

OCU CARES Emergency Grant Email Messaging

All currently enrolled students at Oklahoma City University were emailed the following on April 28, 2020:

We understand that the disruption to daily life caused by COVID-19 includes financial hardships for many OCU students. With limited federal funding now available by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, OCU is able to provide some financial assistance to our students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19. We are referring to this relief effort at OCU as the OCU CARES Emergency Grant.

Students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19 are encouraged to apply HERE by Thursday, May 7, 2020.

If you have any questions about the OCU CARES Emergency Grant, please contact Dr. Levi J. Harrel, Dean of Students.

The parents of all currently enrolled students at Oklahoma City University were emailed the following on April 28, 2020:

We understand that the disruption to daily life caused by COVID-19 includes financial hardships for many OCU students. With limited federal funding now available by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, OCU is able to provide some financial assistance to our students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19. We are referring to this relief effort at OCU as the OCU CARES Emergency Grant.

Students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19 are encouraged to apply HERE by Thursday, May 7, 2020.

If you have any questions about the OCU CARES Emergency Grant, please contact Dr. Levi J. Harrel, Dean of Students.

All currently enrolled students at Oklahoma City University were emailed the following on May 1, 2020:

We understand that the disruption to daily life caused by COVID-19 includes financial hardships for many OCU students. With limited federal funding now available by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, OCU is able to provide some financial assistance to our students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19. We are referring to this relief effort at OCU as the OCU CARES Emergency Grant.

Students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19 are encouraged to apply HERE by Thursday, May 7, 2020.

If you have any questions about the OCU CARES Emergency Grant, please contact Dr. Levi J. Harrel, Dean of Students.

All currently enrolled students at Oklahoma City University were emailed the following on May 5, 2020:

Students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19, such as the purchasing of: food for self and/or family, temporary housing, transportation, additional technology, additional course materials, and additional child care costs, are encouraged to apply for the OCU CARES Emergency Grant by Thursday, May 7th.

If you are a currently enrolled student who is eligible to receive federal financial assistance, you may be eligible to receive an OCU CARES Emergency Grant. The direct link to the application can be found HERE.

If you have any questions about the OCU CARES Emergency Grant, please contact Dr. Levi J. Harrel, Dean of Students.

\** If you have already submitted an OCU CARES Grant Application, you do not have to submit another application. ****

All currently enrolled students at Oklahoma City University were emailed the following on May 14, 2020:

The deadline to apply for an OCU CARES Emergency Grant has been extended. Students who have incurred expenses as a result of the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19, such as the purchasing of: food for self and/or family, temporary housing, transportation, additional technology, additional course materials, and additional child care costs, are encouraged to apply HERE for an OCU CARES Emergency Grant.

If you are a currently enrolled student who is eligible to receive federal financial assistance, you may be eligible to receive an OCU CARES Emergency Grant. Federal eligibility requirements for the OCU CARES Emergency Grant include:

- demonstrated financial need,
- are a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen,
- and are enrolled in an eligible degree or certificate program

If you have any questions about the OCU CARES Emergency Grant, please contact Dr. Levi J. Harrel, Dean of Students.

*** If you have already submitted an OCU CARES Grant Application, you do not have to submit another application. ***

All currently enrolled students at Oklahoma City University were emailed the following on May 15, 2020:

After extending the deadline for applications, the OCU CARES Emergency Grant application is now closed.

If you have any questions about the OCU CARES Emergency Grant, please contact Dr. Levi J. Harrel, Dean of Students.