate academic contests. Traveling with athletic teams, performance groups, or academic teams also will be prohibited.

The Remediation and Probation Policy of Master of Physician Assistant Studies Program is listed within the Physician Assistant Program Academic Standards. The Law School Academic Standards and Regulations are available at http://law.okcu.edu/?current=scholarly-life/academic-handbook/.

Readmission Policy for Students Dismissed for Poor Academic Performance

A student who is dismissed from the university for academic reasons must wait one full academic year before applying for readmission. The latest date by which readmission requests must reach the Office of the Registrar in order to be considered for earliest possible readmission will be indicated in the letter of dismissal. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will review any request for readmission. Requests for readmission will be reviewed prior to the semester in which the student is eligible to re-enroll.

Appeal Procedure for Academic Dismissal

Within 14 calendar days (excluding university holidays) of the receipt of the written notice of dismissal, the student may initiate an appeal in the following manner:

1. The student must submit a written appeal to the registrar. The appeal should have as much detail as possible, stating all aspects of the issue that the student thinks pertinent. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate the process and follow it through. Failure of the student to move the appeal forward in the specified time limit will terminate the appeal.
2. After making a determination that the appeal is filed in a timely manner, the registrar will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee to consider the student’s appeal within 10 school days of its receipt. School days are defined as Monday through Friday, when classes are in session, excluding breaks, final exam periods, and official university holidays. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will review all documentation and reach a decision on the appeal. The committee may request additional documentation and may postpone the hearing until that documentation is available. The student has the right to appear before the committee; however, to the fullest extent possible, the decision will be based on written documentation provided.
3. The committee may affirm the decision to dismiss, overturn the decision to dismiss, or qualify the decision to dismiss.
4. If the committee affirms the decision to dismiss, the provost may review the documentation to determine that these procedures were followed. The provost’s review will only address procedural matters.
Graduation Procedures and Commencement

Graduate degree candidates should check with their program directors on their progress toward satisfying graduation requirements during the semester preceding final enrollment.

A student cannot graduate with more than 6 credit hours below B- in that graduate program. Degree candidates must meet their program’s graduation requirements upon completion of their program. Grades below a C cannot count for graduation. Degree candidates must have a cumulative GPA of not less than 3.00 in hours attempted for the graduate program in which the degree will be conferred. Only courses taken at Oklahoma City University are used in calculating the GPA.

There are three graduation dates (fall, spring, and summer) and one commencement ceremony (May). Students completing degree requirements in the fall participate in the following May commencement ceremony. Students completing degree requirements in the spring term of an academic year participate in the May commencement ceremony following the end of that term. Students completing degree requirements in the summer terms participate in the May commencement ceremony of that same academic year. All students should complete the application for graduation by the appropriate deadline published in the academic calendar.

Before filing the application for graduation, each candidate should contact his or her academic advisor to initiate a final degree review. A final degree certification must be submitted to the Registrar’s Office by the appropriate dean. Consult the appropriate pages under education for the requirements pertinent to certification.

Before filing the application for graduation, each candidate should contact his or her academic advisor to initiate a final degree review. A final degree certification must be submitted to the Registrar’s Office by the appropriate dean. Consult the appropriate pages under Education for the requirements pertinent to certification. Responsibility for meeting graduation requirements lies with the student.

The date recorded on a diploma will be the conferral date (fall, spring, or summer) following the semester or summer term in which the student completes all requirements for the degree based on the last day of the course(s). The date recorded on a diploma for a degree with a required comprehensive exam will be the next conferral date after all requirements, including any comprehensive exams, have been successfully completed.

The Office of the Provost coordinates the commencement ceremonies for the university. Graduates are required to wear the appropriate cap and gown to participate in the ceremony. The only cords or stoles permitted to be worn with a graduate’s academic dress during the ceremony are those awarded by the university or honor societies of the university or university campus organizations.

Graduation Honors

The university recognizes the academic achievements of its candidates for degrees by the following honor awards:

- High Honors a cumulative GPA of 3.900 or higher
- Honors a cumulative GPA of 3.750–3.899

Courses that are nongraded or graded as credit/no-credit may not be included in the minimum hour requirements. To determine honors candidates for the commencement ceremony, the GPA and the hours accumulated through the semester prior to commencement will be calculated. For the official honors designation which is placed on the transcript and the diploma, the final semester’s hours and grade points are included. Only the GPA of hours completed at Oklahoma City University will be used in the calculation of graduation honors eligibility.

University Honors

Phi Kappa Phi

Phi Kappa Phi is an all-discipline national honor society. Undergraduates, graduate students, faculty, professional staff, and alumni are eligible for membership. The organization is more than 100 years old, and election is by invitation only. The mission of Phi Kappa Phi is “to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education, and to engage the community of scholars in service to others.”

Global Engagement (Study Abroad)

While most study abroad programs are designed for undergraduate students, graduate students are encouraged to explore available opportunities such as language immersion programs and internships abroad. Some Oklahoma City University faculty-led study abroad programs are open to graduate students. For more information, see okcu.edu/academics/studyabroad or contact the director of global engagement in Suite 438 of the administration building at (405) 208-5270.

Law students may select from several programs offered through the law school each summer. For more information, see the law school’s study abroad website or contact the director of international programs at (405) 208-5125.

Center for Interpersonal Studies Through Film and Literature

The center’s mission is to develop creative programs through film and literature that engage individuals on the intuitive and experiential levels to understand themselves and others across time and space. Begun in 1997, the center brings a distinguished creative person to the campus each year. Poets Jimmy Santiago Baca, Lucille Clifton, Carolyn Forché, Mark Doty, Claudia Emerson, Joy Harjo, Jane Hirshfield, Li-Young Lee, Michael Ondaatje, Naomi Shihab Nye, and Natasha Trethewey as well as Poet Laureates Billy Collins, Ted Kooser, Charles Simic, and Robert Pinsky, Terence Hayes, Tracy K. Smith, Richard Blanco, and Marie Howe have been featured. The center also develops an annual documentary film series each spring; develops for the university and community an archive collection of quality videos and DVDs along with viewing suggestions and some lesson plans for grade school through university-level teachers; conducts field trips to Oklahoma City University for teachers and students from upper elementary through high school to view and discuss distinguished films; holds a book discussion series for the university and Oklahoma City community; collaborates with other campus and metropolitan organizations to support and encourage different groups to work together on creative projects; and contributes to the support of The Harbour Winn OCU Film Institute. The director teaches university courses related to the mission of the center as well as courses in the English department and courses in the Moving Image Arts Program. The Thatcher Hoffman Smith Endowment Fund and an advisory committee support the development of the center.

Dulaney-Browne Library

The Dulaney-Browne Library is the main source for library collections and services for all non-law students, faculty and staff.

Library resources and services are available in the five-story Dulaney-Browne Library building in the center of the main campus, on the library’s web page at okcu.edu/library, and in the Leichter Listening Library. Resources include books, journals, video recordings, audio books, musical recordings, and musical scores in traditional and electronic formats. Librarians provide assistance in finding information in the library, over the telephone, via email, and by chat or text message. Librarians also offer formal instruction to individuals and groups in the use and evaluation of information resources. Other services include study spaces, and basic computer and printing assistance. The library’s special collections include the University Archives, the Oklahoma United Methodist Archives, and the Shirk Oklahoma History Center, the Foundation Center Cooperating Collection, and the Center for Interpersonal Studies through Film and Literature Film Collection.

The Dulaney-Browne Library building is also the home of the Learning Enhancement Center, the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning, test proctoring services, and the Disability Services office.

The Leichter Listening Library, located in the Wanda Bass Music Center, houses physical music recordings and scores and the office of the music librarian.

The Chickasaw Nation Law Library, located in the downtown campus (8th and Harvey), focuses on resources for law students and faculty, but is open to all students, faculty, and staff during regular business hours.

The Dulaney-Browne Library cooperates with other libraries in Oklahoma and around the world to provide students, faculty, and staff with access to their collections through OK-Share (a cooperative library card for Oklahoma academic libraries) and interlibrary loan (delivery to the library user of articles and books from other libraries).

Please contact the library at (405) 208-5068, (405) 445-3636 (text), or AskALibrarian@okcu.edu; or visit during regular library hours (Monday–Thursday 7:30 a.m.–midnight, Friday 7:30 a.m.–7 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m.–7 p.m., and Sunday noon–midnight) for more information.
Learning Enhancement Center

The LEC offers free peer writing consultations, along with tutoring in math, science, music theory, and general English conversation practice.

The LEC is open Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The LEC is located in the Dulaney-Browne Library.

Students may schedule 50 minute appointments or learn more about the LEC by going online at okcu.edu/students/tutoring.

Campus Disability Services

Campus Disability Services is located in the Dulaney-Browne Library 106C. We are dedicated to providing for the needs of students, staff, and OCU patrons who have disabilities. Reasonable modifications in the classroom, on campus housing, facilities around campus, and within our campus library will be provided for students with documented disabilities. Assistive technology for people with vision impairments and learning disabilities is available. Students with disabilities who wish to access services must initiate their request by contacting the Campus Disability Services Office. To contact Campus Disability Services, please email or call the Coordinator for Campus Disability Services, Jenny Minsberg at jmminsberg@okcu.edu or (405) 208-5895.

Computer and Information Resources

Campus Technology Services maintains a centrally-located, area dedicated to aid students with their computer issues on the lower level of the McDaniel University Center, Room 136. The Help Desk is staffed by trained technicians familiar with both Microsoft and Apple operating systems. The Help Desk offers a variety of student support services including:
• Walk-in and telephone support
• Technology-related consultation
• Virus and malware removal
• Installation of campus-licensed software applications such as Microsoft Office
• Assisted hardware upgrades
• An online issue and support tracking system

Finding a computer to use on campus is easy with many computer labs in various locations spread conveniently across campus. Lab hours vary by location. Microsoft Office, web browsing, and other computer applications are available in each lab, and several labs have course specific software available. Printing services are available in all public-access labs as well as all public computing spaces on campus. Each semester students receive an allotment for printing via their OCU ID cards. All students are issued a user ID and password, which are required to log into the campus network to use the labs and access printing services.

Email accounts are provided to all students. Email can be accessed through the internet from any location on or off campus. Additionally, email accounts include cloud storage to keep files accessible from anywhere on the internet.

The entire campus, including all residence halls, has wireless network access, allowing students access to the campus network and the internet 24 hours a day from any location. A limited number of computers are available in each dorm lobby.

Additional information for Campus Technology Services can be found at www.okcu.edu/technology or by calling (405) 208-5555.

The university’s computer-use policy is published on the university website at okcu.edu/technology. All students should read this policy to find information about restrictions and limitations for using the campus network.

ELS Language Centers

Oklahoma City University provides international students instruction in the English language through the ELS Language Centers located on campus.

The Intensive English for Academic Purposes (EAP) program at ELS Language Centers provides thirty hours of instruction per week to move a student quickly to the goal of university entrance. New sessions begin every four weeks, and students are tested and placed in one of twelve levels. The intensive EAP course is a complete English program including classes in structure/speaking, conversation, reading, writing, Language Technology Center (LTC), and special-interest subjects.

ELS Language Centers is accredited by the Accrediting Council for Continuing Education and Training (ACCET) and by the Oklahoma State Board of Regents for Higher Education. For information regarding this service, contact ELS Language Centers', (405) 525-3738, els.edu, or email okc@els.edu.

Academic Policies

The following academic policies apply only to the graduate programs in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences—Master of Arts in applied sociology—nonprofit leadership, Master of Arts in teaching English to speakers of other languages (TESOL), Master of Fine Arts in creative writing, Master of Science in criminology, Master of Education, and Master of Liberal Arts. Please see specific program descriptions for more details on policies in each program.

Transcript Requirements

No student will be admitted to a graduate program in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences without submitting complete, official transcripts from all institutions attended with evidence of an undergraduate degree or equivalent to a United States bachelor’s degree. Failure to submit all transcripts will result in immediate dismissal.

Maximum Number of Transfer Credits Accepted

Six credits may be accepted for transfer from other regionally accredited institutions. In exceptional cases, more credits may be transferred with the approval of the program director and dean.

Master’s degree programs in the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences will accept a maximum of 6 credit hours of approved courses from other graduate degree programs at Oklahoma City University.

Age of Transfer Credit Accepted

Generally, only course work completed within five years of admissions to Oklahoma City University will be accepted for transfer credit. In exceptional cases, course work completed within ten years of admission may be transferred with the approval of the program director and dean.

Minimum Residency Requirements

The minimum number of hours in residence for each program may be calculated by subtracting the number of transfer credits allowed from the total number of hours needed to graduate. Transfer credits are not accepted after a student has begun a graduate program except with approval of the program director and dean.

Maximum Number of Below B- Grades Allowed

A maximum of 6 credit hours below B- are allowed. No grades below C- will be accepted. TESOL students are not allowed to make grades below B- in designated core courses.

Maximum Number of Repeat Courses

A course may be repeated only once. Students may have only two repeats in a graduate program. If, after repeating a course, a student fails to receive at least a C-, the student will be automatically dismissed from the university.

Academic Probation Policy

Programs in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences follow the university’s academic probation policy. See the Academic Regulations section of this catalog.

Academic Appeals

The university academic appeals process will be followed by the graduate programs of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, with one notable exception. A Graduate Programs Committee composed of the graduate program directors, the associate dean, and the dean will hear all grievances. An appeal to this committee will take the place of an appeal to the dean in the academic appeals process. The dean will chair the Graduate Programs Committee.

Applying for Readmission

A student who has been dismissed from the university must wait a full academic year before applying for readmission.

Maximum Course Load

Students may enroll in a maximum of 12 hours in each of the fall and spring semesters, 6 hours in each of the summer terms. In exceptional cases, a student may enroll in more hours if approved by the program director and dean.

Independent Study/Directed Readings Hours

The maximum number of combined independent study and directed readings hours allowed during graduate studies is 6 hours. In exceptional cases students may take more than 6 hours of independent study/directed readings with approval of the program director and dean.
Incomplete Policy

Petree College of Arts and Sciences follows the university’s incomplete policy. In addition to the normal university requirements, all students must sign a contract with their professors regarding assignments to be completed and deadlines for course completion. If course requirements are not completed in the agreed-upon period of time, the I (incomplete) will be removed and converted to a grade indicated in the contract.

Time to Finish a Degree

Graduate degrees must be completed within six years.

The Program

The Master of Liberal Arts (M.L.A.) is designed to enable adults to acquire broader knowledge, deeper insight, and greater understanding of our cultural heritage in the humanistic, social, political, and scientific aspects of contemporary civilization. The M.L.A. seeks to lift adults above the provincialism commonly associated with our rapidly changing, increasingly specialized world and to provide them with those general skills that traditionally reflect a liberal education—the abilities to summarize, analyze, evaluate, and synthesize in written and oral discourse—all in an intellectual setting of reflection and value-conscious discourse.

The Student

To be admitted to the program, the student must have earned from a regionally accredited four-year institution a bachelor’s or equivalent four-year professional degree. Many students are professionals in the community—attorneys, executive and management personnel, dentists, teachers, doctors. All share the desire for liberal learning, which is a helpful resource in developing the perspective necessary for critical decision making, creative leadership, and enriched personal growth. The M.L.A. student has a developed spirit of independent inquiry and is aware of the value of a strong background of liberal study, but is not interested in the strict formality of a conventional degree program.

Students must conform to university requirements for graduate students, and maintenance in the program will be subject to conformity with these requirements.

The Faculty and Administration

The M.L.A. program invites the participation of all full-time members of the Oklahoma City University faculty. In addition, distinguished professors and other members of the community with appropriate academic and distinguished professional credentials are sought out and employed in service of the program.

The M.L.A. program is chartered by the faculty of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. Program policy is established and amended by the Petree College of Arts and Sciences faculty. The M.L.A. director administers the program, and the Graduate Council approves all substantial changes. The M.L.A. director approves course offerings and faculty appointments, reviews degree requirements, certifies graduates, and makes general recommendations as to the administration of the program.

The Curriculum

The M.L.A. curriculum offers two opportunities for study. Students may choose between the general studies or the leadership/management degree programs. Both programs are 36 hours and allow the students the flexibility to design a program that is not only personally enriching but also of maximum personal and professional benefit.

Leadership Studies

The Leadership Studies degree is applicable for those who wish to hone their business skills as well as become aware of the current trends in the humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences.

* Traditionally, approved M.L.A. graduate electives are offered in the departments of art, criminology, English, history, justice studies, mass communications, modern languages, moving image arts, philosophy, political science, and sociology. They are listed in the course schedule as graduate classes under the department prefix. New courses are added to the M.L.A. curriculum each semester, while standard, popular offerings are retained.

Degree Requirements

The M.L.A. does not require a thesis, GRE, or foreign language (although foreign languages may be studied for M.L.A. credit). To receive the M.L.A., the student must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Complete 36 hours of approved graduate study within six years of the date of admission.
Maintain a GPA of 3.00 or above. Students failing to maintain a B average over two semesters will be dismissed from the program.

A maximum of 6 hours of Independent Study may be taken toward satisfying the M.L.A. degree requirements.

A maximum of 6 hours of transfer graduate credit from another accredited institution may be considered toward satisfying the M.L.A. degree requirements. Transfer credits must have been taken within five years prior to the date of admission and must not have been used in attaining a previous degree. Credit is not given for study by correspondence.

Admission

Admission to the M.L.A. program requires completion of a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university with a GPA of 3.00 or higher on a 4.00 scale. Probationary admission may be allowed for promising students whose GPA falls between 2.75 and 2.99.

Master of Arts in Applied Sociology—Nonprofit Leadership

Director: Spinks
Faculty: Holt
Adjunct Faculty: Joseph, Roberts, Thompson, Walser, Young

Program Description

Oklahoma City University’s Master of Arts in Applied Sociology—Nonprofit Leadership is designed to develop the moral, ethical, professional, and scholarly knowledge, skills, and abilities of future servant leaders in the nonprofit sector. The program prepares leaders for the increasingly important body of work performed by nonprofit organizations. Nonprofit organizations are now considered the critical third aspect of the partnership (business and industry, government, and the nonprofits) necessary to adequately meet the complicated needs of our 21st century society.

After a century of being relegated to the category of work performed by the semiprofessional, today’s nonprofit executive is required to lead organizations through the complicated maze of increasing accountability requirements, new laws and regulations, and changing accounting rules. The tremendous increase in demand for accountability from nonprofits for the use of the charitable dollars they receive requires insightful and prepared leaders who understand the fundamentals of nonprofit organizations as well as the changing demands of the social context in which they operate. Nonprofit leadership is no longer a second career for the retired or an easy job for the less talented. It has become a profession in a growth industry that demands prepared leaders with finely honed skills that are unique to the work.

The curriculum employs a sociological perspective (i.e., specific sociological theories identifying patterns in human interaction) to illuminate how and why actions exist, the consequences or implications of such actions, and how to change such actions. Leaders in nonprofits need to understand such issues as organizational social theory in order to effectively deal with complex situations, e.g., those involving a paid and unpaid labor force.

This program partners with community leaders and organizations who want to invest in the future of nonprofits. Students in theology, sociology, justice studies, psychology, religion, dance, or music may all be interested in studying nonprofit leadership.

Admission Requirements

Applicants to the M.A. in Applied Sociology—Nonprofit Leadership and to the certificate in nonprofit leadership programs must possess a bachelor’s degree conferred by a regionally accredited university by the time of matriculation in the program. All applicants must have earned a cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.00 or higher. Applicants with an undergraduate GPA in the range of 2.75 to 2.99 may be admitted on probation with the permission of the program director. All applicants must submit letters of recommendation from academic sources or from supervisors in the nonprofit field, along with an essay that includes the student’s rationale for pursuing the degree or certificate. Complete details on the admission process and requirements are available from the Graduate Admissions Office.

Accelerated Format and Time to Complete the Program

Courses in the nonprofit leadership degree and certificate programs are taught in an accelerated eight-week format in which classes meet once per week in the evening. Full-time students in the graduate degree program will typically be enrolled in two classes during each eight-week session. This will enable full-time students who are making satisfactory progress to complete their degree in one calendar year. Students in the certificate program will typically be enrolled in one class during each eight-week session and can complete the requirements for the certificate in one calendar year. Students may choose to complete the degree or certificate program at a slower pace than this.

Course Calendar

The following calendar of course offerings is provided for planning purposes. Consult with the program director for information about completing either program at a different pace.

Joint J.D./M.A. in Law and Nonprofit Organizations and Leadership

The School of Law, in conjunction with Oklahoma City University’s Petree College of Arts and Sciences (PCAS), offers a J.D./M.A. joint degree program designed to provide a meaningful combined experience for students with an interest in law and nonprofit organizations. The program culminates in the award of both the Juris Doctor and the Master of Arts in Applied Sociology—Nonprofit Leadership. The joint degree program allows candidates to earn the J.D. and M.A. in less time than would be required if the degrees were earned concurrently, but separately.

To participate in the program, students must be admitted to both schools. All of the usual entrance requirements apply. There is no required sequence for admission: students may apply and matriculate at either school first.

Students admitted to the School of Law who would like to be considered for the joint degree program should notify the law school’s admissions office. Their law school application file will then be forwarded to the university’s Graduate Admissions Office for possible admission to the PCAS’ Master of Arts in Applied Sociology—Nonprofit Leadership.

Current law students may apply to the PCAS at any time during the first two years of law school. Full-time law students must complete the first three semesters of law school without interruption and may not begin their M.A. coursework before the fourth semester of law school. Part-time law students must complete their first six semesters of law school without interruption but may begin their M.A. coursework during the sixth semester of law school.

A PCAS student must begin law school in the first August following his or her admission to the J.D. program and complete the first three semesters of the J.D. program without interruption.

Students who have been admitted to both the university’s J.D. program and the university’s M.A. program in Applied Sociology—Nonprofit Leadership should notify the School of Law’s registrar in order to receive the benefit of the joint program’s reduced number of credit hours for the J.D. degree. Students may do this by checking the appropriate box on their work statements during an enrollment period.
Joint degree candidates must complete 84 credit hours in the School of Law and 30 credit hours in the PCAS. This compares with 90 hours required in the School of Law and 36 hours required in the PCAS if the degrees were pursued separately.

In the School of Law, joint degree candidates must complete Nonprofit Organizations, Taxation of Charities and Nonprofit Organizations, and the Corporate Counsel Externship program (with a placement in a nonprofit setting). Candidates are encouraged (but not required) to complete Agency and Unincorporated Business Associations, Contract Drafting, and Client Representation in Negotiation and are also encouraged (but not required) to complete their upper-class writing requirement through a seminar paper dealing with nonprofit organizations. In the PCAS, joint degree candidates are exempt from taking Nonprofit Law and Professional Project and Capstone.

Master of Arts in Teaching: Elementary Education

Director: Willner
Faculty: Delgado Brown, Wilhelm

Program Description

Note: This program is currently suspended. For more information, please contact the department chair at lwillner@okcu.edu.

The Master of Arts in Teaching Elementary program at Oklahoma City University is designed for adults who have completed a bachelor’s degree in any subject and are seeking to become certified teachers in elementary schools. There are two portions of the program, the certification portion and the master’s portion.

The certification portion consists of 30 hours of coursework and field experiences during the summer, fall, and spring sessions of the first academic year. Upon successful completion of the state certification exams, a program portfolio, and the coursework/field experiences, teacher candidates are prepared to teach elementary children across the curriculum and are eligible for state certification/licensure.
The master’s portion of the program is designed to be taken the second academic year when candidates are teaching in elementary schools. It consists of two courses in which candidates will learn research methodology and conduct action research projects in their own classrooms.

Admission Requirements

- Bachelor’s degree with cumulative GPA of 3.00
- Personal statement regarding interest in the program
- Two letters of recommendation

Please contact the Office of Graduate Admission to facilitate your application to this program. Call (405) 208-5351 or email gadmissions@okcu.edu.

Students may have already taken these courses in their bachelor’s programs. Additional courses may be taken at the undergraduate or graduate levels.

- Twelve credit hours each in English Language Arts, Social Studies, Science, and Mathematics.
- Six credit hours in a single foreign language.

Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

Coordinator: Zhou
Faculty: Griffin, Zhou

Program Description

The university offers this Master of Arts to prepare competent and conscientious professionals in the field of teaching English to speakers of other languages (TESOL). The degree program consists of 36 credit hours and is designed to provide students with a solid theoretical foundation and the necessary professional skills in TESOL at different levels of education (early childhood, elementary, secondary, tertiary, and adult literacy) and in different milieus (English as a foreign language and English as a second language). It aims to equip students with the linguistic knowledge, cultural understanding, and pedagogical training essential in the various aspects of TESOL including, among other things, curriculum design, material preparation, methodologies, classroom procedures, and assessment.

Certificate in TESOL

The certificate is an 18 credit-hour program created for those who do not want to pursue a master’s degree but desire credentials in TESOL that will aid them in gaining employment in TESOL both domestically and overseas.

Admission Requirements

All applicants must possess a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college with a GPA of at least 3.00 on a 4.00 scale. The applicant with a GPA between 2.75 and 2.99 may, with permission of the program director and graduate faculty, enter the program on probation. An applicant with a GPA lower than 2.75 may be admitted on probation only with the approval of the program director and the dean of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. Students entering the program with probationary status must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.00 in the graduate curriculum to continue.

Admission Procedure

The application for admission to the Master of Arts in TESOL may be secured from the Office of Graduate Admissions or the International Admissions Office. (See Graduate Admission in this catalog.)
Advising

Upon receiving a letter of admission, the student should make an appointment to confer with his or her appointed advisor prior to enrolling. Advisors are assigned by the first letter of the student’s last name. Dr. Griffin advises students with last names beginning with A–M. Students with last names beginning with N–Z will be advised by Dr. Zhou. Telephone listings and office hour schedules for both of the advisors are available in the education division office at (405) 208-5371. The advisor will assist the student in planning the program and selecting courses for the degree.

Transfer of Hours

To be transferable, course work completed at another institution must be certified as graduate credit by that institution and must fit into the student’s plan of study. Usually, a maximum of 12 semester hours may be transferred from another institution. (Transfer of more than 6 hours requires approval of the program director and dean). Acceptance of transferred course work will be decided by the student’s advisor as designated by the TESOL course equivalency guide, and then approved by the dean’s office at the time the student program is planned. Specific requirements for transfer work should denote that courses are a minimum of 3 credit hours, with a semester equivalent to 40 hours of classroom work per course and completed with a B (3.0) or higher on a 4.0 scale. Students transferring from universities not listed in the TESOL course equivalency guide must submit a course syllabus two months prior to their arrival on campus for transfer eligibility. A careful review and approval will be required of all transfer work by the OCU TESOL faculty and the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Comprehensive Exam Policy

All candidates for the M.A. in TESOL are required to successfully complete a comprehensive examination, usually scheduled during the student’s last semester of course work. In order to be eligible to take the comprehensive exam, students must have completed all the courses that correlate with the six competencies of the exam or be in the process of completing those courses during the semester in which the exam is taken. Successful completion is defined as passing five out of six competencies. Format, times, and location will be announced early in the semester and are normally conducted in November and April. Applications and instructions for the examination are available in the division of education office. Applications must be signed by the advisor and the program director. A copy of the completed application is required for entry into the examination room. Students who fail the examination may only retake it once. Students who fail the examination after two attempts will not be awarded the M.A., but may be eligible to receive a Certificate of TESOL.

Thesis Option

1. In consultation with the student’s TESOL advisor, the thesis option must be selected prior to the ninth week of the first semester of enrollment in the TESOL program.

2. The candidate must successfully complete TESL 5003: Research and Writing.

3. Additionally, the candidate must complete TESL 6903: Methods of Research during the first semester of study in the program with an A (not A-) both in the course and on the research proposal made as part of the course.

4. The candidate must have a TOEFL iBT score of 100 or higher with a minimum score of 25 on the TOEFL writing component or a band 7.0 on the IELTS Writing exam.

5. The candidate must possess a GPA of 3.75 or higher by the end of the first semester.

If the above five conditions have been met,

6a. The thesis candidate will confirm a three-faculty member thesis committee within two weeks of the start of the student’s second semester in the TESOL program. This committee must be formed with a minimum of two full-time TESOL faculty; the third member could also be from the TESOL department or, with permission of your committee chair, a faculty member from another department/program. The student is responsible for forming the thesis committee, getting the signatures of each faculty member, and should refer to the TESOL thesis guidelines available in the department.

6b. The thesis candidate will submit a thesis proposal including both the introduction and method section to the thesis committee members by week six of the student’s second semester in the TESOL program. Please refer to the TESOL thesis guidelines available in the department.

6c. At the time of thesis proposal submission, the candidate will schedule a time for an oral defense of the thesis proposal. The defense will be within one week of the proposal submission date.
The thesis committee will then approve (or not) the continuation of the research project based on a demonstrated advanced writing skill and a clearly defined research agenda.

Candidates who are approved to continue with the thesis option will be required to complete the minimum of 33 hours plus TESL 6983: Thesis in TESOL, which will be taken in lieu of an elective course during their third and final semester in the program. Core courses or required courses cannot be taken as thesis hours.

The completed thesis must be submitted to the three-member committee by week nine of the student’s last semester in the TESOL program (at least five weeks prior to commencement).

At the time of the thesis submission, the candidate will schedule a time for a public, oral defense of the thesis. The defense will be within two weeks of the thesis submission date (week 11; at least four weeks prior to commencement).

Upon a successful defense of the thesis, all suggested revisions to the manuscript must be completed and signed by the thesis committee within two weeks. Upon this approval by the committee a final bound copy will be submitted to the thesis chair and two final bound copies will be deposited in the Dulaney-Browne Library. All final bound copies submitted to the library become property of the university. Students should consult the latest library guidelines pertaining to the MA thesis submission.

Exceptions must have prior approval of the thesis advisor and the program director.

Students are expected to complete the thesis during the semester of enrollment in the TESL 6983: Thesis in TESOL. However, the research design for the problem may be such that one semester is not sufficient for completion of the study. In this case, the student must secure the approval of his or her thesis advisor and an “X” will be recorded as the grade. The extension may not exceed one semester. If the “X” is not converted to a grade by the end of the extension period, the student will be required to re-enroll in the TESL 6983: Thesis in TESOL. Re-enrollment of more than one time will not be permitted without filing a new plan of study, which must be approved by the thesis advisory committee.

The writing style of the thesis should comply with the most recent edition of the American Psychological Association (APA) Style Manual. (See the TESOL thesis guidelines and the Academic Regulations section of this catalog for additional information.)

Master of Education in Applied Behavioral Studies

Coordinator: Farha

Faculty: Gallavan, Hakman

Adjunct Faculty: Smith, Tassey

Although the applied behavioral studies (ABS) and counseling programs are housed in the Department of Education, they function independently and the ABS coordinator reports directly to the dean of the college.

The one year, 33-hour fast-track master’s degree in applied behavioral studies is designed for pre-counseling and related professionals who are involved in the fields of learning, development, and group processes in human behavior settings such as mental health facilities; government, business and industry; and organizational contexts. This program has been approved by the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services and the Oklahoma Healthcare Authority to meet educational requirements to become a Certified Behavioral Health Case Manager. Those interested in becoming a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) can do so through participation in this 33-credit hour program and by taking five additional courses.

Examples of those who might be interested in this degree would include workers in mental health, human development, consulting, teaching, adult learning, human resources, training and development, human services, and student personnel.

The program is designed for fall admission and is “fast-track” in that most of the courses are offered in an once-per-week, eight-week session. Each 3 credit hour course requires a one weekend seminar. This allows full-time students beginning in the fall to finish in one year and part-time students beginning in the fall to finish in two years. Some summer course work is required. The full-time student will take two courses at a time, and the part-time student takes one course at a time. Because of this unique structure, students may have to attend some classes on days when the university is otherwise closed.

Academic Honesty

Graduate students in the applied behavioral studies programs are expected to conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner at all times. When submitting academic work, students must abide by the academic honesty policy stated in this catalog. Any act that violates the academic honesty policy will incur a penalty up to and including expulsion from the graduate program and the university.

Because this is a “pre-counseling” program, the philosophy section of the professional counseling track also applies to the 33 hour applied behavioral studies curriculum.

M.Ed. in Applied Behavioral Studies—Professional Counseling

The Petree College of Arts & Sciences at Oklahoma City University offers the Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Applied Behavioral Studies—Professional Counseling. It is designed to train students to become professional counselors in Oklahoma and render services to individuals, groups, and families experiencing normal adjustment difficulties of a personal, social, or career nature in settings such as community counseling centers, mental health clinics, guidance centers, human service agencies, drug and alcohol treatment facilities, university counseling centers, abuse shelters, religious counseling centers, and private practice (once licensure is attained). Students are encouraged to secure internships in settings consistent with their specific areas of professional interest.

Structure

To attain the professional counseling concentration, the student must accrue at least 60 credit semester hours, including field experience. Because space is limited, not all qualified applicants are admitted. The sequenced, mental health program of study is designed to meet the Oklahoma academic requirements to become a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) as set forth and granted by the State Board of Behavioral Health. (It is the responsibility of the prospective student/applicant/student to determine degree portability to another state.)

Students first meet academic requirements for the 33 hour M.Ed. in Applied Behavioral Studies (ABS), then complete five more courses (including field experience) to have the “Professional Counseling” designation added to their transcript. This brings the total to 60 credit hours (as required by statute).

Most courses are offered in the evening, but flexible daytime schedules are necessary for Practicum and Internship. The program is designed for fall admission and is “fast-track” in that most of the courses are offered in a once-per-week, eight-week session. This allows full-time students beginning in the fall to finish in two years (and part-time students beginning in the fall to finish in about four years). Some courses, such as Practicum and Internship will be offered in the traditional 15 week semester. Each 3 credit hour course requires a one-weekend seminar, while 4 credit hour courses will require more. Some summer course work is required. Because of this unique structure, students may have to attend some classes on days when the university is otherwise closed.
Philosophy

Emphasizing a practitioner-wellness model, counseling at Oklahoma City University is viewed as an integration of art and science. As such, the counselor’s effectiveness becomes a product, in part, of personal awareness and creativity. The “experiential” philosophy of the program reflects this belief by emphasizing students’ personal growth and development as critical in the training of counselors. It is therefore assumed that students not only desire, but also intend to pursue the inspection of their personal identity, growth, and development—both inside and outside the classroom—as an integral part of their graduate studies in counseling at Oklahoma City University.

Continuation and Candidacy

At any point during the ABS program, if the academic unit has reason to believe the student has demonstrated impairment or “fitness” for clinical studies is questioned, the unit reserves the right to suspend, terminate, or impose remedial work.

Near completion of the 33 hour M.Ed. in Applied Behavioral Studies, students will be evaluated and must “advance to candidacy” in order to continue study toward the professional counseling concentration (for those seeking the LPC). This requires grades of at least 3.00 in each course as well as a pleasant personality and demeanor and demonstration of a high degree of professionalism, ethical behavior, and a noncombative, nonabrasive attitude on campus with faculty and students as well as off-campus with supervisors. An oral candidacy interview may also be requested. Some information from ABS 5314 Assessment I may be used in the candidacy process. Satisfactory background check required.

Probation Policy

If a student’s GPA falls below a 3.00 before or after candidacy, he or she will be placed on academic probation with one semester to raise the GPA to 3.00 or higher. Students entering on probation must raise their ABS GPA to at least a 3.00 within the next 9 credit hours taken. A student placed on probation twice may be disqualified from continuation.

Drug Policy

Please refer to the “Alcohol and Other Drug Policies” in the Student Handbook.

Graduation Requirements

Students must earn at least a 3.00 cumulative GPA and be in good standing in order to graduate. Only one course grade below B- is acceptable. Under no circumstances is a grade below C acceptable.

Admission Criteria for ABS

1. An earned bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (or its foreign equivalent recognized by the country in which the degree is granted).
2. Minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.00. Students may be admitted on probation, at the discretion of the program director, with a cumulative GPA of 2.75 to 2.99.
3. Two electronically completed recommendation letters from college instructors. If bachelor’s degree is more than five years old, a significant sample of former scholarship can be submitted in lieu of one instructor’s letter. In this case, the other letter may be from a supervisory person from applicant’s employment.
4. Official transcripts from all academic institutions attended.
5. Ability to effectively communicate in English (both written and oral).
A personality/disposition deemed suitable for the helping and crisis intervention disciplines.

Students whose native language is other than English must demonstrate proof of English language proficiency. Applicants must achieve a score of at least 80 on the internet-based TOEFL, 550 on the international paper-based TOEFL, 213 on the computer-based TOEFL, or an overall IELTS score of 6.0 with at least 5.5 on each band score. The requirements may also be met by completing level 112 of the intensive program at an ELS language center.

Individuals may be asked to supplement their application. Supplemental materials may include, but are not limited to, interviews, writing samples, and course work.

The deadline to submit completed applications for fall and spring admissions will be exactly two weeks prior to the beginning of the semester. Be advised that because the ABS admissions committee has to convene, realistically, application should be submitted well before the deadline.

Admission on Probation

Students admitted on probation to the program must achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher in the first 9 credit hours taken and earn a “B” or better in each course in order to continue in the program. Students admitted on probation must enroll on a part-time basis until these conditions have been met.

Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing (M.F.A.)

Administration: English Department

Director: Mish

Program Description

The Master of Fine Arts in creative writing is a terminal degree in creative writing. Students work with faculty mentors to create a manuscript-length work of creative prose in fiction, nonfiction, poetry, or another creative genre with approval of the program director. Students also concentrate on academic work in literary criticism and analysis of writing craft. Students may elect to pursue strands in pedagogy, professional writing, or literary magazine editing and production.

Structure of the Program

This is a two-year program which includes five residencies—one each summer and each winter, plus one at the end of the program—for periods of 10 days. Students will complete 12 hours of course work each fall and spring semester for two years, for a total of 48 credit hours. The final residency will include a public reading and defense of the thesis.

Learning Outcomes

Students pursue literature, rhetoric, pedagogy, and writing courses according to a curricular plan co-devised with their academic advisor. Learning outcomes are those which strengthen and fulfill each student’s stated goals, which may vary from personal enrichment to career development as teachers, editors, or authors.

Admission Requirements

In addition to the general graduate admission requirements established by Oklahoma City University, all students seeking admission to the Master of Fine Arts in creative writing must submit the following:

1. A sample of creative work in the genre (poetry, creative nonfiction or fiction, including genre fiction and YA) in which she or he wishes to work, no more than 20 pages long.

2. A two- to three-page personal statement responding to each of the following prompts:

1. Write about a book that you have read recently. Explain, with specific references to the book and to craft elements*, why that book did or did not work for you.
   * (Craft elements: plot, characterization, setting, scenes, metaphor, line breaks, imagery, sonics, etc.).

2. Explain your preparation (academic or personal) for an MFA program. Explain why a low-residency program will work for you. To prepare for this part of the personal statement, please read Lori A. May’s article, “Is a Low-Residency MFA Right for You?” which is available at http://www.loriamay.com/lowres_excerpt.pdf

3. Two confidential letters of recommendation. Please request reference letters from professors, coworkers, supervisors, colleagues, or other people who can describe you in terms of the following characteristics:
   - Self-discipline (being a “self-starter”).
   - Ability to take criticism and follow guidance.
   - Ability to plan for and meet deadlines.
   - Camaraderie/ability to work with others.

Reference letters which do not respond to the characteristics listed above will not be considered.

Admissions decisions will be made by a committee including the Program Director and faculty members who teach in the writing sample’s genre. Applications are ranked, in order, by writing sample quality, personal statements, and letters of recommendation. For more information, contact the MFA director by email: MFADirector@okcu.edu

Master of Science in Criminology

Associate Director: Green
Faculty: Meinhart, Spinks

The mission of the Master of Science in Criminology at Oklahoma City University is to provide a curriculum that offers a broad view of crime and justice. Students pursuing a master’s degree in criminology receive a strong background in the study of crime and justice that integrates theory, research, and practice.

The faculty adopts a holistic approach to the study of crime and justice. All of our full-time faculty hold terminal degrees in criminal justice, sociology, or justice studies. Our program offers an interdisciplinary approach that helps students understand the causes, correlations, and consequences of crime. Master of Science in Criminology students challenge normative assumptions regarding crime and justice through critical thinking and writing.

Students gain mastery of the knowledge, methods, and intellectual skills pertaining to the study of the causes, consequences, and responses to crime and its interaction with other areas of inquiry.

For further information on graduate policies, see the Graduate Academic Policies for the Petree College of Arts and Science.

Procedure for Admission

The application for admission to the program may be obtained from the Office of Graduate Admissions. The completed form, along with official transcripts of all previous college work and two letters of recommendation, should be returned to the Office of Graduate Admissions. The final decision for admission rests with the faculty in the sociology and criminal justice department. After the student receives notice of admission to the program, an interview should be arranged with the graduate advisor for advisement. Students must have taken an undergraduate statistics course and an introductory criminal justice course before beginning the Master of Science in Criminology program. Students can be admitted under a conditional admit, while students take the undergraduate courses, during the first semester of the graduate program.

Admission Requirements

Unconditional Admission: Applicants must have an overall GPA of 3.00 and an undergraduate degree in one of the social sciences, including, but not limited to, psychology, sociology, criminal justice, corrections, police science, prelaw, political science, or history.

Master’s Thesis Requirements

All graduates of the Master of Science in Criminology must successfully complete and defend a master’s thesis. Further information on thesis policies is available in this Graduate Catalog. Upon admission to the program, a student will determine a Course of Action Plan to successfully complete the requirement.

Practicum and Field Study Requirements

All graduates of the Master of Science in Criminology must successfully complete three credit hours of either a practicum or field study. For a practicum, students must provide services to an entity working within the sphere of criminology. This will balance the theoretical underpinnings of many courses in the program with the application of the field of criminology. Students can earn a tuition waiver for prior work experience within the criminology field. We will allow student to receive three hours of course credit for five years of relevant work experience (four consecutive years) and six hours of course credit for ten years of relevant work experience (eight consecutive years). Relevant work experience is defined by the department as meeting the following criteria:

- Work within the criminal justice system: law enforcement, courts, and/or corrections
- Work outside of clerical positions
To qualify for this plan, students will provide a portfolio for review of the department outlining the work experience as it relates to criminology. Then, the student must provide a presentation to undergraduates in the Sociology and Criminal Justice department discussing the connections of the MSC program to work experience. Upon admission to the program, a student will determine a Course of Action Plan to successfully complete the requirements.

Accelerated Format and Time to Complete the Program

Courses in the Master of Science in Criminology degree are taught in an accelerated eight-week format in which classes meet once per week in the evening. Full-time students in the graduate degree program will typically be enrolled in two classes during each eight-week session. This will enable full-time students who are making satisfactory progress to complete their degree in one calendar year. Students may choose to complete the degree at a slower pace than this.

Course Calendar

The following calendar of course offerings is provided for planning purposes. Consult the program director for information about completing the degree at a different pace.

Certification Studies in the United Methodist Church
Wimberly School of Religion

Faculty: Betsworth, Enchassi, Long, Starkey, Wolfe

The mission of the Wimberly School of Religion is to offer religious and theological studies in the United Methodist tradition that unite knowledge and vital piety, explore questions of ultimate concern for the lives of all human beings, and to prepare persons seeking to enter a variety of Christian vocations in service to the church and community.

The purpose of graduate study in religion is to involve students in serious philosophical and theological consideration of the questions of humanity's origin, destiny, meaning, and purpose. This demands highly motivated and qualified students who are interested in exploring critically the ways in which questions of ultimate concern relate to the lives of human beings.

The Wimberly School of Religion is committed to the development of dedicated and competent leaders of Christ's church as the people of God with ministries in God's world. The school seeks to provide the church with educational opportunities for study in all of the disciplines related to the ministry of the church, such as biblical, theological, ethical, educational, and practical ministry studies.

Certification is the church's recognition that a person has met the required personal and church qualifications and gained the academic qualifications and work experience necessary to achieve and maintain professional excellence. Certification is available in the United Methodist Church in a variety of areas of specialization. The School of Religion has been approved by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church to provide the academic programs related to certification in the areas of Christian education and youth ministry.

A person can fulfill the academic requirements of certification studies at Oklahoma City University by earning a bachelor's degree plus five graduate certification courses in the area of specialization, including the course in United Methodist Doctrine and Polity. These courses are Nature and Work in Christian Education, The Bible in Christian Education/Youth Ministry, Relating Theology to Christian Education/Youth Ministry, Administration and Leadership, and United Methodist Doctrine and Polity.

The following are ways a person can fulfill the academic requirements for associate certification studies at Oklahoma City University:

1. Complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in general undergraduate course work and complete five graduate certification studies courses in the area of specialization, including the course United Methodist Doctrine and Polity.

2. Complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in the area of specialization (such as the Program for Associate Certification in Youth Ministry or Program for Associate Certification in Christian Education) in the School of Religion.

For additional information on requirements for certification, contact the registrar of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Section of Deacons and Diaconal Ministry.

Meinders School of Business

A Broad View of Management

The Meinders School of Business is committed to providing quality business education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Curricula are designed to offer students a broad-based view of management: a view that emphasizes ethics, entrepreneurship, and social responsibility in the workplace; a view of management that will enable students to work effectively in the challenging global business environment. Course work features best business practices as well as theory and helps to provide students with the management skills necessary for effective leadership. Theoretical foundations are balanced by practical applications.

An Educational Environment That Serves the Student

The Meinders School of Business offers students a wide variety of learning opportunities outside of the classroom. These enrichment activities provide valuable insights into the business world and augment traditional classroom study. These learning opportunities, such as industry visits, internships, and career coaching, focus on helping students develop strategies to reach their personal career goals. Through a series of professional development workshops conducted each semester, students also begin preparing for their careers after college. Among the topics covered are résumé writing, interviewing techniques, business etiquette, and communication skills.

Outstanding Facilities

The business school is located in the Meinders School of Business building, a $20 million facility completed in 2003. The three-story, 80,000 square-foot building includes features that focus on student success and add value to students’ academic experiences. The facility includes classrooms with state-of-the-art technology, breakout study rooms for small groups, a learning center, a student/faculty lounge, and a resource center. The building houses faculty offices, the Busey Institute for Enterprise and Leadership, and a 230-seat tiered auditorium capable of hosting videoconferences, guest speakers, and seminars.

Busey Institute for Enterprise and Leadership

The Busey Institute for Enterprise and Leadership brings an exclusive blend of leadership programming to Meinders School of Business and the Oklahoma City metroplex. Programming includes leadership assessments, coaching, professional development and educational opportunities, as well as conferences and speaker forums offered for the benefit of students as well as regional businesses. These unique programs incorporate specially developed curriculum, highly interactive workshops, leading-edge materials, and activities all committed to the personal growth, professional development, and career success of our students and business managers across the Oklahoma City metro.

Continuing Professional Education Program

The Continuing Professional Education Program offers students and working professionals certification courses in many demanding fields including Authentic Leadership, Project Management Professional (PMP), Petroleum Land Management (PLM), Professional in Human Resources (PHR) and Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR). The Meinders School of Business also meets the dynamic needs of regional businesses by providing customized on-site programs for groups. The Meinders School of Business specializes in program development, handling everything from entire program assessment and delivery to all administrative functions. The Continuing Professional Education Program at Oklahoma City University, in partnership with Gatlin Education Services and ed2go, also offers more than 400 online open enrollment programs designed to provide the skills necessary to acquire professional level positions for many in-demand occupations. For more information or to enroll in a course, visit okcu.edu/business/profed.

Steven C. Agee Economic Research and Policy Institute

The Steven C. Agee Economic Research and Policy Institute is recognized as the principal source of unbiased, data-driven, applied economic research and consulting expertise for a diverse constituency including local, statewide, and regional multi-state business communities, governments, and regulatory agencies. The institute is comprised of three individual, highly integrated centers: 1) Center for Regional Economic Forecasting, Development, and Policy Analysis; 2) Center for Native American and Urban Studies; and 3) Center for Data Analytics.
Institute staff bring the benefits of extensive experience to their roles and are each recognized as leaders in their areas of knowledge and expertise. As a contributing unit within the Meinders School of Business, the institute also provides undergraduate and graduate students opportunities to be directly involved in applied economic research through the Institute Scholars Program. To learn more about the institute, see okcu.edu/business or contact Russell Evans, Executive Director, at rrevans@okcu.edu.

Meinders School of Business offers five graduate degree programs:

- Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.)
- Master of Science in Accounting (M.S.A.)
- Master of Science in Computer Science (M.S.)
- Master of Science in Energy Management (M.S.)

One Meinders M.B.A. available in two formats:

Early Advantage 1-Year M.B.A.

The Meinders Early Advantage M.B.A. is a cohort-based, daytime program for recent college graduates and for career changers. While students typically complete the program within 12 months, they have up to five years to complete the program if needed. Cohorts begin each January and August. No work experience is required.

Professional M.B.A.

A cohort-based evening M.B.A. program providing the flexibility to earn your degree while working and designed for students having a wide range of educational and professional experience. Students continue working and can apply their new skills while earning their M.B.A. Cohorts start in January and August. While the program is designed to be completed in 24 months, students have up to five years to complete the program if needed. Applicants should have three or more years of relevant work experience.

Professional M.B.A. classes meet one night each week utilizing the business school’s state-of-the-art executive classrooms. Students outside the OKC metro-area are able to participate in classes through leading edge video-streaming simulcast technologies that deliver each class to the student’s tablet or laptop browser—wherever they might be located. Students interact with peers and instructors in real-time, creating a rich and engaging learning experience.

The Meinders M.B.A. Curriculum

Classes in the Meinders M.B.A. emphasize the practical application of business theory for making decisions and solving problems. Guided by highly experienced and knowledgeable faculty, you will master the course concepts and then master the application of these concepts through real-world decision-making scenarios and projects.

No Prerequisite Courses.

While applicants are not required to have undergraduate degrees nor previous study in the field of business, they must demonstrate the likelihood of success in a rigorous graduate program. Applicants are expected to have a basic understanding of analytical techniques and the ability to express and communicate ideas precisely and coherently.

The 36 credit hour curriculum consists of 12 integrated courses.

M.B.A. Scholarships

Limited, competitive scholarships are available for MBA students. To be considered the student must have taken the GMAT earning a competitive score and completed a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students must also submit a two paragraph scholarship statement explaining what qualities make you a chosen candidate for the scholarship and address your financial need. Scholarship statements may be sent via email to Michael Harrington, Director of Graduate Admissions, maharrington@okcu.edu. The priority deadline for scholarship consideration for spring admission is November 1. The priority deadline for scholarship consideration for fall admission is July 1.

Joint J.D./M.B.A.

The J.D./M.B.A. program at Oklahoma City University seeks to develop synergy and build on the unique attributes from both the Meinders School of Business and the School of Law. To participate in this program, students must be admitted to both schools; all the usual entrance requirements apply. Law students may apply to the Meinders School of Business at any time prior to the end of the fifth semester at the law school. A Meinders School of Business student who wishes to pursue the joint degree must begin law studies during the first August following his or her decision to pursue the joint degree. Joint degree students must take 30 hours of M.B.A. coursework from the school of business and 84 hours from the School of Law. This compares with a typical 36-hour requirement for the Meinders School of Business and 90 hours for the Law School if the student were to pursue the degrees separately. Joint degree students are exempt from taking MGMT 5703 Ethical, Societal, and Legal Environment of Business and MBA 5113 Special Topics in Business.

M.B.A. Admissions

Official transcripts of all previous college or university studies are required and should be sent directly to the graduate admissions office. Applicants to the Meinders School of Business graduate programs must have a bachelor’s degree in any field of study from a regionally accredited institution or be eligible for admission to graduate programs under the United Kingdom system. Students must meet the admissions standards for the catalog year in which they are admitted to the university. See the section on admission procedure in this catalog.

M.B.A. students must demonstrate the likelihood of success in a rigorous graduate program to be considered for admission. Several factors may be evaluated when reviewing an application, including the undergraduate GPA, GMAT and GRE exam scores, letters of recommendation, academic and professional accomplishments, professional work experience, and TOEFL/IELTS scores (international students). Other accepted graduate admissions tests may also be considered.

International Students

English language proficiency is required in all courses. An applicant who meets one of the following conditions prior to admission will be considered to have sufficient reading and writing English language proficiency:

- Completed his/her undergraduate studies at an institution where English was the language of instruction
- Demonstrated a score of at least 83 iBT on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
- Scored at least 6.0 overall with a minimum 5.5 on each band score on the IELTS
- Achieved level 112 in the ELS program

Domestic and International Special Considerations

Those who do not meet the above admissions criteria may be considered on an individual basis for conditional admission by the Graduate Studies Committee. Applicants must petition their requests in writing to the Graduate Studies Committee via the Meinders School of Business dean’s office.

Pre-M.B.A. Admission

Applicants holding academic diplomas recognized by the country in which the diploma is granted as equivalent to a baccalaureate degree (a three-year, 90-hour program) may be conditionally admitted to the M.B.A. program upon successful completion of the following 36 hours of undergraduate courses:

Pre-M.B.A. students are not permitted to waive any of the 36 hours of required classes. Students who can demonstrate prior completion of one or more of the required pre-M.B.A. courses at a regionally accredited university may elect to complete a higher level undergraduate course in the appropriate area(s) of study. Students may not enroll in M.B.A. courses until they have successfully completed the pre-M.B.A. program, have submitted a satisfactory GMAT/GRE score, and have been officially admitted to the M.B.A. program. Upon successful completion of the pre-M.B.A. program, the student will be awarded a certificate but not a B.B.A.

Required Multi-Field Assessment

As a requirement for graduation, M.B.A. students must take and pass the M.B.A. Multi-Field Assessment Test (MFAT) by achieving a total score ≥ 75% of the maximum score possible of 300 points. This equates to a minimum threshold score of 225 points. A student who fails to pass or take the MFAT at the required, scheduled time must do the following:

- Take/retake the test at his/her own expense. There is no limit to the number of retakes and only the highest score will be recorded.
- Engage with faculty members for review and preparation to retake the assessment.

Master of Science in Accounting

Faculty: Herron, Jurney, Murray, Shough

Upon successful completion of the M.S.A. program, students will have met the educational requirements to sit for the Certified Public Accountant exam in most states. Qualified students may complete the degree in 30 credit hours of study.

Prerequisite Requirements

* Students who take only the course work required for the financial leadership track will meet the requirements to sit for the CPA exam in Oklahoma, but are encouraged to engage in additional study to be adequately prepared for the exam.

 Must be taken at an accredited U.S. school.

 Students who take only the course work required for the tax track will NOT meet the requirements to sit for the CPA exam in Oklahoma.

All waivers and agreements are subject to compliance with the appropriate graduate catalog or approval of the dean. None of the prerequisite courses are applied to the master’s degree.
Optimal Program for M.S.A. Students without an Undergraduate Accounting Degree

Many of our M.S.A. students are adults who did not major in Accounting as undergraduates and want to prepare for the CPA Exam. The M.S.A. program will allow such students to obtain an M.S.A. and prepare for the CPA Exam in a highly focused manner. Assuming students have completed basic Financial Accounting and Managerial Accounting, an optimal program for CPA Exam preparation would be as follows.

M.S.A. Admission

Applicants to the M.S.A. program will be granted admission if the student has a bachelor’s degree, has met the English language requirement, and has met one of the paths of criteria listed below. Note that all the criteria in any one path must be met without substitutions. If path two, three, or five is selected, admission will be determined by the Graduate Studies Committee of the Meinders School of Business.

Bachelor’s degree from an international college or university paths

Path One: GMAT score of at least 475 with at least a 20 percent on each part.

Path Two: GPA of at least 3.00 (on a 4.00 scale) in accounting classes (minimum of 15 semester hours) plus a 750 to 1,000 word statement of why the M.S.A. is being sought.

Path Three: 5 years of experience in accounting plus a 750 to 1,000 word statement of why the M.S.A. is being sought.

Bachelor’s degree granted from a regionally accredited U.S. college or university paths

Path Four: GMAT score of at least 475 with at least a 20 percent on each part.

Path Five: GPA of at least 3.00 (on a 4.00 scale) in accounting prerequisite classes (minimum of 15 semester hours) plus a 750 to 1,000 word statement of why the M.S.A. is being sought.

International Students: English language proficiency is required in all courses. International student applicants may be required to demonstrate an acceptable level of spoken English by taking a placement test upon admission to any of the business school’s graduate program. An applicant who meets one of the following conditions prior to admission will be considered to have sufficient reading and writing English language proficiency:

- Completed his or her undergraduate studies at an institution where English was the language of instruction
- Demonstrated a score of at least 83 iBT on the test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).
- Scored at least 6.0 overall with a minimum of 5.5 on each band score on the IELTS
- Achieved level 112 in the ELS program

The TOEFL institution code for Oklahoma City University is 6543. Demonstration of English language proficiency by other approved alternative methods may be considered.

Domestic and International Special Considerations

Those not meeting the above admissions criteria may be considered on an individual basis for conditional admission by the Graduate Studies Committee. Applicants must petition their requests in writing to the Graduate Studies Committee via the Meinders School of Business dean’s office.

Master of Science in Computer Science

Chair: Greve

Faculty: Aboudja, Park, Satyavolu

The Master of Science in computer science degree offers professional development and enhancement of skills, in-depth study of computers, and a balance of abstract knowledge and practical understanding. The program is designed to aid and encourage professional development for persons in computer or computer-related fields. It is designed for students who desire to enhance their computer skills, extend their expertise into computer science as a new field, enhance their credentials, enter the job market as a computing professional, or pursue a Ph.D. in computer science. The curriculum is structured to permit students to strengthen their understanding of the complexities of computers and computer applications.

Undergraduate Prerequisites

All graduate students, depending on their undergraduate background, may be required to complete undergraduate courses as prerequisites, specifically Introduction to Operating Systems, Discrete Mathematics, and Data Structures. Transcripts will be evaluated on an individual basis by the graduate faculty.

Students with Three-Year Undergraduate Degrees in Computer Science

Before a student with a three-year undergraduate degree is admitted to the graduate program, he or she must complete 32 hours of undergraduate course work. These courses may include no more than 9 hours from... any one discipline other than computer science in order to ensure a broad academic background. The student may enroll in a limited number of graduate courses during this time with the permission of his or her advisor.

Students with three-year undergraduate degrees may wish to select undergraduate courses such that he or she also earns an undergraduate degree from Oklahoma City University. He or she must complete the courses necessary to complete the general education requirements, the minimum hours for the degree, and all computer science major requirements. Completion of an undergraduate degree from Oklahoma City University is not necessary to gain admission to the graduate program.

Students with Three-Year Undergraduate Degrees in Fields Other than Computer Science

Prior to beginning graduate course work, 32 hours of undergraduate class work are required. These courses are taken from the following, as needed:

- Credit Hours: 32
  - Math 2004  Calculus and Analytic Geometry I 4
  - CSCI 1514  Algorithm Design and Programming I 4
  - CSCI 1614  Algorithm Design and Programming II 4
  - CSCI 3114  Data Structures 4
  - CSCI 3503  Discrete Mathematics 3
  - CSCI 4313  Operating Systems 3
  - CSCI 3613  Database Design and Management 3
  - Other upper-division computer science courses 7+

C.S.C.I. Admission

Official transcripts of all previous college or university studies are required and should be sent directly to the Graduate Admissions Office. See the section on university admission procedure in this catalog.

Master of Science in Energy Legal Studies

The Master of Science in Energy Legal Studies is designed to provide an advanced base of knowledge of jurisprudence and its application in the energy industry. This program focuses on acquainting students with areas of law specific to energy and provides them with the understanding of legal issues they face in their jobs. This program has been created at the request of executives from the oil and natural gas industry who have identified this as a high priority need for education. The Master of Science in Energy Legal Studies fulfills this need with an accelerated course format that students can complete while continuing to work. Courses are offered one night a week for nine weeks. There are five nine-week cycles per year. Classes are taught on a cohort basis.

M.S. Energy Legal Studies

Admission Requirements

- Bachelor’s Degree with a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or above.
- Minimum of two years of relevant work experience preferred.
- 500- to 750-word personal statement addressing your background in the energy industry, business experience, and purpose for seeking the degree.
- Two letters of recommendation from employers/supervisors.
- Transcripts will be evaluated on an individual basis.
- Professional resume.
- International students must satisfy English proficiency requirement with a 92 or higher iBT TOEFL score.

Master of Science in Energy Management

The Master of Science in Energy Management is designed for professionals who wish to be leaders in the rapidly expanding energy industry. The focus of the degree is on the business side of energy management, providing advanced education across topics integral in the field of energy management such as economics, accounting, legal environment, finance, organizational behavior, operations, communication, and other related subjects. Developed by the Meinders School of Business and executives from energy companies, the curriculum delivers the education and skills required of future energy leaders. Energy company executives are looking to cultivate current employees for leadership positions and employees are searching for an opportunity to advance within the energy industry by developing relevant skills and industry knowledge. The Master of Science in Energy Management fulfills this need with an accelerated course format that employees can complete while continuing to work. Courses are offered one night a week for nine weeks. There are five nine-week cycles per year. Classes are taught on a cohort basis.

M.S. Energy Management students outside the OKC metro-area are able to participate in classes through leading edge video-streaming simulcast technologies that deliver each class to the student’s tablet or laptop browser - where ever they might be located. Students interact with peers and instructors in real-time, creating a rich and engaging learning experience.

Academic Regulations

1. To graduate, each student must meet the following criteria:
   - complete any assigned undergraduate prerequisites satisfactorily
   - complete the course work required for one of the tracks with a minimum 3.00 GPA

2. A student is admitted to degree candidacy when he or she has completed all undergraduate prerequisites. While enrolled in undergraduate prerequisites and not yet admitted to candidacy, a student may enroll in other undergraduate courses and, with permission, graduate courses.

3. All undergraduate or preparatory courses must be completed with a grade of C or better.

4. All graduate courses must be completed with a grade of C (2.00) or better. Students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.00 in all graduate courses. No more than two graduate courses may have a grade of less than B-.

5. Upon entry, the student may transfer no more than two graduate courses totaling no more than 6 semester credit hours from other colleges or universities. Transfer credit may be granted for courses completed at a regionally accredited college or university for graduate credit with a grade of B or better. Such courses must not have been used to fulfill requirements for a degree from the previous institution. Transfer credit will be granted only for courses on a student’s approved course of study and only with the approval of his or her academic advisor.

6. Any graduate courses completed more than five years prior to the awarding of an M.B.A. or and M.S. degree may not be used to satisfy departmental requirements for that degree.

Graduation Requirements

Students must earn at least a 3.00 cumulative GPA to graduate. Any course with a grade below C (2.00) cannot be used as part of the minimum number of semester credit hours.
credit hours required for the degree. No more than two grades below B- (2.75) are acceptable on course work.

Degree Requirements

Students are required to obtain approval of a course of study from a graduate faculty advisor. Each student must complete graduate course work with a minimum graduate GPA of 3.00, and no more than two grades of C or C+ (2.00 or 2.25).

General Policies for Earning a Graduate Degree from the Meinders School of Business

Academic Advising

Upon receiving a letter of admission, a student should contact the student services office at the Meinders School of Business. A student services specialist will assist the student in selecting courses and planning the program for the degree. The telephone listings and office hours for the student services specialists are available in the office of the dean of the Meinders School of Business.

Transfer Policy

The Meinders School of Business may accept transfer credit at entrance only. A maximum of 6 credit hours of graduate-level business courses may be eligible for transfer if completed at a regionally accredited university within the five years prior to the student’s entry date into the Meinders School of Business, provided they have not been credited toward a previous degree. Any course accepted for transfer credit must have been completed with a grade of B or better.

Requests for transfer credit hours will be considered and processed only if a written petition form accompanied by a course description, list of texts used, and official transcript of the final grade assignment are submitted. This information must be submitted to the dean at or prior to initial registration. If approval is granted, credit for the hours will be reflected on the official Oklahoma City University transcript. Grades earned for transferred work do not count toward the graduate degree cumulative GPA.

Candidate for Degree

A student accorded candidate for degree status is expected to complete the MSB graduate degree. While still subject to probation, if warranted, a degree candidate will be allowed to complete all course work (except in cases of gross violation of the university’s rules and regulations), subject to the following conditions:

- Completion of 12 hours of graduate study with a cumulative GPA of 3.00
- Satisfaction of all prerequisites
- No other impediments

Probation Policy

A student may be placed on probation at admission; whenever his or her cumulative GPA falls below 3.00; whenever he or she receives more than two grades below B-; whenever he or she receives a grade below C; or for violation of other academic norms, standards, or behavior as determined by the university or the school. All probationary students will have 9 credit hours to remedy the deficiencies. A cumulative 3.00 GPA is required by the end of 9 credit hours. Failure to receive a grade of C or higher in any class in any enrollment term while on probation and/or failure to achieve a cumulative 3.00 GPA by the end of the 9 credit hours will result in dismissal from the university.

All students placed on probation must make an appointment within the first two weeks of the next course session with their academic advisor. Students failing to meet this criterion may be subject to enrollment cancellation.

Any student receiving probationary status due to more than two grades of C (Note: A grade of C includes C+ and C.), or any grade of C- or below must retake that course within his or her next enrollment term or as soon as it is offered again within the program of study.

Traditional on-campus probationary students may not take more than 9 credit hours in each of the fall and spring semesters and 3 credit hours in each summer session. Accelerated program probationary students may not take more than 3 credit hours per cycle. At the conclusion of the probationary period, the academic dean will review the student’s record for one of three options: removal of probation, continuation of probation, or dismissal from the program.

Dismissal Policy

The student who is on probation must earn a grade of C or higher in any other MSB graduate course completed and maintain a cumulative 3.00 GPA or better by the end of the probationary 9 credit hour period. At the end of this probationary period, the student must be in good academic standing or will be dismissed from the university. A student is in good standing when the cumulative GPA is at or above a 3.000 without having more than two grades below a B- and no grades below a C (2.00).

Following the 9 credit hour probation and a period of good standing, whenever the student has more than two grades below B-, whenever the student receives a grade below C, or for violation of other academic norms, standards, or behavior as determined by the university or the school, the student will have 6 hours to return to good academic standing or will be dismissed from the university. The dismissal decision may be appealed with the Student Probation and Petition Committee.

Academic Appeal Process

A student may appeal decisions affecting his or her academic progress as follows:

1. The student initiates an appeal by filing a written petition with the school’s academic dean.
2. The academic dean reviews the petition and determines if a meeting with the student petitioner is necessary.
3. The student petitioner will be informed in writing of the decision on the merits of his or her petition.
4. If the student does not agree with the decision, he or she may continue the appeal process with the assistant provost.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend classes and arrive no later than the designated starting time for all classes. Absenteeism and tardiness may lead to a grade reduction, at the professor’s discretion.

Academic Load

Students may not take more than 12 credit hours during fall and spring semesters and 6 credit hours during summer terms. Accelerated program students may not take more than 6 credit hours per cycle. Students on probation may not take more than 9 credit hours in the fall or spring semesters and 3 credit hours in each summer term. Any exceptions to this policy must be approved by the dean of the Meinders School of Business.

Eligibility for Graduation

A student is eligible for graduation when the following conditions are satisfied:

1. All required graduate course work has been completed with a minimum graduate GPA of 3.00
2. The student has no grade below C (2.00)
3. The student does not have more than two grades lower than B-
4. The student is not on academic probation
5. There are no other impediments
6. M.B.A. students must take and pass the M.B.A. Multi-Field Assessment Test (MFAT) by achieving a total score greater than or equal to 75 percent of the maximum of 300 points. This equates to a minimum threshold score of 225 points. A student who fails to pass or take the MFAT at the required time must do the following:
   - Take or retake the test at his or her own expense. There is no limit to the number of retakes allowed, and only the highest score will be recorded.
   - Engage with faculty members for review and preparation to retake the MFAT.

School of Law

The School of Law is located at 800 N. Harvey Avenue, in downtown Oklahoma City. An Oklahoma City University School of Law education is built upon a curriculum based on the values of the liberal arts tradition, blending theory with practical experience to prepare graduates for a wide variety of careers.

The School of Law prepares students to become responsible professionals through a rigorous program of instruction that focuses on students’ intellectual and professional development and enables them to become leaders in law, business, government, and civic life. The School of Law also contributes to the improvement of law and legal institutions through research and scholarship. Our curriculum focuses on national issues, and our graduates practice in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign countries.

The School of Law is fully approved by the American Bar Association and is a member of the Association of American Law Schools. The academic year consists of two semesters and an optional summer term. A minimum of 90 credit hours is required for completion of the J.D. degree. The school offers both full-time and part-time options. Successful completion of the course of study leads to the degree of Juris Doctor. The school also offers an LL.M. degree in American Law for graduates of law schools outside the United States.

Admissions

Admission to the School of Law is a competitive and selective process. To be considered for admission, an applicant must take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) prepared and administered by the Law School Admission Council, hold an undergraduate degree or be scheduled to complete one prior to matriculation at the School of Law, and have the potential for academic success and leadership. The LSAT is not required for applicants to the L.L.M. program in American Law.

A student in good standing at another law school approved by the American Bar Association, or a graduate of an accredited law school outside the United States, may be admitted to the J.D. program with advanced standing by approval of the faculty’s Admissions Committee at its discretion.

School of Law Catalog

The catalog for the School of Law is published separately. Interested persons should visit the website at law.okcu.edu or email, write, or call the Admissions Office: Oklahoma City University School of Law Admissions Office, 800 N. Harvey, Oklahoma City, OK 73102, lawadmit@okcu.edu, (405) 208-5354 or (800) 230-3012. Wanda L. Bass School of Music

The Wanda L. Bass School of Music offers programs of private study, courses, and research leading to the Master of Music (M.M.). Concentrations are offered in music composition, instrumental and vocal performance, opera performance, conducting, vocal coaching, and music theater. The administration of these programs is under the supervision of the dean, the coordinator of graduate studies, and the graduate commission of the school.

Mission

The School of Music provides a professional education within the liberal arts curriculum and develops musicians equipped to make significant artistic contributions to society. Critical thinking, open inquiry, and artistic expression are fostered through the study of traditional intellectual disciplines and applied skills.

Core Beliefs & Values

Student Success and Excellence

We believe in an education that is student-driven. We believe that priorities and resource allocation should reflect what is best for the student. We believe that effective student learning includes ongoing feedback and the demonstration of learned skills. Our success is demonstrated by the professional achievements of our students and alumni.

Faculty Excellence

We believe that our discipline requires lifelong learning and that this concept must be - and is - demonstrated to students through public performances, scholarship and professional development. While our faculty is performance-oriented, we believe all faculty must be teachers first and foremost. We believe faculty should be caring and involved in the educational and professional development of their students.

Service to the Community

We believe in service to a global community. We believe that serving the community through music helps students become sensitive to and have respect for changing and diverse communities. We strive to educate students in their responsibility of service to the community now and in the future.

Commitment to the Future of Music

We believe that the process of music making is organic. We prepare versatile students who can succeed in an ever-changing marketplace.

Admission Requirements

For regular admission, the applicant must have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.00 and hold an appropriate Bachelor of Music from an NASM-accredited institution with undergraduate preparation related to the graduate music curriculum. Adequacy of this preparation will be determined through transcript evaluation and advisory examinations in music theory, history, aural skills, keyboard (conducting and composition), foreign language diction (for singers), and in the proposed field of performance. Exams are given at the beginning of each semester. In addition, composition students must submit a composition portfolio and schedule an interview with the faculty of the composition area.

Procedure for Admission

An application for admission to the M.M. program may be secured from the Office of Graduate Admissions. The completed form, together with an official transcript of college credits and two letters of recommendation, should be returned to the Office of Graduate Admissions prior to the scheduled audition. Graduate credits from other institutions will be accepted only by special permission (normally not exceeding 8 hours). The prospective graduate student should plan to audition at one of the regularly scheduled audition times or submit an audio recording or videotape at least 90 days prior to the initial semester of enrollment. All students must complete a successful audition and satisfy all university admission criteria before they will be admitted to the school.

Admission means only that the student will be permitted to enroll for courses in the graduate program. It does not imply acceptance to candidacy. Admission is in concert with the university's graduate program admission policy.

Advisory Examination and Audition

The advisory examination and leveling audition are scheduled at the beginning of each semester during the regular academic year. Students are urged to review music history, literature, theory, dictation, and keyboard skills before taking this examination. Diction examinations are required for students in vocal performance, opera performance, music theater, choral conducting and vocal coaching.

Students receiving less-than-satisfactory evaluation in any part of the advisory examination are required to enroll in a review course in the deficient area at the first course offering. Since these review courses are not part of the degree curriculum, they do not carry a graduate number and their tuition and fees are not covered by scholarship aid. Each student is required to give a 10-minute prepared performance as part of the advisory exam the first semester at Oklahoma City University. At this time an entrance performance level is determined. The coordinator of graduate studies can provide detailed information.

Seniors and Graduate Courses

Senior students who are graduating at the end of a semester or summer session may take courses for graduate credit under the following conditions: The credits must not be required or needed for the bachelor’s degree; the total registration must not exceed 16 hours for a semester or 6 hours for a summer session; the student must complete the requirements for the bachelor’s degree either at the end of the semester or session or be within 12 semester credit hours of completing the requirements for the bachelor’s degree at the beginning of the semester or summer session in which graduate credit is requested; admission to courses taken for graduate credit must have the approval of the dean of the Bass School of Music; and not more than 9 semester hours taken while a senior may be approved for graduate credit.

Acceptance to Candidacy

A student will be admitted to degree candidacy when he or she has met the following criteria:

1. Removed deficiencies.
2. Successfully completed 12 hours with an average of B (3.00) or above toward the degree and not less than 3 hours in the major subject. One semester of major applied study must be included.
3. Given satisfactory evidence of ability to complete all degree requirements.
4. Filed the application for candidacy form with the coordinator of graduate studies and received approval. This application should be filed following completion of 12 hours of graduate study and no later than November 1 for May graduation or April 1 for December graduation.
5. Reached performance level of G7 (see Applied Music Attainment Level section). Conducting majors must have reached G5 in their major instrument.

Graduate Committee

Following acceptance to candidacy, students work under the guidance of their graduate committee. The committee includes three faculty members assigned by the coordinator of graduate studies.

Comprehensive Review

The comprehensive review is administered by the student’s committee prior to the required recital and takes the form of a preview recital and oral examination on the recital paper or written exam. The comprehensive review for the composition major includes submission of recordings of recital rehearsals as well as an oral examination of the thesis composition. This examination takes place at least 15 days prior to the scheduled recital. Any proposed change to the recital program after the comprehensive review must have committee approval.

Recital/Recital Paper

Students with a performance concentration (instrumental, vocal, opera, music theater) present a full recital (48-53 minutes of performing time) and complete a graduate comprehensive project. Students with a conducting concentration present a 30-minute conducting recital and complete a comprehensive graduate project. Students with a composition concentration present a full recital (50 minutes) of their works and submit a thesis composition as the graduate comprehensive project. Note that it is not a requirement that the thesis composition be performed in the recital. However, a separate reading or performance of the thesis is encouraged.

Regardless of the number of applied hours earned toward the degree, a student must be studying for a minimum of one credit hour during the semester or summer term in which the graduate recital is presented.

The recital paper should deal with some aspect of the recital. It should demonstrate the student’s ability to carry out individual research. The student must submit, in consultation with the paper advisor, one or more proposed topics to his or her graduate committee following admission to candidacy. The acceptability of the recital and the paper will be determined by the student’s graduate committee.
Applied Music

G5  Level needed on applied major to submit application for candidacy
G6  Applied major level needed for graduation

Master of Music in Composition
G2  Piano level for graduation

Academic Regulations

The degree of Master of Music is conferred upon fulfillment of the following requirements:

1. All work following candidacy must be taken at Oklahoma City University.
2. Students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.00 in order to remain in good standing. A student must be in good standing to graduate.
3. No grades below C (2.00) are acceptable toward degree requirements. A maximum of 3 credits below B- are acceptable toward degree requirements. Students may not graduate with a grade of D or F on the transcript.
4. A course may be repeated only once. Students may have only two course repeats in graduate degree requirements. If, after repeating a course, a student fails to receive at least a C (2.00), the student will be automatically dismissed.
5. Graduate music students whose cumulative GPA drops below 3.00 at the end of the semester will receive written notification from the registrar that they have been placed on academic probation for the next semester. Should the student fail to raise the cumulative GPA above 3.00 during the next semester, he or she will be dismissed from the university.
6. All courses and requirements must be completed within six years of the initial enrollment in the master’s program.

7. The student must comply with the established thesis or project submission policy and the master’s thesis and capstone project enrollment and grading policy. These policies are stated in the Academic Regulations section of this graduate catalog.
8. All new entering graduate students in performance, music theater, opera performance, and conducting are required to perform an audition for level in their instrument or voice. This audition is separate from the audition or submission of portfolio for admission to the university. Students should have a 10-minute recital prepared, along with typewritten copies of repertoire for each member of the jury. Composition and conducting students will also be leveled in piano. A new level will be determined at each subsequent jury.
9. All remedial course work as determined by the advisory examination must be completed with the grade of B- or better in order to remove the deficiency.
10. All voice students are required to audition for all opera and music theater productions and perform in them if cast. Performing in productions is by audition and therefore performance is not guaranteed to any student.
11. Music students must receive permission from their applied music teachers and the dean prior to accepting musical engagements outside of the university. Permission to Perform Off-Campus forms are available on StarNet.
12. In addition to the policies and procedures outlined in this catalog, Bass School of Music students are expected to be familiar with and adhere to the policies and procedures in the graduate Music Students Handbook found at http://starnet.okcu.edu/Academics/Music/SS/default.aspx.

Electives

Electives must fall within approved guidelines and must carry a graduate course number. No elective course may be used to correct a deficiency (i.e., a remedial course) and at the same time be used for elective credit toward the degree.

Enrollment Restriction

Enrollment in excess of the normal 9 hours per semester is not encouraged. Enrollment in excess of 12 hours will be sanctioned only by action of the graduate commission.

Kramer School of Nursing

Master of Science in Nursing

The Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.) extends and expands the fulfillment of the missions of the university and Kramer School of Nursing (KSN) already begun by the undergraduate nursing programs by preparing nurses to become effective leaders in service to their communities. Three functional tracks are available for the M.S.N.:

- Nursing education: Designed to prepare the nurse to teach in postsecondary nursing programs, including schools of practical nursing, associate degree programs, and baccalaureate and higher degree programs; and to provide comprehensive patient and/or staff education within the healthcare system.
- Nursing leadership: Designed to prepare the nurse to serve in middle- and upper-management roles, including executive leadership, within healthcare organizations. Part-time or full-time study is available.
- Clinical Nurse Leader: Designed to prepare the nurse as a practice expert, with a high level of clinical competence and knowledge. At the point-of-care, the CNL oversees care coordination and integration of care for distinct populations of clients.

The M.S.N. tracks provide a core of knowledge essential for advanced nursing related to nursing theory, research, and role preparation. Courses in the functional specialties complete the degree and prepare the graduate nurse for advanced practice as a nursing leader or educator.

All nursing courses are taught by doctorally prepared nurses or nursing leaders with post-master’s education who are advanced specialists in their fields. The program also makes use of practicing professionals from within key areas as adjunct professors who possess doctoral degrees or other special qualifications. In this way, the program achieves the highest level of instruction and mentoring possible to assure an educational experience for students that leaves no doubt of their readiness to assume the role of nurse educator or leader.

Admission Requirements and Prerequisites

In order to be admitted to the M.S.N. program, the applicant must meet the following qualifications:

- Admission to the university
- B.S.N. from a nationally accredited nursing program
- Undergraduate cumulative GPA of 3.00 or better or prior completion of a master’s degree in another field
- Completion of a course in health assessment
- Completion of a course in statistics before NURS 6323
- An iBT TOEFL score of 80 or higher with a score of at least 20 on each section if proof of English proficiency is required
- Registered Nurse licensure or the international equivalent
- CNL track applicants must successfully pass a graduate level advanced pathophysiology course (grade of B- or better) prior to full acceptance into the CNL track.

MSN Post-Master’s Certificate Programs

- Successful completion of a prior Master’s degree in Nursing from a nationally accredited nursing program
- Graduate cumulative GPA of 3.00 or better
- Registered Nurse licensure

Oklahoma Board of Nursing standards for English proficiency is required with the following scores for students educated in a nursing program in a country outside the United States and U.S. territories and who do not have a United States nursing license:

Eligibility Statement

Due to the strenuous nature of nursing and practice orientation of Oklahoma City University’s Kramer School of Nursing program, the school reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to enroll or continue in the nursing program. This decision is based on considerations including, but not limited to, characteristics required of a professional nurse. Eligibility is determined by the faculty’s evaluation of a student’s ability to perform the skills necessary to complete the course objectives, and includes attitudinal and behavioral components. These elements are re-evaluated each semester.

Although not required for admission, the following requirements must be met as specified once the M.S.N. student is admitted to the program: health requirements specified by each agency where clinical and practical experiences will occur, including immunizations, background check, drug screening, and health tests.
Academic Probation

Kramer School of Nursing graduate students are subject to the Oklahoma City University graduate probation policy.

Master’s Capstone Project

All M.S.N. students in the Education and Leadership tracks are required to complete a project related to the role function track. Students in the CNL track do not complete a Capstone Project but are prepared to take the CNL certification exam. Complete guidelines and requirements are specified in the Kramer School of Nursing Student Handbook.

Academic Regulations

M.S.N. students must maintain a 3.00 cumulative GPA to progress without going on KSN probation. M.S.N. students must earn at least a B- (2.75) in courses with a NURS prefix; grades of C+ (2.25) or below are considered failing. This includes independent study nursing courses taken to meet a graduation requirement. In any other required course, the student must have a C (2.00) or higher. The student may have a grade of C (2.00) or C+ (2.25) in only two non-NURS courses required for the degree. Students may repeat only one nursing course. If the student earns a grade of C+ (2.25) or below on the repeated required course or on the first attempt of any other required nursing course, the student will be dismissed from the nursing program. It is strongly recommended that students repeat any failed course at the next available offering. Withdrawal from a nursing course after two-thirds of the semester or session has transpired will be counted as one enrollment toward the course failure requirements described above. Nonattendance of classes does not constitute official withdrawal.
Doctor of Nursing Practice (D.N.P.)

The D.N.P. program facilitates achievement of the university mission by creating expert clinicians with the abilities to affect healthcare of clients positively, provide leadership in health policy, and translate research into evidence-based practice. Students are provided the opportunity to expand and refine clinical skills by designing advanced practicum experiences that meet their goals.

Admission Requirements and Prerequisites

The Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is not required for admission to a D.N.P. program. Applicants must demonstrate competency in word processing, basic spreadsheet use, presentation software, and internet skills.

B.S.N.-to-D.N.P. Admission Criteria for the Family Nurse Practitioner Track (4-Year Program)

- Admission to the university
- Graduate of an accredited baccalaureate nursing program with a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00
- Current active licensure as a Registered Nurse in the United States (or the international equivalent)
- Three letters from professional references, such as an employer, a coworker, or a nursing school faculty member who had the applicant as a student
- An iBT TOEFL score of 83 or higher with a score of at least 26 on each section if proof of English proficiency is required
- B.S.N.-level health assessment course
- B.S.N.-level statistics course
- A personally written essay of 750 words or less describing the role of the nurse practitioner and how the D.N.P. degree will help the applicant achieve life and career goals
- A current curriculum vitae
- Interview with Admission committee

B.S.N.-to-D.N.P. Admission Criteria for the Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner Track (4-Year Program)

- Admission to the university
- Graduate of an accredited baccalaureate nursing program with a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00
- Current active licensure as a Registered Nurse in the United States (or the international equivalent)
- ACLS certified, prior to acceptance in program
- Two years of Adult Acute Care work experience; preferably in an Intensive Care or Emergency Department setting.
- Three letters from professional references, such as an employer, a coworker, or a nursing school faculty member who had the applicant as a student
- An iBT TOEFL score of 83 or higher with a score of at least 26 on each section if proof of English proficiency is required
- B.S.N.-level health assessment course
- B.S.N.-level statistics course
- A personally written essay of 750 words or less describing the role of the nurse practitioner and how the D.N.P. degree will help the applicant achieve life and career goals
- A current curriculum vitae
- Interview with Admission committee

D.N.P.-Completion Program Admission Criteria for Post-Master’s Students

In addition to the 30 course credits, each student must complete 1,000 hours of post BSN supervised practicum. Accumulated practicum hours from MSN programs are accepted towards the 1,000 DNP practice hours. Opportunities to earn clinical hours are integrated in the post MSN DNP curriculum. Additional credits may be required if you have less than 500 practicum hours in your former MSN program.

Clinical Track

- Admission to the university
- Current active Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) license or approved national certification (international students will be considered on a case-by-case basis relevant to their country’s equivalent)
- A master’s degree in nursing (or related field for the administration track)
- Graduate GPA of 3.250 or higher
- An iBT TOEFL score of 80 or higher with a score of at least 20 on each section if proof of English proficiency is required
- A personally written essay of 750 words or less describing how the D.N.P. will help the applicant achieve life and career goals
- A current curriculum vitae
- Verification of the number of supervised clinical hours from the director of the MSN program
- Interview with Admission committee
Leadership Track

Credit Hours: 30

- Admission to the university
- A master’s degree with a major in nursing in a nursing administration/management program accredited by CCNE or NLNAC, or a master’s degree in a related field tied to an administrative or leadership focus
- ANCC (NEA-BC) certification or eligibility for certification
- Verification of the number of supervised leadership practicum hours from the director of the MSN program
- Graduate GPA of 3.250 or higher
- A personally written essay of 750 words or less describing how the D.N.P. will help the applicant achieve life and career goals
- A current curriculum vitae
- Interview with Admission Committee

Advanced Practice Certificate Admission Criteria for Post-Master’s Students

Family Nurse Practitioner Certificate

Credit Hours: 20

- Admission to the university
- Current active licensure with Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) in Oklahoma as an Adult APRN, Pediatric APRN, Family APRN, or other Advanced Practice role with current national certification; evaluation on a case-by-case basis
- A master’s degree in nursing with graduate level coursework in Advanced Pathophysiology, Pharmacology and Advanced Assessment from a ACNE or CCNE accredited nursing program
- Graduate GPA of 3.250 or higher
- A personally written essay of 750 words or less describing how the post-master’s AGACNP certificate will help the applicant achieve life and career goals
- A current curriculum vitae

Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner Certificate

Credit Hours: 22

- Admission to the university
- Current active licensure with Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) in Oklahoma as an Adult APRN, Pediatric APRN, Family APRN, or other Advanced Practice role with current national; evaluation on a case-by-case basis
- A master’s degree in nursing with graduate level coursework in Advanced Pathophysiology, Pharmacology and Advanced Assessment from a ACNE or CCNE accredited nursing program
- Graduate GPA of 3.250 or higher
- A personally written essay of 750 words or less describing how the post-master’s AGACNP certificate will help the applicant achieve life and career goals
- A current curriculum vitae

Eligibility Statement

Due to the strenuous nature of nursing and practice orientation of Oklahoma City University’s Kramer School of Nursing programs, the school reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to enroll or continue in the nursing program. This decision is based on considerations including, but not limited to, characteristics required of a professional nurse. Eligibility is determined by the faculty’s evaluation of a student’s ability to complete the course objectives, and includes attitudinal and behavioral components. These elements are re-evaluated each semester.

Although not required for admission, the following requirements must be met as specified once the D.N.P. student has been admitted to the program: health requirements specified by each agency where practicum experiences will occur, which may include immunizations, background check, drug screening, and health tests.

Academic Probation

Kramer School of Nursing doctoral students are subject to the Oklahoma City University graduate probation policy.

Residency Requirements for D.N.P.-Completion Students

The D.N.P.-completion program is designed for individuals who work full-time and who may or may not be geographically located within driving distance of Oklahoma City University. Therefore, the residency requirement will be met by maintaining year-round (including summers) continuous enrollment (unless on an approved leave of absence) and by coming to campus for all the following:

- On-campus class meetings held once a semester
- Oral defense of capstone project
- Other visits to campus required by faculty that are approved by the program chair

D.N.P. Project

D.N.P. students are to complete a clinical project based on translational research and evidence-based practice. Complete guidelines and requirements are found in the Kramer School of Nursing Student Handbook.

Academic Regulations

D.N.P. students must maintain a 3.00 cumulative GPA to progress without going on KSN probation. D.N.P. students must earn at least a B- (2.75) in all required courses; grades of C+ (2.25) or below are considered failing. This includes independent study nursing courses taken to meet a graduation requirement. Students may repeat only one nursing course. If the student earns a grade of C+ (2.25) or below on the repeated required course or on the first attempt of any other required course, the student will be dismissed from the nursing program. It is strongly recommended that students repeat any failed course at the next available offering. Withdrawal from a nursing course after two-thirds of the semester or session has transpired will be counted as one enrollment toward the course failure requirements described above. Nonattendance of classes does not constitute an official withdrawal.

D.N.P. practicum hours are calculated on a ratio of 60 clock hours per credit hour. The D.N.P. must be completed in five years.
Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

The Ph.D. facilitates achievement of the university mission by preparing expert nurses in the roles of education and research to serve the community, state, and nation in the formation of future nurses and in the advancement of nursing knowledge. While the primary focus of the Ph.D. at Kramer School of Nursing is nursing education, students may opt for a different specialty cognate.

The Ph.D. is 90 credits post-baccalaureate. Students may enter post-B.S.N. or post-master’s. Up to 33 credits from a master’s degree may be applied to the 90 credit total, subject to approval. The Ph.D. program is designed for the working professional. A student taking the recommended six credit hours per semester, including summers, will typically complete the program in 10-12 semesters post-master’s. Students must complete the Ph.D. within 10 years.

All courses in the doctoral programs are taught by doctorally prepared nurses or terminally degreed professionals in their respective fields. The highest standards in doctoral education are maintained.

Admission Requirements and Prerequisites

In order to be admitted to the Ph.D. program, the graduate must meet the following requirements:

- Admission to the university
- Registered Nurse licensure or the international equivalent
- For the B.S.N.-to-Ph.D., a B.S.N. degree from a nationally accredited (“recognized”) nursing program. For the post-master’s Ph.D., a bachelor’s degree and a master’s degree, one of which must be in nursing. Applicants who hold a bachelor’s degree in nursing may have a master’s degree in a field related to nursing.
- Graduate GPA at or above 3.50 on a 4.00 scale if post-master’s. For B.S.N.-to-Ph.D., a cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.50 or better or completion of a master’s degree in another field.
- One of the following three options: 1) the Graduate Record of Examination (GRE); 2) an approved scholarly paper; or 3) an approved article/paper published in a refereed journal. The GRE score or quality of the paper option selected will be taken into consideration.
- An iBT TOEFL score of 80 or higher with a score of at least 20 on each section if proof of English proficiency is required
- A personally written essay describing how the Ph.D. will help the applicant achieve life and career goals
- A current curriculum vitae

- Oklahoma Board of Nursing standards for English proficiency is required with the following scores for students educated in a nursing program in a country outside the United States and U.S. territories and who do not have a United States nursing license:
  - TOEIC  Reading 725, Speaking & Writing 140
  - IELTS  Academic 6.5, Spoken Band 7.0
  - TOEFL-ibt  Speaking 26, Total 83
- Conditional admission may be extended to international applicants contingent upon meeting the language requirement prior to enrollment in nursing courses.

* Elective Courses

B.S.N.-to-Ph.D. students must also complete master’s level courses leading to the M.S.N. in Nursing Education.

Residency Requirements

The post-master’s Ph.D. program is designed for individuals who work full-time and who may or may not be geographically located within driving distance of Oklahoma City University. The B.S.N.-to-Ph.D. and post-master’s Ph.D. residency requirement will be met by maintaining year-round (including summers) continuous enrollment (unless on an approved leave of absence) and by coming to campus for all the following:

- On-campus class meetings
- Oral defense of candidacy exam
- Oral defense of dissertation proposal
- Oral defense of dissertation
- Other visits to campus required by faculty that are approved by the program chair

Candidacy

The purpose of the Candidacy Exam is to demonstrate the student’s ability to synthesize information learned in the doctoral courses taken to that point and readiness for the dissertation. Ph.D. students are to take their candidacy exams after completing all course work, but before taking NURS 9903 Dissertation Seminar and subsequent NURS 9900 level dissertation hours. Complete guidelines and requirements are found in the Kramer School of Nursing Student Handbook.

Dissertation

All students in the Ph.D. program are required to complete a dissertation. Complete guidelines and requirements are found in the Kramer School of Nursing Student Handbook.

Academic Regulations

Ph.D. students must maintain a 3.00 cumulative GPA to progress without going on KSN probation. Dr. Daniel McNeill, Director
Master of Physician Assistant Studies

Oklahoma City University (OCU) has embarked on a major initiative to impact the delivery of health care in Oklahoma through development of a new Physician Assistant (PA) Program. PAs have repeatedly demonstrated their value as competent, flexible and economically prudent medical practitioners in today's society. With Oklahoma ranking near the bottom of states in access to primary care and in metrics of health status, a more robust PA workforce is a vital need for our citizens.

The PA Program received accreditation-provisional in September, 2015 and matriculated its first cohort of students January 4, 2016. OCU enlisted the assistance of many PAs, physicians and community leaders to develop a Program that will produce graduates with a mission to improve the lives of citizens in the communities they serve through a thorough understanding of disease mechanisms, application of critical thought, community service, servant leadership and life-long learning.

The OCU curriculum provides twelve months of classroom training presented in a systems-based format. By using this approach, students are able to focus their intellectual energies on cardiology, then pulmonology and so on until all the body's systems have been covered. In addition to the basic and medical sciences, the Program has a specific interest in developing student passion in the medical humanities.

The classroom phase is followed immediately by sixteen months of supervised clinical practice experiences in various medical settings and specialties. At least one of the experiences will involve rotating in a charitable clinic providing medical care to our neighbors in need. A unique aspect of the OCU program involves providing a parallel online course of study in business aspects of medicine. This added component provides the OCU PA student a greater understanding of medical practice management which is critical to contributing to a successful practice.

The final month of the PA Program is a time for students to demonstrate competence in the art and science of medicine and readiness to enter the PA profession.

Mission Statement

To prepare physician assistants who are competent in the art and science of medicine so that they may improve lives in the communities they serve.

Goals

1. To graduate PAs possessing a thorough understanding of disease mechanisms.
   The program provides a comprehensive curriculum of basic and clinical sciences delivered in a systems-based format. During the initial didactic phase, the transition from acquiring medical knowledge to putting it into practice is facilitated by frequent use of simulated patients and an early introduction to patients. Confirmation of knowledge is assessed through objective testing, performance on procedural skills, evaluations from early patient interactions and a summative examination process.

2. To graduate PAs proficient in the application of critical thought to medical decision making.
   More than simply memorizing facts, the art of medicine requires the practitioner to apply logic and reasoning to achieve healing. These principles are taught and practiced in the didactic curriculum in small group discussions, through interactions with simulated patients and through a commitment to the teachings of humanism in medicine. Confirmation that critical thought is developing appropriately is assessed by evaluations on objective written examinations, objective structured clinical examinations and by observations of preceptors in the clinical year.

3. To graduate PAs with an exemplary sense of community service through a team-based model of health care delivery.
   Graduate PAs are in a unique position to have a tremendous impact on the communities in which they live and work. Paramount is their ability to provide compassionate care to marginalized citizens with the breadth of care multiplied through a team-based approach. During their tenure with the PA program, students will participate in such collaborative environments in charitable clinics throughout Oklahoma City. Confirmation that students attain this goal will be accomplished through analysis of survey data from frequent experiences serving the health care needs of the uninsured and working poor alongside physician and PA role models.

4. To graduate PAs who are servant leaders in patient-centered practices.
   Servant leadership is an ancient philosophy based on putting the needs of others first and helping people develop and perform to the best of their abilities. This philosophy is consistent with patient-centered care, which strives to improve outcomes by strengthening the provider-patient relationship, by providing care in consultation with patients and by replacing the provider-centered system with one from the patient’s viewpoint. Students will become familiar with this type of practice in the didactic phase and will gain hands-on experience working directly with PA program faculty who function as servant leaders in charitable clinics in the metro area. Indeed, servant leadership is a strategic initiative of the University and one embodied by the PA Program. Confirmation that students attain this goal will be accomplished through analysis of survey data from frequent experiences in patient-centered care practices.

5 To graduate PAs committed to life-long learning.

Our understanding of medical science increases each day. To keep up, practitioners must commit themselves to constant study throughout their careers. The discipline to maintain this effort begins with matriculation into the program. Students will learn the value of, and how to practice evidence-based medicine. Being at ease with how to access and interpret the literature will provide the foundation for this way of life for the benefit of the graduate’s future patients. Confirmation that students strive for this goal will be assessed by evaluation their ability to access and discuss the medical literature during the didactic and clinical phases of the program.

Admissions Information

Note that the OCU Physician Assistant Program does not require the GRE or other standardized tests. The Program also does not require clinical experience prior to the application process.

The Program does not accept advanced standing/placement. Students enrolled in the Program will be required to complete all courses.

The PA Program follows the OCU Graduate Admissions Policy. Please refer to their website for more information: www.okcu.edu/admissions/graduate. In addition to the Graduate Admissions Policy, the PA Program considers the following criteria in the selection of students for the PA Program. The Admissions Committee will evaluate the applicant’s academic record (overall GPA, science GPA, last 60 hours GPA, level of difficulty) as well as individual qualities that include interpersonal skills, maturity, life experiences, knowledge of the profession, community service and leadership skills.

Admission Requirements & Prerequisites

- A baccalaureate degree from an institution accredited by the Commission on Colleges of Regional Accrediting Organization is required. Applicants must earn a bachelor’s degree prior to matriculation.

- A minimum undergraduate or graduate degree GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale is required.

- A minimum of five biological science courses of three semester credits is required. The PA Program recommends courses in anatomy, physiology, cell biology, molecular biology, embryology, immunology, and microbiology. Courses with labs are preferred, but not required. While any one biological science course is not specifically required, completing several upper-level science courses provides a good foundation for the study of medicine and high achievement in the sciences contributes to success in PA education. Note the following courses or areas of study will not count towards the biological science prerequisite: kinesiology, nutrition, exercise science, and nursing.

- At least three chemistry courses are required; one of the three must be biochemistry.

- Two courses in Psychology are required.

- All prerequisite courses must be completed at a regionally accredited college or university in the United States. For candidates holding foreign degrees, a total of 60 semester credits (approximately two years) at a regionally accredited U.S. college or university must be completed as well, prerequisite credit included. No exceptions.

- All prerequisites must be completed by August 15th. If you receive an interview, verification of completion of the prerequisites must be shown at the time of the interview in the form of an official transcript containing the course work.

Applying for Admission

Admissions decisions are based on evidence of academic preparation, a letter of recommendation, your curriculum vitae and if selected for final consideration, an on-campus interview and brief writing task.

All applicants to the OCU Physician Assistant program must apply through the online application system CASPA (Central Application Service for Physician Assistants). In addition, applicants must submit an online OCU Supplemental Application to the OCU Office of Graduate Admissions.

Applications for each annual admission cycle will be available through CASPA beginning April (check CASPA or the OCU PA Program website for exact dates). To be considered for OCU admission, an applicant must submit their application and all supporting materials including transcripts, letter of recommendation, and resume to CASPA on or before the August 1 deadline. There are no exceptions to the posted deadline.

Also, the deadline to provide the OCU Supplemental Application to the OCU Office of Graduate Admissions is August 1.

Interview Selection Factors, Preferences and Process

The PA program will give preference* in selecting qualified applicants for interview based on the following:

- Minimum GPA of 3.2
- Completion of the requirements for application
- Students attending Oklahoma City University who meet the above criteria and who are enrolled in, or finishing a degree program during the application cycle.

* Preference for an interview does not mean preference for selection into the program.

Approximately 100 of the most qualified applicants will be invited for a personal interview conducted at Oklahoma City University. Maintaining a high standard of academic excellence, knowledge of the health care system, personal maturity, self-assurance, good interpersonal skills, volunteering in the community, shadowing a PA, and work experience will weigh strongly in the admission decision.

The PA program has a list of essential applicant qualities on their website: www.okcu.edu/physician-assistant/interview/index. Please refer to this page for more specific information.

Technical Standards for Physician Assistant Program Admissions

A candidate for the MPAS degree as a Physician Assistant shall have abilities and skills in the areas of observation, communication, motor function, conceptual and analytical thinking, and normative behavioral and social attributes. Technological accommodations can be made for some disabilities in certain of these areas, but the role of the Physician Assistant in the delivery of health care necessitates that he/she shall be able to perform in an independent manner. Please see the department website for more specific information on each of these areas: www.okcu.edu/physician-assistant/standards/index.

Grading Policies

The program will require students to perform at or above C in individual courses. Students must also achieve a C or above in each concentration averaged over the didactic phase and a C or above in Clinical Anatomy and Clinical Medicine courses when average over each semester.

If a student fails to achieve this minimum for a course or semester-long concentration, they will be required to spend one month on the subject at the conclusion of the didactic phase, either through independent study or through clinical experiences.

Demonstration that the requisite knowledge has been obtained via follow-up testing qualifies the student for advancement.

Failure of the remediation month or two courses and/or concentration areas will result in the student restarting the program. A student may be given only one opportunity to restart the program. Failure of a course and/or concentration after restarting the program will result in dismissal.

Petree College of Arts and Sciences

Applied Behavioral Studies (ABS)

5091-6 Independent Study

5213 Issues in Mental and Physical Health 3
This course will explore issues regarding the relationship between physical and emotional health—primarily from mental health, coping, and counseling perspectives. The roles of adjustment, lifestyle, and social factors on stress and wellness are discussed.

5313 Sexual Issues in Counseling 3
This course will focus on psychosexual development throughout the life span, interviewing and counseling techniques, and ethical sexual therapy for sexual dysfunctions, addictions, paraphilias, and challenges related to aging and illness. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

5314 Assessment I 4
Survey tests and measurements for adults and children. Extra fees may be required. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

5363-4 Topics 3–4

5413 Crisis Intervention 3
Special intervention strategies relevant to counseling will be discussed which may include posttraumatic stress, sexual assault, partner violence, grief and bereavement, and workplace violence.

5503 Addiction 3
An overview of the addiction process, what constitutes an addiction, and the treatment methods available through counseling and other means.

5513 Death and Dying 3
As the last stage in life span development, Death and Dying is an important course to take and an important concept to adjust to. We'll explore a variety of issues such as coping with chronic illness, death awareness, stages of dying, hospice, suicide, euthanasia, funeral customs, children's experience, and traumatic death—and their impacts on each individual. Where possible, we will arrange relevant field trips.

5564 Marriage and Family Therapy 4
An overview of the major marriage and/or family counseling theories for use in a variety of settings. Prerequisite: ABS 5713 and permission.

5613 Gerontology 3
Understanding of developmental experiences and their impacts on adjustment. Mental health issues and community resources will be a primary focus. Intervention strategies from a counseling perspective will be discussed.

5703 Behavior Pathology 3
This course further investigates abnormal human behavior and dysfunction as it relates to the DSM disorders. Schizophrenia, neurosis, psychosis, multiple personality, and depression are among the topical issues studied. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

5713 Counseling Theories 3
Traditional theories and techniques of counseling will be covered as well as the personality theory underlying them. This course will address how to move from theory to practice. Development of basic counseling skills and awareness of self will be covered. Extra fees may be required. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

5813 Career Development 3
This course will focus primarily on life style and career choice, the decision making process, career counseling, and vocational choice. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

6314 Assessment II 4

6513 Sociocultural Foundations 3
This course will explore multi-cultural counseling, socio-cultural theories, research, and practice in society. Other areas covered will be the inherent diversity of individuals including gender, race, culture, religion, communication and work styles, beliefs, values, and socioeconomic status, as well as the impact of society and culture on behavior. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

6714 Advanced Counseling Techniques 4
A more detailed investigation of theories and techniques of counseling. This course will focus on the more structured and systematic techniques for psychotherapeutic intervention. For graduate students in counseling. Prerequisite: ABS 5713 and permission.

6743 Group Process 3
This course includes a theoretical and experiential component to group process, group dynamics, and group counseling. Examples of skills and concepts discussed include group formation, communication, stages of group growth, problem solving, cohesion, team building, leadership, decision making, and conflict resolution. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

6776 Practicum 6
Field experience in professional counseling whereby students will provide introductory counseling services in a mental health clinic, counseling center, or other human services agency. A minimum of 150 clock hours are required. Prerequisite: 33 ABS hours, plus candidacy status.

6813 Personality and Human Development 3
This human growth and development course will cover personality and development throughout the entire life span. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

6903 Research Methods 3
See GRED 6903. Prerequisite: ABS admission.

<td>The course explores cinema as a serious art form—perhaps the major one of the twentieth century. Through the techniques of cinematic analysis, we challenge ourselves to move from viewing visual images in an uncritical and passive manner to analyzing how these images work on us and help shape our values and understanding. The films reflect different ethnic and cultural experiences in order to provide a comparative context. We view a range of films to develop a sense of film history. The difference between cinema as entertainment and cinema as art is a central issue. Auteur theory, that the director is the primary creative force behind a great film, predominates. We view and discuss the films to consider what the auteur (director) is saying, how the auteur is saying it, and how successfully the auteur says it. We consider such topics as whether the true cinema was the silent one; the tension between the cinematic and literary components of a film’s structure; how the style of a film can reflect the cultural texture of its director; and the importance of film movements – the French New Wave, for example – on film history. The films viewed reflect different cultural experiences to provide an international dimension. Dual-listed with ENGL 3313.

5143 Special Topics in Film Production

Proposed by the student and approved by the program director, a specific topic not included in other moving image arts production classes is studied. Instructor, course competencies, and subjects vary. May be repeated with a change in content. Open only to M.L.A. students with permission of the M.L.A. director.

5173+ Women in Film

The first part of this course considers the portrayal of women in select classic Hollywood cinema from the pre-code era to the 1960s. For the rest of the term, we will examine films by female writer, directors, and actors making mainstream and independent films in America since the 1990s. Topics discussed will include women as objects of the film viewer’s gaze, female subjectivity, film industry career opportunities, and the changing roles of women in society. Dual-listed with MIAP 3173.

5223+ Introduction to Cinematography

Students master the fundamental systems and operations of the professional digital motion picture camera and accessories. Focus on camera care, maintenance, lens optics, and performance. Aesthetics of composition, movement, image continuity, and basic digital photographs are included. Outside classroom assignments are given. Dual-listed with MIAP 3223.

5563+ Topics in Philosophy

Systematic treatment of a particular philosophical problem or area of philosophy (e.g., American philosophy, metaphysics, epistemology, philosophy of mathematics, philosophy of language, philosophy of mind, etc.). Dual-listed with PHIL 3563. (TBA)

Political Science (POLS)

5223+ Modern Japan

Traces the history of Japan from 1867 to the present, including the growth and ruin of Japan as a military power and rebirth as an economic giant. Dual-listed with POLS 3313.

5013+ European Politics and Government

Political trends and governmental institutions in Europe; detailed examination of political systems of Britain, France, Germany, and Russia including comparisons to U.S. systems. Dual-listed with POLS 3013. (TBA)

5113+ Modern China

Chinese politics, economics, and history from the end of the Ching dynasty, including Chinese economic reform and beyond. Dual-listed with POLS 3113. (Fall, odd)

Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

5013 Pedagogical Grammar

This course involves both a study of English grammar and a discussion of the teaching of grammar in ESL. Using an eclectic approach, students examine the morphological and syntactical system of English and explore the theoretical and practical issues of the teaching of grammar in ESL/EFL. (Fall, spring)

5093 Independent Study

(TBA)

5103 Studies in Linguistics

A study of language in general, this course examines the universals and the kinds of rules and structures of language, with a focus on phonology, morphology, syntax, and semantics. Explored also are the social, physiological, and psychological aspects of language use and language learning in light of cultures and learning patterns. Historical and computational linguistics are briefly discussed. (Fall, spring)

5113 American English Phonology

This course examines the features of American English phonology, including the consonant and vowel systems, stress, intonation, and adjustments in connected speech. We also discuss and demonstrate effective techniques for teaching pronunciation in ESL/EFL classes, look at the role of pronunciation in the language curriculum, and discuss methods for testing and evaluating pronunciation. (Spring)

5123 Second Language Acquisition

Presents an overview of the field of second language acquisition (SLA) and reviews important research in SLA. Helps students gain an understanding of the relationships between SLA theory, research, and pedagogy and to apply theories critically to teaching practice. (Fall, spring)

5163  Issues in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages  3
(Fall, spring)

5363  Second Language Writing  3
Introduction to theory, research, and methods of teaching second language writing. Provides hands-on experiences for teacher candidates to put knowledge of theories and methods of second language writing into practice. (Fall)

5373  Research and Writing  3
Introduction to graduate studies. This course is designed to help students become proficient in library research and writing research papers. It introduces students to the skills and knowledge essential for successful graduate studies and future growth. Required for all international students in the M.Ed. program and strongly recommended for students on probation.

5413  Technology in the Classroom  3
This course introduces technologies that can be used to facilitate classroom education. It teaches how to use current technologies and how to adapt them to meet the pedagogical purposes of the class. Dual-listed with EDUC 4413. (Spring)

5423  Methods of TESOL  3
This course introduces prospective TESOL teachers to the theories about second language learning and teaching. Focus is on: the linguistic, psychological, and social aspect of second language acquisition; and pedagogical aspects of the TESOL classroom. Lectures, discussion, and their own research should enable students to grasp the principles underlying TESOL. (Fall, spring)

5463  Curriculum Design and Materials Development  3
Applications of principles of curriculum design and theory in language courses; analysis of the effectiveness of student-designed curricula. (TBA)

5513  ESL and EFL Assessment  3
A survey of assessment in English as a second or foreign language. This course focuses on the theory, construction, and use of both standard and teacher-made tests for language skills. Basic statistical procedures in interpreting test results are discussed. (Spring, summer)

5713  Psycholinguistics  3
This course explores psycholinguistic aspects of language with a focus on language acquisition, production, and comprehension. (Fall)

6103*  Foundations of Reading  3
Advanced study in the process of reading, skill developments, reading instruction, and learning theory as it applies to reading education. (Fall)

6873  Practicum in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages  3
Practical TESOL experience, both in and out of the classroom, allows students to apply the theories and teaching strategies learned in

Methods of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESL 5423). Take within the last 9 credit hours of the student’s program of study. Prerequisite: TESL 5423. (Fall, spring)

Accounting (ACCT)

5123  Accounting Theory  3
Study and evaluation of alternative theory, practices, and generally accepted accounting principles of financial accounting and the bases for conclusions reached by the Financial Accounting Standards Board and other financial accounting standard-setting bodies. Prerequisite: ACCT 3123. (Fall)

5133  International Accounting  3
Survey of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and other topics related to international accounting. Prerequisite: ACCT 3123. (Fall)

5163  Energy Accounting  3
Acquaints students with accounting in the Energy industry, including acquisition, production/depletion and retirement of oil and gas properties. Topics include differences between full cost and successful efforts accounting methods; accounting for joint ventures; and analysis of financial statements and disclosures issued by oil and natural gas firms. Introduction to related tax issues. Prerequisites: ACCT 2113 and ACCT 2213. (TBA)

5213  Accounting for Business Decision Making  3
Emphasis on the application of accounting information for financial reporting and the use of accounting information in managerial decision making. This course is for M.B.A. students only and cannot be credited toward the M.S.A.

5313  Auditing Policies, Frameworks, and Practices  3
Application of technical auditing skills and techniques based on mastery and interpretation of AICPA and PCAOB auditing standards and pronouncements as well as contemporary frameworks for enterprise risk management and fraud prevention and detection. Topics include latest methods involved in audit planning, control structure review, procedures selection, procedural execution, and communication of audit findings and results. Prerequisite: ACCT 4313. (Fall)

5413  Income Taxation of Entities  3
Introduction to income taxation issues unique to C corporations, S corporations, partnerships, and estates/trusts, including preparation of entity returns. Prerequisites: ACCT 3413 and ACCT 4413. (Fall)
5423 Tax Procedure 3
Examines federal tax procedure at the administrative level and in litigation; organization of the I.R.S.; legal and practical aspects of Treasury regulations; administrative rulings; closing and compromise agreements; deficiency and jeopardy assessments; waivers; refund claims; mitigation of statute of limitations; tax collections; civil penalties; and the rights and privileges of the taxpayer. Prerequisite: ACCT 3413, ACCT 4413, or permission. (Spring)

5433 Taxation of Business Entities 3
Income tax consequences of doing business in corporate, partnership, or limited liability form. Emphasis given to tax consequences of formation of the entity, transfers of property between entity and owners of entity, and dissolution of the entity. Advantages and disadvantages of each form of doing business are considered. Prerequisite: ACCT 5413.

5443 Estate and Gift Taxation 3
Federal excise tax imposed on the transfer of wealth, whether in the form of a lifetime gift or transfer at death. Prerequisite: ACCT 3413 and ACCT 4413.

5513 Accounting Information Systems and EDP Control 3
This course covers computer-based accounting and related integrated systems and software. Reporting objectives, transaction trails, security, documentation, and internal EDP controls are emphasized. Prerequisite: ACCT 4313, IT 1003. Cross-listed with IT 5513+.

5593 Accounting for Managers in Energy Business 3
Accounting skills needed for the acquisition, production/depletion and retirement of oil and gas properties. Differences between full cost and successful efforts accounting methods. Discussion of accounting for joint ventures, taxation of oil and gas properties, analysis of financial statements and disclosures issued by oil and natural gas firms. (TBA)

5613 Accounting Ethics 3
Survey of professional ethics standards and personal ethics as applied to the practice of accounting. Prerequisite: MGMT 2213. (Spring)

5713 CPA Exam Review — Part I 3
Prepares the student to sit for the CPA Exam by systematically reviewing topics covered on the exam. The primary goal of the course is to take the rules and concepts studied in the Accounting curriculum and incorporate them into a comprehensive understanding of the Accounting framework. (TBA)

5723 CPA Exam Review — Part II 3
Prepares the student to sit for the CPA Exam by systematically reviewing topics covered on the exam. The primary goal of the course is to take the rules and concepts studied in the Accounting curriculum and incorporate them into a comprehensive understanding of the Accounting framework. (TBA)

5911-3 Special Topics in Accounting 1–3
A variable-credit course designed to meet the needs of students with specific interest in a specialized accounting topic. (TBA)

5921-3 Applied Research or Internship in Accounting 1–3
Variable credit course. Applied research, independent study, or work experience integrating knowledge and abilities gained in accounting courses. Number of hours determined by contract. Prerequisites: Senior or graduate standing, 6 hours of upper-level accounting, and accounting chair approval.

Computer Science (CSCI)

5003 Introduction to Object-Oriented Programming 3
A rapid review of fundamental programming concepts and techniques followed by an introduction to object-oriented concepts, design, and programming. The completion of programming assignments will comprise a significant portion of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab per week. Prerequisite: experience in programming in a high-level language.

5103 Theory of Computing 3
A course on the theoretical foundations of computation. Topics include finite-state machines, regular languages, context-free grammars, push-down automata, Turing machines, decidability, and complexity theory. Prerequisites: one language beyond Basic (C or C++ preferred) and MATH 3503. (Fall)

5203 Logic for Computer Science 3
A survey of historical and modern logic with emphasis on applications in computer science. Topics include Boolean algebra, truth tables, verification of argument validity, development of proofs using prepositional and first-order predicate logic, the correctness and completeness of first-order logic, normal forms, and Herbrand's theorem. Automated proof techniques such as resolution and unification are covered. Additional material covered may include topics such as fuzzy logic and multivalued logics. Prerequisites: CSCI 3503. (Fall)

5303 Embedded and Real-Time Operating Systems 3
A continuation of CSCI 4313. Additional topics include device I/O, interrupts, timers, task scheduling, and hardware OS. Two hours of lecture and one hour of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 4313. (TBA)

5403 Software Engineering 3
A study of the principles and techniques for methodical construction of quality software. Topics include software requirements specification, programming paradigms, module specification techniques, testing and validation procedures, and proof of program correctness. An individual or team project may constitute a significant part of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114 and CSCI 5003. (Spring)

5413 Algorithm Design and Analysis 3
A study of the analysis of algorithms and the application of analysis on the design of efficient algorithms. The course treats both the derivation of primarily theoretical results and the practical task of designing efficient algorithms. Topics include: sorting, tree structures, graph algorithms, NP-completeness, dynamic programming, greedy algorithms, distributions and Markov processes, and a brief introduction to parallel algorithms. Prerequisites: CSCI 3114 and CSCI 3503. (Fall)

A study of the structure, organization, and logical design of computers from an advanced perspective. Topics include digital arithmetic and logic, computer structures, machine cycles, interrupts, memory organization, I/O schemes, the integration of operating systems, instruction sets, and addressing. No prior knowledge of electronics is presumed. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: At least one programming language. (Spring)

A study of high-performance computer architectures. Topics may include a study of instruction set architecture, instruction execution, synchronization, micro-operations, global memory, parallel processing, overlap and pipeline processing in a von Neumann type architecture, “RISC” architectures, and supercomputers. Prerequisite: CSCI 5503. (TBA)

A quantitative study of the tools and methodology of database design. The intent is to equip students to design a conceptual database, specify its implementation, and predict the performance of the system when implemented. Topics include B- security trees, database structures and schemas, advanced query languages, and system performance. Students may be asked to pass an entry exam before enrollment is allowed. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 3613. (TBA)

A study of artificial intelligence techniques including concept learning, state-space problem solving, searching AND/OR trees and graphs, genetic algorithms, and resolution. Programming exercises in C++ and/or LISP and PROLOG are assigned. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 5203. (TBA)

An integrated study of the software, data structures, mathematics, and algorithms of image manipulation, computer graphics, and computer-assisted design. Topics include raster techniques, geometric transformations of two and three dimensions, object modeling, illumination models, shading models, basic animations, and strategies for creating representations of three-dimensional objects. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: MATH 2104 or equivalent proficiency in calculus and analytic geometry. (TBA)

A major project to be completed under the supervision of a member of the graduate faculty. The project proposal must be approved by the graduate faculty prior to enrollment in the course. The course may be repeated for a maximum of 6 semester hours of credit. Permission of instructor required. (TBA)

A capstone course required of all graduate computer science students. Students are required to develop a presentation on some current topic in computer science. The course also includes assessment and assessment-oriented topics. Should be taken in the student's final semester. (Spring)

A graduate seminar presenting state-of-the-art research topics in computer science. Course content varies at the professor's discretion. Prerequisites: as designated by the professor. (TBA)

An advanced study of object-oriented programming and design concepts. Subjects include classes, methods, polymorphism, inheritance, and object-oriented design. C++ and Smalltalk are studied in depth. Other object-oriented languages discussed include Java. A group project is required. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisites: CSCI 5403 and Proficiency in C++ or CSCI 4303. (TBA)

A continuation of CSCI 4313. Additional topics include telecommunications, networking, naming, consistency and replication, fault tolerance, and security. The client/server architecture is covered in detail. Encoding, entering, and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 4313. (Spring)

A study of advanced techniques in algorithm design. This course has a primary focus on the issues and techniques of parallel programming. The lab component of the course provides for practice of the examined techniques and algorithms. Topics include string processing, compression, encryption algorithms, and integral transformations. Other topics may include geometric algorithms, parsing, probabilistic algorithms, and linear programming. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 5413. (TBA)

An advanced study of the architectural principles and specific mechanisms required for the exchange of data among computers, terminals, and other data processing devices. Topics include architecture, access protocols, and internetworking. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisites: CSCI 4313 and CSCI 5503. (TBA)

An advanced study of object-oriented programming and design concepts, including current and future trends. Programming projects and library research are required. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 5603. (TBA)

This course presents the mathematical basis of a variety of knowledge discovery techniques and their implementation on computers to model multidimensional data. In the laboratory, students analyze large matrix and database data using application programs and programs they write in C++, Matlab, and Oracle. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 5203. (TBA)

6981-6 M.S. Degree Research 1–6
Research to be completed under the supervision of a member of the graduate faculty. The research proposal must be approved by the graduate faculty prior to enrollment in the course. The course may be repeated for a maximum of 6 semester hours of credit. (TBA)

Economics (ECON)

5313 Data Analysis for Business Decisions
Focuses on the identification and access of information sources and analyzing the information to make informed decisions and solve managerial problems. Among the topics included are numerical and graphic description of data, confidence intervals, hypothesis testing, regression analysis and predictive modeling, linear allocation models and allocating resources, forecasting, and decision analysis. The course utilizes spreadsheet, statistical and simulation software.

5413 Managing at the Crossroads: The Global Economic Environment
Emphasizing the perspective of managers in the private sector, course focuses on the interactions of economic principles at work at the inter-firm, intra-industry, and inter-industry levels (microeconomics), at the economy-wide level (macroeconomics), and at the global level (international economics). Integrated framework explains the effects that micro, macro, and international economics have on the growth and prosperity of individual business organizations and how managers make adjustments to create and capture value.

6213 Energy Economics
Basic overview of energy economics. Short- and long- term resource management by a firm, alternative energy sources and their economic management including nuclear, solar, wind, and geothermal power. Sustainability, economics of the hydrocarbon industry, calculation of net present value of futures reserves. (TBA)

Energy Legal Studies (ELAW)

5153 Legal Research and Citation
Teaches the sources and techniques for legal research and proper citation of those sources. Focuses on the comprehensive, thorough research path necessary to complete the Legal Writing paper and project. (TBA)

5253 Legal Writing and Analysis
Develops and hones students’ ability to analyze and write about a complex energy and legal issue. This course will serve as the culmination of the entire program wherein students will receive guidance in writing a research paper and prepare a presentation. The students will work in groups, prepare an energy industry “white paper,” and present their work. Prerequisite: ELAW 5153 (TBA)

5353 Fundamentals of Contracts
Covers fundamental principles of contract liability; offer and acceptance; consideration; statute of frauds; contract remedies; the parol evidence rule; performance of contracts; conditions; effect of changed circumstances; and other issues related to contract formation and enforcement. Prerequisite: ELAW 5703. (TBA)

5453 Negotiation and Dispute Resolution
Designed to improve students’ understanding of the negotiation process and their practical skills as participants in energy deals and negotiations. Integrates intellectual and experiential learning by combining reading and lectures with exercises, role plays, presentations, and in-depth class discussion. (TBA)

5703 Legal and Ethical Environment of the Energy Industry
Provides an overview of the law, ethics and legal analysis. Examines areas of law and ethics that relate to the contemporary business environment in the energy industry. Areas of study include contracts, torts, crime, business organizations, and the legal and ethical responsibilities of energy industry leaders.

6523 Fundamentals of Property Law
Study of the fundamentals of property: property interests in land and in wealth other than land; formation of interests in land; the estate concept; possessory and non-possessory interests; concurrent interests; the lessor-lessee relation; the allocation and development of land resources. Prerequisite: ELAW 5353. (TBA)

6533 Legal Principles of Oil and Gas
Nature of property interests in oil and gas; conveyancing of interests in oil and gas; legal interests created by oil and gas leases; validity of leases; habendum, drilling, and rental clauses; assignment of interests of lessor and lessee; rents and royalties; and conservation of oil and gas. Prerequisites: ELAW 5353 and ELAW 6523. (TBA)

6543 Environmental Law and Regulatory Compliance
Introduction to the legal regulation of environmental quality and its intersection with the energy industry. Course considers the foundations of environmental regulation; the scientific predicate for environmental regulation; the objectives of environmental regulation; and the choice of regulatory tools, such as state and federal administrative regulation, taxes, and permit schemes, liability rules, and informational requirements. Analyzes the principal environmental statutes, particularly the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Liability Act, and the National Environmental Protection Act. Prerequisite: MGMT 5703.

6613 Energy Contracts and Issues
Applies the fundamentals developed in Contracts and Property and examines contracts used in the energy industry for exploration, production, and development and for investment; the nature of the relationships created by such contracts; the rights and duties of the parties; and governmental regulation of such contracts. Examines the importance of identification of the identity, entity, estate or individuals involved in the ownership, investment or participation in an energy deal and the implications thereof. Prerequisite: ELAW 6533.
Finance (FIN)

5303  Financial Strategy and Decision Making  3
Fundamental concepts such as time value of money and risk-return relationships in finance are presented in detail. Financial decisions faced by modern business enterprises are analyzed in the framework of financial theories. These decisions include capital budgeting, long-term financing, dividend policy, short-term financial management, and performance evaluations. (Fall, spring)

6303  Optimizing Third Party Payment Systems  3
Employs a three part curriculum. First, students examine the nature and role of the third party payment environment, its influence on health care practice management, and the types of organizations comprising the system. Second, students learn the practical and regulatory requirements associated with health care credentialing and learn from first-hand experiences with the credentialing process. Finally, a significant component of the course provides students with the essentials for medical billing and coding as the seminal driver for efficient and accurate provider payments.

6313  Investments Management  3
Analysis of capital markets in the U.S., their functions, the participants in the market, and the laws pertaining to participating in those markets. Technical and fundamental investment strategies are examined as are portfolio risk management techniques. Prerequisite: FIN 5303.

6323  Money and Capital Markets  3
Sources, uses, and flow of funds in the money markets and the capital markets are analyzed, with explicit attention to the financial instruments and financial institutions involved. Encompasses an understanding of the processes of money creation and capital formation in an advanced commercial society. Prerequisite: FIN 5303.

6333  Healthcare Financial Strategies & Decision Making  3
Establishes a mastery understanding and ability to apply basic financial management principles within the emerging patient-centered care environment and in a variety of health care operational settings. A wide range of health care financial management topics are covered, including health care accounting systems, financial analysis, revenue planning, resource management and allocation, third-party reimbursement, regulation, legislation, and contemporary health care finance problems. Prerequisite: FIN 5303. (TBA)

6343  Corporate Financial Strategies  3
This course involves theory and procedure of finance functions of individual business firms, fund raising, planning, and controlling firm finances from the treasurer's point of view. Prerequisite: FIN 5303. (TBA)

6353  Special Topics in Finance  3
Involves individual or small-group research of special topics or current issues in finance. Prerequisite: FIN 5303. (TBA)

6363  Internship in Finance  3
The internship allows students to gain practical work experience while integrating knowledge and abilities gained in earlier finance courses. The intern must work with the internship coordinator and a faculty member, along with the sponsor for an organization external to the university, to develop an internship proposal. A written research report is required. Prerequisites: completion of all required finance courses, advanced standing in the M.B.A. program, and completion of an approved proposal. (TBA)

6373  Energy Management Capstone Experience  3
Culminating the MS program, students integrate concepts from each of their courses to address emerging issues and challenges facing energy organizations. Based on their research and analysis, students will provide justified recommendations in written reports and professional presentations to stakeholders as they critically examine cutting-edge issues in the energy industry. Prerequisite: Final class in the M.S. Energy Management program. (TBA)

6523  Multinational Corporate Finance  3
Explores financial policies and practices of companies involved in international operations. Foreign exchange markets, forecasting exchange rate, risks of foreign exchange fluctuation, and hedging techniques are reviewed. Fundraising in international money and capital markets, working with capital management, and investment practices of multinational firms are considered. Other topics include capital budgeting, financial structure, and cost of capital for multinational corporations. Prerequisite: FIN 5303.

Information Technology (IT)

5513  Accounting Information Systems and EDP Control  3
Covers computer-based accounting and related integrated systems and software. Reporting objectives, transaction trails, security, documentation, and internal EDP controls are emphasized. This class and ACCT 5513 Accounting Information System and EDP Control cannot both be taken. Prerequisite: Permission of Chair of Accounting. Cross-listed with ACCT 5513+.

5603  Technology and Operations Management  3
This course seeks to expand students' knowledge of the role of technology in the planning and management of organizations and covers both information technology topics and operations management topics. Students gain understanding of management information systems, decision support systems, expert systems, database management systems, and enterprise systems. These systems facilitate the effective management and control of an organization's operations. Operations management topics include materials requirement planning, enterprise resource planning, quality assurance, supply chain management and decision theory. (TBA)

6613  Systems Analysis and Design  3
This course exposes students to structured systems analysis and design through implementation of the systems development life cycle. Students prepare a comprehensive group case involving systems proposal, cost estimation, interpersonal interviewing techniques, process modeling, data modeling, network modeling, interface design, file and database construction, security concerns, and maintenance issues. Prototyping and rapid development techniques are discussed. Prerequisites: IT 5603 and permission of the instructor. (TBA)
6623  Advanced Database Management  3
This course provides students with skills required to develop data structures in order to store organizational memory. The course begins with review of SQL through comprehensive assignments, followed by instruction in Oracle, and then database management and development techniques. Topics include flat file, hierarchic, network and relational database models; data modeling using Logical Data Structures; Structured Query Language; data normalization; storage concerns and data warehousing; and distributed database systems. Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to conceptualize, develop, test, and maintain a complete database system on either microcomputer or mainframe systems. Large blocks of time will be spent in the lab and working directly with the instructor. Prerequisites: IT 6613 and IT 2313 or other programming language and permission of the instructor. (TBA)

6633  Strategic Information System Management  3
This course examines the use and implementation of information systems for strategic and competitive advantage in an organization. The focus is on analysis of frameworks, which provides students understanding of the elements of competitive advantage from an upper-management perspective. This foundation of frameworks is linked to the organization's information systems through the use of case studies and augmented with real-world examples. Topics include a sampling of Commercial Enterprise Software packages and various implementation methodologies. Students are required to develop a Request For Proposal for the acquisition of an Enterprise Software package and to evaluate multiple alternatives to meet the needs of a case study organization. Prerequisite: IT 5603. (TBA)

6643  Advanced Networking  3
This course is a conceptual and technological survey of the structure of distributed information systems architectures, operating systems, network operating systems, data management systems, application development environments, peripheral technology, and user interfaces. Interoperability between these architectural components is explored and technology and trends in each architectural element are reviewed. Students learn how a network group works in an information technology department within an organization. Students are exposed to home pages, graphics, search engines, and other internet items. We discuss accomplishing electronic commerce over the internet and how businesses will evolve with the use of the internet. Prerequisite: IT 5603. (Spring)

6653  Electronic Commerce  3
Creating a winning e-business provides students with practical ideas on planning and creating an e-business. No previous e-business knowledge or experience is necessary. The course helps students learn about key business elements of planning and starting an e-business from the ground up. Creating a winning e-business takes a practical case-based and hands-on approach to planning and starting an e-business. Numerous e-business examples are used to illustrate important concepts. A specially designed team project is included. Prerequisite: IT 5603. (TBA)

6663  Business Systems Internship  3
The internship allows students to gain practical work experience while integrating knowledge and abilities gained in earlier information technology courses. The intern must work with the internship coordinator and a faculty member, along with the sponsor for an organization external to the university, to develop an internship proposal. A written research report is required. Prerequisites: completion of all required information technology courses, advanced standing in the M.B.A. program, and completion of an approved proposal. (TBA)

Management (MGMT)

5213  Business Strategy for Creating Value  3
Focuses upon organizational, competitive, and environmental issues confronting organizations and how firms identify, seize, and defend opportunities in today's dynamic and rapidly changing global economy. Emphasizing the agility of strategic thinking as key to creating value, the course integrates concepts from strategic management, marketing, accounting, finance, and economics to develop understanding and applied mastery of related concepts such as environmental analysis, strategy formulation, sustainable competitive advantage, value-chain analysis, critical success factors, and tactical implementation.

5703  Ethical, Societal and Legal Environment of Business  3
This course examines areas of law and ethics that relate to the contemporary business environment. Areas of study include contracts, torts, white collar crime, product liability, anti-competitive practices, consumer protection, employment practices, business organizations, and the legal and ethical responsibilities of business managers. (Fall, spring)

5723  Leadership and Management in the Energy Industry  3
Provides an overview of all sources of energy throughout all generation and delivery cycles. Explores leadership and management in the energy industry with current, high-level energy executives. Evaluates the interactions between land, legal, engineering, geology, geophysics, and product marketing departments of an energy company. Enhances the ability to manage organizations and members. Organizational structure, design, culture, change and development are studied. Future energy sources, environmental issues, social responsibility, industry ethics, and leadership issues are also examined.

5733  Essentials of Oil and Gas Legal Principles  3
Covers nature of property interests in oil and gas; conveyancing of interests in oil and gas; legal interests created by oil and gas leases; validity of leases; habendum, drilling, and rental clauses; assignment of interests of lessor and lessee; rents and royalties; and conservation of oil and gas. Provides managerial issues and applications perspectives in addition to basic legal principles.

6551-3  Seminar in International Business  1–3 Advanced topics, current problems, and results of recent research in international business are discussed in detail. Topic areas are assigned to students, each of whom acts as discussion leader. Faculty members from other universities and leaders from business or government are invited to speak at the seminar. The focus of the seminar may vary in different semesters. Topics are announced in advance. Each offering is identified in the current schedule and on the of marketing (concepts, theories, analytical methods, etc.), but also on decision tools from other areas such as statistics, accounting, finance, economics, psychology, and communications. (TBA)

6113  Buyer Behavior
Marketing begins and ends with consumers, from determining consumer needs to providing consumer satisfaction. A clear understanding of consumers is therefore critical in successfully managing the market function in any organization. This course introduces students to the study of consumer behavior. In many cases, the perspective is that of a marketing manager who needs an understanding of consumer behavior in order to develop and implement effective marketing strategies. The goal of the course is to provide students with the concepts, frameworks, and tools needed to understand consumption-related behaviors and to evaluate marketing strategies intended to influence those behaviors. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103. (TBA)

6123  Services Marketing
Designed for students with career interests in services industries as well as in goods industries with high service components. The course focuses on the unique challenges of managing services and delivering quality service to customers. Course content includes understanding and managing customer expectation and evaluations of services, designing services that meet or exceed customer expectations, managing the effective delivery of services, and communicating realistic and effective services promises to customers. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103. (TBA)

6133  Marketing Research and Analysis
A study of the collection, analysis, and reporting of marketing information needed for management decisions. Emphasis is on research procedure and techniques. This course provides students with a broad introduction to the marketing research process and hands-on elementary understanding of how marketing research activities are implemented by professional marketing researchers. Upon completion of this course, students will know the language of marketing research and understand the steps necessary to develop valid and reliable marketing research study to analyze consumers, competition, and various marketing opportunities. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103 and ECON 2123, or M.B.A. advisor approved undergraduate statistics course. (TBA)

6143  Healthcare Marketing and Client Satisfaction
Employs leading-edge knowledge from services marketing to integrate key aspects of strategic marketing planning and implementation with the achievement of practice-based objectives for assuring client satisfaction. Topics include organizing for marketing; psychographic, demographic, and epidemiological analysis of the market; analysis of the product, price, place, and promotion; competitor analysis; market opportunity and demand for forecasting; market strategy; along with understanding the nature and antecedents for client satisfaction and the assessment and assurance of client satisfaction objectives. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103. (TBA)

6153  Special Topics in Marketing
Involves individual or small-group research of special topics or current issues in marketing. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103. (TBA)

6163  Integrated Marketing Communication
Role and importance of marketing communications; planning of marketing activities to work synergistically towards meeting marketing communications objectives and marketing goals; enhancing brand equity by using the tools of an Integrated Marketing Communications program: advertising, sales promotion, packaging and branding strategies, social media, online and mobile advertising, direct marketing, public relations, personal selling, word-of-mouth buzz creation, sponsorship, and point-of-purchase displays. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103. (TBA)

6173  Sales Force Leadership
This course deals with the responsibilities and decisions confronting today's sales manager in the context of the theory, principles, and practice of sales force leadership for manufacturing, wholesaling, and service enterprises. The comprehensive discussion topics include selling strategies, organizing the selling unit, territory analysis and planning, recruiting and selection, coaching and training, motivating achievement, forecasting and quotas, assessing performance, and compensating and rewarding the sales force. Experiential projects, case study, role-playing, and professional speakers enhance the learning experience. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103. (TBA)

6513  Multinational Marketing Management
A study of the scope, challenges, and strategies of international marketing. The structures of multinational markets, including economic factors, foreign cultures, nationalism, and government regulations, are covered. Emphasis is on foreign market research, international distribution channels, international product policy, international promotion, and pricing policy. Marketing problems arising from differing degrees of foreign involvement such as exporting, licensing, and establishing foreign subsidiaries are examined. Prerequisite: MKTG 5103. (TBA)

Health care policy formulation and trends at local, state, national, and international levels. Examination of multiple, complex influences on regulation, funding, and delivery of health care services. Uses a theoretical basis to explore behaviors displayed by organizations and the personnel within them. Leadership strategies for producing successful outcomes by analyzing organizational structure, change theory, reward systems, environmental psychology and culture, and related factors are addressed.

This course explores various approaches to theory development. Strategies for concept identification, specification of relationships, and theory clarification are discussed. Students explore theory construction, application, evaluation, and testing, as well as the relationship between theory development and research. The coursework involves production of a midrange theory. Prerequisite: NURS 5103.

This course explores meanings and expressions of person, health, illness, nursing, and caring in clients with diverse cultural backgrounds. Patterns of human interaction that foster health and quality of life are analyzed. Health-damaging patterns of interaction, such as stereotyping, discrimination, and marginalization are examined within a theoretical framework and submitted to ethical reflection. Students engage in dialogue and networking with providers and consumers to understand the context of transcultural healthcare.

This course deals with the search for and procurement of funds from both public and private grant funding sources. Topics include interpretation of instructions, producing a successful proposal, the proposal review process, managing grants received, and writing reports.

This course examines the theoretical basis for behaviors displayed by organizations and the personnel within them. Students explore leadership strategies for producing successful outcomes by analyzing organizational structure, change theory, reward systems, environmental psychology and culture, and other related factors. Patterns and predictors of behaviors within and between formal organizations are analyzed and interpreted by the application of theory and research findings.

This course integrates research into practice with a focus on identifying, summarizing, and appraising evidence for best practices. Students explore such issues as the identification of practice and system problems, evaluation of research studies and systematic reviews, development and implementation of evidence-based practice guidelines, and use of evidence-based practice to improve outcomes for clients and healthcare systems.

This course applies philosophical approaches to the development of bioethical reasoning in terms of metaethics and normative ethics. Students consider how the interplay of abstract thinking and cognitive science in themselves and others influences ethical practices.

This course covers intermediate statistical analysis, including the logic of statistical inference, probability and sampling, tests of statistical hypotheses, error theory, confidence interval estimates and procedures, introduction to analysis of variance, and selected non-parametric methods. The content also addresses bivariate correlation techniques, measures of association, and simple linear regression. Students use selected statistical computing software for relevant data analysis. Prerequisite: an introductory statistics course.

Selection and use of information systems/technology to provide healthcare and to evaluate patient care programs, outcomes, and systems. Prerequisites: NURS 7103, NURS 7113, NURS 7253

This course focuses on issues in post-secondary education in the United States and abroad. Students explore the history of higher education, trends, legal concerns, the evolution of curriculum and educational philosophies, private versus public funding, college and university governance, tenure, academic freedom, and other topics.

This course focuses on development and implementation of various methodologies for evaluation of educational effectiveness. Integration of professional, ethical, and legal implications facilitates development of methods and strategies that advance the quality of the educational environment. Analysis of research concerning the impact of evaluation processes provides a foundation for evidence-based practices. Prerequisite: M.S.N. with an education focus or nurse educator certification.

This course examines qualitative research as an approach to the generation of knowledge. Students will analyze philosophical foundations and relationships between research questions and specific qualitative methods. Threats to reliability and validity of qualitative research are evaluated. Integrated into all aspects of research are considerations of ethics, human and animal protections, and scientific integrity. Prerequisite: NURS 6323.

This course examines research designs that incorporate the strengths of both qualitative and quantitative methods. Philosophical and practical elements of design are analyzed as are rigor and threats to validity. Integrated into all aspects of research are considerations of ethics, human and animal protections, and scientific integrity. Prerequisite: NURS 8103, NURS 8203

Physician Assistant Studies

Didactic Courses

5116  Introduction to Human Form  6
The Introduction to Human Form (IHF) course is a comprehensive course utilizing multiple concentrations to provide an understanding of human anatomy and basic guiding principles of disease and healing mechanisms of the body. The IHF course will also introduce methods of patient interaction and physical examination, the historical context of the profession and a primer in medical terminology. Through the following concentrations: Clinical Anatomy, Pathophysiology, Physical Diagnosis, Medical Terminology, Introduction to the Profession and Pharmacology; this course will introduce students to the analytical and technical skills necessary to manage patients in the clinical setting.

5122  EENT  2
The EENT discipline is a comprehensive course utilizing multiple concentrations in order to provide a thorough understanding of the organ system. Through the following concentrations: Clinical Medicine, Lab Medicine, Physiology, Pathophysiology, Radiology, Physical Diagnosis, Pharmacotherapeutics, Clinical Reasoning/Intervention and Medical Humanities; this course will provide students with the analytical and technical skills necessary to manage patients in the clinical setting.

5131  Heme-Genetics  1
The Heme-Genetics course encompasses two specialty areas. The first portion of the course will cover blood, blood forming elements and hematologic-based diseases. Crucial to understanding hematologic clinical medicine is a thorough understanding of the concentrations of laboratory medicine and pharmacotherapeutics. This section of the course will provide students with the ability to order appropriate testing to interpret hematologic disease. The second portion of the course will provide students with an understanding of the principles of basic genetics, most common syndromes related to genetics and the basics of counseling.

5142  Pulmonology  2
The Pulmonary course offers students a comprehensive understanding of pulmonary disease with lectures in clinical medicine, laboratory medicine, radiology, pharmacotherapeutics, physiology and pathophysiology. Students will also develop clinical reasoning skills and perfect physical examination techniques in small group sessions. At the conclusion of the course, students will have been provided the clinical decision-making and technical skills necessary to address diseases of the pulmonary system.

5154  Cardiology  4
The Cardiology discipline is a comprehensive course utilizing multiple concentrations in order to provide a thorough understanding of the organ system. Through the following concentrations: Clinical Medicine, Lab Medicine, Physiology, Pathophysiology, Radiology, Physical Diagnosis, Pharmacotherapeutics, Clinical Reasoning/Intervention and Medical Humanities; this course will provide the students with the analytical and technical skills necessary to manage patients in the clinical setting.

5161  Geriatrics  1
The Geriatrics course is designed to provide students with a thorough understanding of the special needs of the geriatric population. The course will focus on pharmacotherapeutics, clinical medicine topics and laboratory medicine specific to the elderly. The course will also present physical diagnostic techniques encountered in geriatric medicine. At the conclusion of the course, students will have an understanding of how to manage the special needs of our senior citizens.

5213  Urinary System  3
The Urinary System course provides a thorough understanding of diseases of the kidneys, ureters, bladder and urethra. Disease of the male reproductive system will also be presented in this course. Basic and clinical science lectures will be provided in clinical medicine, pathophysiology, physiology, laboratory medicine, radiology, and pharmacotherapeutics. Clinical reasoning, physical examination techniques and topics in humanities will also be presented in small group sessions. At the conclusion of the course, students will have the clinical knowledge and analytical tools to care for patients with urologic disease.

5223  OB/GYN  3
The OB/GYN discipline is a comprehensive course utilizing multiple concentrations in order to provide a thorough understanding of the organ system. Through the following concentrations: Clinical Medicine, Lab Medicine, Physiology, Pathophysiology, Radiology, Physical Diagnosis, Pharmacotherapeutics, Clinical Reasoning/Intervention and Medical Humanities; this course will provide the students with the analytical and technical skills necessary to manage patients in the clinical setting.

5232  Endocrinology  2
The Endocrinology course provides students with a thorough understanding of the endocrine system including pancreatic, thyroid, adrenal, and other systems. Students will gain knowledge of numerous discipline concentrations including pathophysiology, radiology, physiology, clinical medicine, laboratory medicine, and pharmacotherapeutics. Students will also participate in small group exercises to hone their clinical reasoning and decision-making skills and to cover topics in the humanities. At the conclusion of the course, students will have acquired the medical and analytical skills to investigate and address endocrinopathies across the lifespan.

5242  Neurology  2
The Neurology course will provide PA students with an understanding of developmental and acquired diseases of the central and peripheral nervous system. Content will focus on physiology, pathophysiology, imaging studies, pharmacotherapeutics and laboratory medicine related to the neuraxis. Students will also engage in exercises to enhance clinical reasoning and improve their skill and understanding of the physical examination of the nervous system. At the conclusion of the course, students will have a working knowledge to provide medical care to patients presenting with the myriad diseases and syndromes related to the nervous system.

5252  Psychiatry  2
The Psychiatry course will provide students with an understanding of definitions, recognition and treatment of psychiatric conditions. Concentrations will focus primarily on clinical medicine and... pharmacotherapeutics. The use of small group discussions will lead to a greater understanding of the humanities and clinical reasoning and interventions. Comprehension of the neuropsych exam will also be integral to the course. At the conclusion of the course, students will have an understanding on how to approach, diagnose and treat a wide range of psychiatric conditions.

5312 Musculoskeletal 2
The Musculoskeletal discipline is a comprehensive course utilizing multiple concentrations in order to provide a thorough understanding of the organ system. Through the following concentrations: Clinical Medicine, Lab Medicine, Physiology, Pathophysiology, Radiology, Physical Diagnosis, Pharmacotherapeutics, Clinical Reasoning/Intervention and Medical Humanities; this course will provide the students with the analytical and technical skills necessary to manage patients in the clinical setting.

5322 Dermatology 2
The Dermatology course is designed to provide students with the ability to recognize many dermatologic conditions and how they are most appropriately managed. Topics in clinical medicine, pathophysiology, and pharmacotherapeutics will be presented. Students will also engage in small group exercises in clinical reasoning, intervention, the humanities and special physical examination techniques. At the conclusion of the course, students will have the knowledge and skills necessary to address a wide range of dermatologic conditions.

5333 Gastroenterology 3
The Gastroenterology course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of diseases of the GI tract, including the associated viscera. In addition to small group exercises in clinical reasoning and intervention, the course will provide a wide range of lectures in clinical medicine, laboratory medicine, pharmacotherapeutics, physiology, radiology and physical examination techniques. At the conclusion of the course, students will have a thorough understanding of management of the myriad of GI pathologies.

5342 Infectious Disease 2
The Infectious Disease course provides students with knowledge of numerous disease and treatment regimen for infectious processes not covered in the other systems-based courses. The course will rely on lectures in clinical medicine, laboratory medicine and to a great extent, pharmacotherapeutics. Clinical reasoning, intervention and physical examination techniques will also be presented in a small group format. At the conclusion of the course, students will have an understanding of the complexities of treating specific infectious disease processes in the out- and in-patient setting.

5353 Emergency Medicine 3
The EMERGENCY MEDICINE discipline is a comprehensive course utilizing multiple concentrations in order to provide a thorough understanding of the organ system. Through the following concentrations: Clinical Medicine, Lab Medicine, Physiology, Pathophysiology, Radiology, Physical Diagnosis, Pharmacotherapeutics, Clinical Reasoning/Intervention and Medical Humanities; this course will provide the students with the analytical and technical skills necessary to manage patients in the clinical setting.

5361 Nutrition 1
The Nutrition course provides the student with a comprehensive understanding of the nutritional demands of metabolism in the health individual and in those with disease. Special emphasis will be placed on TPN, special diets for DM, CHF, and hepatorenal disease. In addition to covering topics in clinical medicine, students will participate in small group sessions focused on clinical reasoning and intervention related to a patient’s specific nutritional needs. At the conclusion of the course, students will have an understanding of how to manage the nutritional needs of patients in the inpatient and outpatient settings.

5372 Pediatrics 2
The Pediatrics course is designed to provide students with a thorough understanding of the special needs of the pediatric population. The course will focus on pharmacotherapeutics, clinical medicine topics and laboratory medicine specific to the newborn, infant, and child. The course will also present physical diagnostic techniques specific to the pediatric population, including comprehension of developmental milestones. At the conclusion of the course, students will have an understanding of how to manage the special needs of the child.

5383 Capstone 3
The Capstone course is offered during the final three weeks of the didactic phase. The purpose of the course is to provide the student with many procedural skills necessary for success in the clinical phase. Capstone also contains a testing component to assure students are competent in their physical examination skills. As a final component, students will participate in an online curriculum for health professionals known as the Institute for Healthcare Improvement Open School (IHI). The IHI curriculum will develop student’s understanding of inter-professional practice, methods to reduce medical errors, health systems, and patient- and family-centered care.

Clinical Courses

6004 Charitable Primary Care 4
This is a four-week clinical experience in an outpatient setting in Oklahoma City at one of the affiliated charitable clinics. Students will experience interacting with the uninsured and working poor, undocumented immigrants, and marginalized populations. Objectives for this rotation will include how to obtain referrals, prescriptions, and other needed services in the absence of suitable financial or personnel resources. Students will participate in interprofessional teams with other students and licensed providers from medical, nursing, and allied health professions.

6014 Family Medicine 4
This is an eight-week clinical experience in an out-patient setting where students work with board-certified family medicine physicians and, if available, their physician assistants. This supervised clinical practice experience (SCPE) is designed to provide the student with an interactive, problem-based learning opportunity. Students will acquire clinical experience through evaluation and management of both acute and chronic diseases under direct supervision by their Preceptor. The focus of the SCPE is to use the "Medical Home" philosophy of primary care. This model is described as patient-centered, comprehensive, team-based, coordinated, accessible, and focused on quality and safely (Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality–AHRA). This approach to patient care is emphasized while students participate in the work-up, diagnosis, treatment and education of the family medicine patient and their family.

6024 Internal Medicine
This is a four-week clinical experience in both in-patient and outpatient setting where students work with board-certified internal medicine physician and their physician assistants. This rotation is designed to provide the student with an interactive, problem-based learning opportunity. Students will acquire clinical experience through evaluation and management of general internal medicine patients under direct supervision by their Preceptor. The team approach to patient care and safety is emphasized while students participate in the work-up, diagnosis, treatment and education of the general internal medicine patient and their family.

6034 Medicine—Elective
This is a four-week clinical experience in both in-patient and/or outpatient setting where students work with board-certified physician and their physician assistants. This rotation is designed to provide the student with an interactive, problem-based learning opportunity.
Students will acquire clinical experience through evaluation and management of patients under direct supervision by their Preceptor. The team approach to patient care and safety is emphasized while students participate in the work-up, diagnosis, treatment and education of the patient and their family.

6044 General Surgery
This is a four-week clinical experience in the surgical, in-patient, and out-patient setting where students work with board-certified surgeons and their physician assistants. This rotation is designed to provide the student with an interactive, problem-based learning opportunity.
Students will acquire skills in diagnosis and pre-operative to postoperative management of the surgical patient. The student will assist in the operating room as required

6054 Pediatrics
This is a four-week clinical experience in an in-patient and out-patient setting where students work with board-certified pediatricians and their physician assistants. Students will acquire clinical experience in the care of children from birth through adolescence.

6064 OB/GYN
This is a four-week clinical experience in an in-patient and out-patient setting where students work with board-certified obstetricians/gynecologists and their physician assistants. Students will acquire clinical experience through evaluation and management of women's health issues throughout the reproductive and post-menopausal years.
Participation in surgery, assisting in labor and deliver may be required on this rotation.

6074 Mental Health/Psychiatry
This is a four-week clinical experience in the in-patient and/or outpatient setting where students work with board-certified psychiatrist and their physician assistants. This rotation is designed to provide the student with an interactive, problem-based learning opportunity. Students will acquire clinical experience through evaluation and management of psychiatric patients under direct supervision by their Preceptor. The team approach to patient care and safety is emphasized while students participate in the work-up, diagnosis, treatment and education of the psychiatric patient.

6084 Emergency Medicine
This is an eight-week clinical experience in emergency department setting where students work with board-certified emergency medicine physician and their physician assistants. This rotation is designed to provide the student with an interactive, problem-based learning opportunity. Students will acquire clinical experience through evaluation and management of critically ill patients under direct supervision by their Preceptor. The team approach to patient care and safety is emphasized while students participate in the work-up, diagnosis, treatment and education of the emergency medicine patient and their family.

6703 Strategic Management of Healthcare Organizations
3 Emphasizing best practices related to setting up and managing the organization, this course focuses on managerial and operational concepts including strategic planning; organizational strategy and design; individual, interpersonal, and team/group management; along with employment and human resource management topics including selection, staffing, retention, discipline, motivation, productivity, and team building.

6333 Healthcare Financial Strategies and Decision Making 3
This course establishes a mastery understanding and ability to apply basic financial management principles within the emerging patient-centered care environment. A wide range of health care financial management topics are covered, including health care accounting systems, financial analysis, revenue planning, resource management and allocation, third-party reimbursement, regulation, legislation, and contemporary health care finance problems.

6143 Marketing the Medical Practice and Assuring Client
Satisfaction 3
This course employs leading-edge knowledge from services marteting to integrate key aspects of strategic marketing planning and implementation with the achievement of practice-based objectives for assuring client satisfaction. Health services marketing topics include organizing for marketing; psychographic, demographic, and epidemiological analysis of the market; analysis of the product, price, place, and promotion; competitor analysis; market opportunity and demand for forecasting; market strategy; along with understanding the nature and antecedents for client satisfaction and the assessment and assurance of client satisfaction objectives.

6303 Optimizing Third-Party Payment Systems 3
This course employs a three-part curriculum. First, students examine the nature and role of the third party payor environment, its influence on health care practice management, and the types of organizations comprising the system. Second, students learn the practical and regulatory requirements associated with health care credentialing and learn from first-hand experiences with the credentialing process.
Finally, a significant component of the course provides students with the essentials for medical billing and coding as the seminal driver for efficient and accurate provider payments.

Provisions of this catalog are subject to change without notice and do not constitute an irrevocable contract between any student and the university. Oklahoma City University reserves the right to modify or change policies, courses, and program requirements described herein.

Every student is responsible for reading and understanding the academic requirements for the degree program as outlined in this catalog and as may be changed from time to time. Academic advisors are available for counseling and advising to assist students in this process; however, the final responsibility remains with the student to meet any and all academic requirements.

Oklahoma City University pledges to recruit, select and promote diversity by providing equality of opportunity in higher education for all persons, including faculty and employees with respect to hiring, continuation, promotion and tenure, applicants for admission, enrolled students, and graduates, without discrimination or segregation on the grounds of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

The university chief human resources officer, whose office is located in room 108 of the Clara E. Jones Administration Building, telephone (405) 208-5075, coordinates the university’s compliance with Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act and amendments, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

Oklahoma City University complies with the Student Right to Know and Equity in Athletics Disclosure Acts. This report is compiled and made available by October 15 each year. Requests for this report can be made to the athletics director.

In accordance with requirements by The Higher Learning Commission, the university will provide information to the accrediting agency regarding written complaints from a student against any faculty, staff, or institutional process or procedure. The information will contain the date the complaint was formally submitted to a university official; the nature of the complaint (e.g. dispute about a grade, allegation of sexual harassment, etc.); steps taken to resolve the complaint; the university’s final decision regarding the complaint, including referral to outside agencies; and any other external actions initiated by the student to resolve the complaint, if known to the university (e.g. lawsuit, EEOC investigation, etc.).

Any information provided to The Higher Learning Commission will be presented in such a way as to shield the identities of faculty, staff, or students involved with the complaint.
